

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

From Los Angeles—Merle Preston and Bob Smith of Los Angeles are visiting at the home of Preston's aunt, Mrs. Mark Putnam, on Pennsylvania avenue.

Confers Here—Lee Port, ranger in charge of the Applegate district of the Rogue River national forest, conferred here today with Karl L. Jannouch, forest supervisor, regarding the winter CCC program.

Receiving Treatment—Gordon Hegense, ranger naturalist at Crater Lake national park, is receiving medical treatment at Community hospital. He is getting along nicely, hospital attendants said today.

Airmail Change—Effective today, the United Mailliner bound for the north will leave municipal airport at 12:56 p. m. instead of 12:54. It was announced by Postmaster Frank DeSouza. Mails close at the central postoffice 45 minutes before plane departure time.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called this forenoon to put out a grass blaze on the Medford Corporation property where some rubbish burning got beyond control. The blaze was quickly extinguished. No damage resulted.

Has Blood Poisoning—Ynaliso Lopez, 30, of Sprague River, a Mexican charged with selling liquor to Indians, is receiving treatment in the Jackson county jail for blood poisoning in the left hand. He was brought to the jail here a few days ago by United States Deputy Marshal Paul Hanlin and will later be transferred to Portland. His hand was cut in a car accident and blood poison developed, Mr. Hanlin said.

Returning to Ship—Paul L. Thompson will leave tonight to rejoin his ship, the U. S. S. Cincinnati, after spending an 18-day leave of absence from the navy at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shirley. Mr. Thompson completed ten years of naval service last May and re-enlisted for another three-year tour of duty. During the ten years he has served in several stations, including the flag division on the U. S. S. Northampton, two years of shore duty in San Francisco and the communications office at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. At present he is general supervisor of all radio traffic on his ship.

Return from Visit—Mrs. H. E. Peck and daughter, Betty Rose, returned Wednesday evening from a two-weeks visit in Long Beach, Cal.

Medford Visitors—Out-of-town residents visiting in Medford today included Alex McFarland of Phoenix and Mrs. Fred Baylis, of Hill, Cal.

From Canal Zone—J. W. Whipple and son Fred, of Balboa, Panama Canal Zone, have been visiting during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kim Gentry of route 2.

Moves Office—Dr. E. W. Hoffman, chiropractic physician, has moved his office from the city to his residence on the Jacksonville highway two miles west of town.

Revival Meetings—Ten days of revival camp meetings were begun today at Rogue River with Evangelist Herbert Shaw in charge. Three services are being held daily, 10 a. m. and 2:30 and 8 p. m.

Back from South—Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Carpenter, proprietors of the Band Box here, returned to Medford by car last night after spending three weeks in California. Last week they attended the fall merchandise marts in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Flying North—W. E. Gilmore, president of the Gilmore Oil company, arrived at municipal airport yesterday afternoon in his Bellanca, piloted by Charles LaJotte. He was en route from Burbank, Cal., to Portland and Seattle, Wash.

Lodge to Meet—All members of Tailsman lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias, were requested today to attend the regular meeting scheduled for Monday evening in the hall at Fifth and Grape streets. A large number attended last Monday's meeting to which a delegation came from the Orants Pass lodge to participate in the initiation of a class of pilgrims in the oriental degree.

School Tests—School readiness tests will be given from August 23 to 28 for children under six years of age who wish to enter school this fall. The tests will be given in the office of the county school superintendent, Jackson county courthouse. Appointments may be made by telephone or mail. The tests do not apply to city school children of Medford and Ashland.

In Westerner

Buck Jones' latest picture, "Smoke Tree Range," a lightning-fast story of the open range, opens tomorrow at the Rialto theatre where it will also play Saturday. Jones portrays the grandson of a cattle baron, torn between love of a girl and loyalty to his grandfather, whom he believes to be dispossessing the girl of rightfully owned property. Muriel Evans co-stars.

To Conference—Gordon R. Green, division manager here of American Fruit Growers, Inc., will leave by plane tomorrow morning for Chicago where he will attend a conference of company executives and the international pear and apple convention at which fruit buyers from all parts of the world will gather. Mr. Green expects to be back in Medford next Wednesday, returning by plane.

Return from East—Wayne May, employed by the United Air Lines in Oakland, Cal., and his father, Earl May, returned to their home here at 604 South Newtown street Monday after vacationing in the east. They went east by plane and on the return trip took delivery of a new automobile at Detroit, driving from there to Medford. Wayne will visit with his parents here until next Wednesday and then return to Oakland.

Substitute Arrives—Rex Wilson, assistant ranger of the Columbia national forest, began his new duties today as ranger in charge of the Union Creek district of the Rogue River national forest where he will substitute until December 1 for Ran-

Jean Harlow's Last Picture At Craterian Sunday

Action-packed thrills and the romantic glamour of the racetracks form the background for "Saratoga," the late Jean Harlow's last and greatest picture which comes to the New Craterian theatre Sunday for a three day run. She is co-starred with Clark

Gable, who sky-rocketed to fame with her in "Red Dust" and other films. Critics the world over have been anxiously awaiting the picture that Miss Harlow's work as the spoiled heiress in "Saratoga" is unquestionably her best and had she been allowed to go on untold glory and success would have been her reward. Others in an all-star cast include Lionel Barrymore, Frank Morgan, Walter Pidgeon, Una Merkel and Cliff Edwards.

ger Jesse DeWitt. Mr. Wilson arrived here yesterday with his wife and has taken up residence at the Union Creek ranger station. Mr. DeWitt has been granted a leave of absence and plans to leave next week for the Oregon coast for a complete rest. He has been with the United States forest service for 30 years.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy extended us during our recent bereavement; also for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mr. and Mrs. Otto DeJarnett, William Purdin.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

ROGUE RIVER MEN TO TRIAL TUESDAY

Trial of Cloyd O'Kelley, Arch Ballard, and the Milton Brothers, residents of Rogue River charged with disorderly conduct in a complaint filed by Harry B. Randelman, special city policeman of Rogue River, has been set for next Tuesday in Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman's court. The four defendants are at liberty on their own recognizance. They have retained Attorney William M. McAllister.

The complaint alleges the quartet visited a dance, conducted by the Townsend club in Rogue River city park, last Saturday night, created a disturbance and used profane language. Randelman told the district attorney, in the hubbub he received a black eye.

The dance proceeds were to be used to help reduce the financial deficit of the Townsend club sponsored Fourth of July celebration at Rogue River.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Studies Birds

Charlie Ruggles dons this odd costume to go study the birds and beasts in company with Boy Scouts in "Mind Your Own Business." Hilarious newspaper comedy playing at the Roxy theatre today and tomorrow. Alice Brady co-stars.

Shorthand student needing more preparation can pay for coaching by help in office. Box 215, Tribune.

Too Late to Classify

FOR SALE—Sweet corn ready now for canning. Livinville place on old Pacific Hwy.

WANTED—Reliable girl for housework and care of children. Phone 986-J.

FOR RENT—8-room furnished home 33 Quince.

WANTED—Edgerman in small sawmill, 8 M. capacity. State age and experience. Write Box 211, Tribune.

FOR SALE—16 head Angora goats. Harvey Morgan, Trail, Ore.

WANTED—Legal stenographer. Tel. 85.

WANT TO RENT—3 or 4-room furnished house. Will give reference. Phone 290-L.

CONVALESCENT HOME, Ashland. Invalids and aged well cared for.

WANTED—Reasonably priced truck. Phone 459-X.

FOR SALE—Electric washer, almost new. Priced right for cash. After 6 evenings. 954 Blvd., Ashland.

$2450—4 ACRES, near city limits, all irrigated in tomatoes. Crop worth $800. 5-room modern house, all outbuildings; lots of shade; $650 down, balance small monthly payments. See A. F. Flowers, 12th and Front Sts.

FOR SALE—Cement brick and building blocks. Phone 563-M, 646 Pearl St.

FOR SALE—Piano and furniture of 8-room house. Phone 459-X, 108 Columbus.

1936 DODGE Touring Sedan; beautiful golden beige finish like new, small mileage; new car guarantee. Priced for quick sale on low easy terms. Used Car Dept. open evenings. PIERCE-ALLEN MOTOR CO. Dodge and Plymouth Distributors.

RUGS cleaned and shampooed to look like new. $1.25, with Electrolux. Phone 1138-Y.

GET YOUR GOLDEN BANTAM Canning Corn Now! 15c dozen; 10 dozens $1.40. Open evenings and Sunday. Denney's Grocery, near Pine Cone.

WANTED—Neat, refined girl over 30 years, for sales work. Box 252, Mail Tribune.

SWEDISH MASSAGE, Russian-Turkish cabinet baths, 205 Liberty Bldg. Phone 694.

Auto painting property done or on charge Mitchell Auto Beauty Shop.

WANTED—Used furniture, doors, windows, tools, etc. Berrydale 2nd Hand Store, 1603 No. Riverside. Phone 269.

ROXY

Playing Today and Friday

Settle Back and Howl!

Alice snoops while Charlie scoops... what fun!

Charlie RUGGLES Alice BRADY

"MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS"

LYLE TALBOT HENRY BAKE

Cartoon Novelty - News -

WHEN THIS SHOW HITS YOU... YOU'LL SEE STARS!!

Stars of radio, stage, screen, even television—running wild in a three-ring circus of exciting surprises and fun! LOOK UNTIL YOU'RE DAZZLED! LAUGH UNTIL YOU'RE LIMP!

THE NEW FACES OF 1937

With all these famous entertainers:

JOE PENNER
MILTON BERLE
PARKY KARKUS
HARRIET HILLIARD
WILLIAM BRADY
JEROME COWAN
THELMA LEEDS

and a hundred new faces including:

Lorraine Kruger - Bert Gordon (Coral Minkus Book)
Tommy Mack (Judge Hugo Stright) - The Four Playboys -
The Brothers - Lora, Kite & Stanley - Lora Brothers - Brian Sisters - The Three Chocolaters - Ann Miller - Benny Robinson

RKO-RADIO PICTURE

Life is just a bowl of raspberries to this bunch of crazy guys! Every one at the top of his class as a laugh doctor!... See them all in one great show!

EIGHT great song writers produced the words and captivating tunes!

SEVEN thrilling stars will make you laugh and forget!

FIFTY hand-picked beauties will make you look and remember!

A HUNDRED new faces, brought from the world's gay places, will keep you walking on air!

A THOUSAND new ideas will make you thrill with wonder, and with joy!

Don't Be Whistling These Tunes: "Love Me Never Out of Season"—"Penthouse on Third Avenue"—"It Goes To Your Feet"—"It Didn't Move You"—"The Widow in Lace"—"New Phases"—"When The Berry Blossoms Bloom"—and the new dance sensation, "Peekin"

AN EDWARD SMALL PRODUCTION - DIRECTED BY LEIGH JASON

Starts Today for 3 Days
Complete Shows at 1:45-7:00-9:15

Always COOL

THE New CRATERIAN

Cool AND COMFORTABLE

Selected Short Subjects
Mats-30c Eves-40c Kiddies-10c