Active Meeting—Reports on the Active International convention held recently in Tacoma, Wash., will be given by delegates at tonight's regular weekly dinner-meeting of the local chapter in the Hotel Medford starting at 8:30 o'clock. Dwight L. Houghton announced today that he had received official confirmation of his appointment as district governor of Active International. The district embraces the entire state of Oregon.

Banwell to Speak—Three addresses on aviation were scheduled today for A. H. Banwell, manager of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, who was general chairman for the recent Boise conference of the Northwest Aviation Planning Council. Mr. Banwell will address the 20-30 club at its dinner-meeting at 8:30 tonight in the Hotel Jackson; the Kiwanis club at its luncheon-meeting at 12:15 on August 9 in the Hotel Medford, and the Bellview Grange at 8:30 p. m. on August 17.

To Retire Here—Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Drummond, who recently purchased a home at 1002 East 11th street, plan to return about September 1 to Norfolk, where Dr. Drummond will engage in medical work for nine months. At the end of that period Dr. Drummond plans to retire and take up permanent residence here. He is a medical missionary. Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Drummond are the parents of Dr. C. I. Drummond, county health officer, who was born in Mahoba, India, where his father was doing missionary work.

Ex-Residents Here—Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Root of Portland, former Medford residents, are spending a short vacation in the valley. They are being entertained by Mrs. Root's brothers, Arthur M. Putney of 508 Plum street and Chester Putney of Ashland, and her sisters, Mrs. Nellie A. Tucker of 801 Dakota avenue and Mrs. Edna Purzell of 824 Palm street. Mr. Root for years operated a music store here and was a member of the Medford Rotary club. He left here 12 years ago for Portland where he is also in the music business.

Post Meeting Tonight—A large attendance of local Legionnaires is anticipated for tonight's meeting of Medford post No. 15 which convenes at the armory at 8. This is the last regular meeting before the annual state convention and important matters are slated for discussion, officers said. All veterans planning to go to Albany via the Legion special car are asked to be on hand to make their reservations, as only a limited number can be accommodated. Full details regarding the special rates secured for the trip will be explained at tonight's session. Visiting Legionnaires are invited.

VICTIM'S IDENTITY REMAINS MYSTERY

Identity of the aged hitch-hiker who was killed on the Pacific highway four miles north of Gold Hill Saturday night when struck by a car driven by A. H. Schneider of Grants Pass remains a mystery. County Coroner Frank Peri said today. He was photographed yesterday. His fingerprints will be taken today, Coroner Peri stated, and forwarded to Washington, D. C., in an attempt to identify him. The coroner today issued a description of the man as follows: Weight, between 180 and 190 pounds; age, 70 years or more; height, about 5 feet 10 inches; full, grayish-brown beard; full face; high cheek bones; Roman nose; blue eyes; no upper teeth; six lower teeth; numerous old scars on chest, neck and legs. When he was killed the old man was wearing a gray work shirt purchased from J. C. Penney company, blue denim overalls, black shoes, a blue zipper jacket, an old brown cloth overcoat and a brown hat.

OLIVIA D'HAVILAND HERE ON AIR TRIP

Olivia DeHaviland, screen actress, was a brief visitor at Medford municipal airport this noon but no one was supposed to know it. Miss DeHaviland, it seems, was traveling incognito, just like royalty. United Air Lines employee here knew nothing about her. At least that's what she said. But the comedy actress arrived from the south on the United Mainliner at 12:22 and departed for the north at 12:34. While the ship was in port, she wandered around the field and administration building. She was unattended.
