MILLIGAN PAIRED WITH LEVINSON TO OPEN FIRST ROUND

List of Eligibles for Portland Classic August 23 Reads Like Blue Book of American Amateur Golf

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(AP)—An entry list of 180 players, picked through their performances in sectional qualifying tests a few weeks ago, was announced today by the United States Golf Association for the forty-first national amateur championship, to be played at the Alderwood club, Portland, Ore., August 23-28.

The group which will compete in the qualifying round the first day reads like a "blue book" of American amateur golf.

Many Stars Coming Starting with defending champion Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati, who conquered Scotland's Jack McLean in last year's stormy final, the entries include seven of the fast eight in the 1935 tourney; most of last year's Walker cup players, six former champions and three former national open titleholders. Notable absentees are George Dunlap, the 1933 champion and Walker cupper, and George Voight and Ed White, members of last year's cup team.

The honor of starting play goes to John O. Levinson of Kennebunk Beach, Me., New England champion, and Sidney A. Milligan of Eugene, Ore. They have been paired to start the first round at 8 a. m. August 23.

Ex-Champs Skipped In addition to Fischer, former winners of the amateur crown who will try to win it again at Portland are Francis Ouimet, winner in 1914 and again in 1917; Chick Evans, 1916 and 1920; Jesse Guifford, 1921; Max Marston, 1923; and Ross (Sandy) Somerville, the Canadian who took the title in 1922. Ouimet, Evans and Johnny Goodman of Omaha are the former open champions.

From the 1936 Walker cup team, Fischer, Goodman, Charles Yates of Atlanta, Harry Givan and Scotty Campbell of Seattle, Walter Emery of Oklahoma City and Reynolds Smith of Dallas will be in the field. Fischer, Goodman, Campbell, Johnny Riddell of Garden City, who made the grade as an alternate and gained a place in the field when a couple of New York qualifiers dropped out; Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Russell Martin of Chicago reached the last eight in 1936.

Newcomers Entered Arranged against this collection of proven stars are such newcomers to big-time golf as Wilfred Hehrle of Racine, Wis., the Louisiana state college pair of Fred Haas and Paul Leslie; Chuck Kroda of Michigan; "Trailer Bill" Holt of Syracuse, N. Y.; Don Schumacher of Dallas, the young New Yorker, Willie Turnum and Kingsley of Madison, Utah. Any one of them may have the strokes to win.

In addition to Somerville, A. Stanley Anderson of England and Ken Black of Vancouver are the only foreign players entered.

SOPWITH TO RETURN WITHIN TWO YEARS, IS SCRIBE'S BELIEF

By ALAN GOULD NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 6.—(AP)—Best guess is that T. O. M. Sopwith will be back with another challenge for America's cup within two years. He won't commit himself now but once the cup "bug" has bitten a yachtsman he's difficult to discourage. It doesn't seem to make much difference whether they win or lose. Sir Thomas Lupton couldn't win and Harold S. Vanderbilt can't lose, it seems, but they apparently found it equally as fascinating as it is expensive.

Ranger didn't set all the records at this year's seagoing soiree. New highs in editorial fantasy came close to causing some international incidents. Sopwith felt keenly he was subjected to unjust flights of criticism by rail birds, but refused to "squawk" publicly. Aside from that slip on the last start, Sopwith and his crew made fewer and less conspicuous mistakes than Skipper "Mike" Vanderbilt. But Ranger was the better boat and had the better sailing equipment. Sopwith carried canvas wardrobe worth $10,000 but didn't always have the right sail for the right moment.

TROUT FISHERMEN PROMISED SPORT

With all streams in the county low and clear, trout fishermen can expect a successful week end, game division of the state police reports. Steelhead angling in Rogue river remains good, with limit catches being reported every day. Soft-shelled crawfish providing the best bait, although flies and spinners are being used with success. Some chinook salmon are still being landed. With the exception of Four Mile lake, where silversides and rainbow abound in quantity, lakes in this district are now generally poor, according to the report.

Ken Leavitt allowed only one hit to lead his HUMRS outfit to a 5-3 victory over Faber's of Central Point last night in a Commercial League softball game at the high school stadium.

Another neat pitching job was turned in by Father Meyer of the Catholic Men when he gave up only four safeties to turn back Pluhers's 9-4, in the other Commercial League encounter.

Telephone defeated the Grocereria, 12-9, in the lone Service League squabble. Leavitt winning his second game of the evening when he kept eight Grocereria hits from doing too much damage.

PADRES BATTER BEAVERS DOWN

(By the Associated Press) San Francisco's Seals were back in third place in the Pacific Coast league baseball race today after frustrating Sacramento's efforts to give them their third victory in as many days by staging a four-run uprising in the last half of the ninth to win, 6 to 5.

San Diego increased its lead by defeating Portland, 5 to 1, and pushing them back into fourth place after a 24-hour stay in the third spot. Oakland continued to win ball games by trimming Los Angeles, 4 to 1, and Seattle turned on the missions to win, 5 to 1.

Padre batsmen had a hitting picnic at Portland, nicking three Beaver pitchers for 16 safeties. Hal Patchett led the parade with two doubles and a single, while Hubert Thompson, Jimmy Reese and Pitcher Dick Ward each connected for three hits.

CRATERS, PIRATES DO BATTLE HERE COMING SUNDAY

Erickson or Hughes to Get Call for Mound Duty — Skipper Balkovick Holds Respect for Cellarites

Southern Oregon League Standings: Ashland City 4 0 1,000. Crescent City 2 1 267. Grants Pass 2 2 501. Medford 1 1 500. Glendale 1 2 333. Roseburg 0 4 300.

Games Next Sunday: Roseburg at Medford. Grants Pass at Ashland. Crescent City at Glendale.

Still with a fighting chance at the second-half pennant of the Southern Oregon League, Medford's Craters face the cellarite Roseburg Pirates here Sunday afternoon at the turf high school field. Opening pitch is slated for 2:30 sharp.

Manager Mike Balkovick said today that either Ray Erickson or Jack Hughes would open on the slab for the Craters. Manager George Barr of the Pirates will probably do the coaching pitching. A big right-hander, Barr has plenty on the ball and, but for infield errors last Sunday at Crescent City, would have upset the first-half winners. As it was, Crescent City only copped by an 8-7 score.

Hughes, who had played no ball for two years until the Glendale game two weeks ago, has been working out daily, and believes he is fit to see starting service. Last Sunday he hurled great ball against Ashland after one bad inning, and Balkovick has a lot of confidence in the husky star-boarder.

If Hughes does not start the battle, Ray Erickson, another right-hander, will answer the opening gong. Unbeatable for six innings, Erickson may open the game, with Hughes taking over in the latter stages.

Although deeply buried in the circuit cellar, the Pirates are not fooling Balkovick and the Craters one little bit. Last Sunday's game with Crescent City was a perfect example of the hard luck that has been hounding the Buccaers since the second-half got under way, and the locals are fully aware that the jinx is bound to be broken some time. It will be a tough encounter, maybe one of Medford's toughest. Because of that, the Craters have undergone strenuous workouts daily, and are reported in fine shape for the game.

Donny Donovan will be at third base and Alvin Merritt in left field for the only changes in the regular Crater lineup. Donovan was shifted to the hot corner when Duke Hankinson returned to Eugene early this evening. Phil Savers were Eunice Sanden and Phoebe Ferguson. The program and marshmallow roast. Several girls stayed a few days longer than the others, with Mrs. Helen Ferguson of Medford as chaperone. These girls were Phoebe Ferguson, Dolores Smets, Marcine McKee and Eunice and Lois Sanden.

Geraldine Ayres accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Beebe and family to Grants Pass for a picnic August 1. Prof. and Mrs. Chester Tunnel visited here recently. During their stay they packed up their household goods and took them in a trailer to McMinnville, where they will visit until opening of school at East Lynn, Ore., where Mr. Tunnel will teach. To fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Tunnel's resignation from the high school faculty, Bob Woods has been hired. Mr. Woods has been athletic coach at Phoenix for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pick and family picnicked in Grants Pass park August 1 with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Seth T. Waters of Klamath Falls spent Sunday and Monday at the Sanden home. Monday they motored to McKee's bridge to enjoy a swim.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Loughead returned recently from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Dunnington, of Eugene. Miss Maude Comstock of Medford was a guest of friends here the past week. Mr. Voris, who lives on the property formerly owned by Alvie Hoels, has been doing carpenter work in Klamath Falls.

Messrs. Albert Gottle, Dudley and Greenmeyer of Dorris, Calif., visited here August 1. Miss Ida Kleinhammer of Medford, Calif., visited at the home of her brother, A. Kleinhammer, July 31. Crater Lake claimed a number of Jacksonvillians on August 1, among them being Mr. and Mrs. W. Godward, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wakefield and daughter, Frances, and friend, who returned by way of the rim road. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Burnell and family. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Godward and daughter Dorland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hecker and Otto Hecker's families. Some of the latter fished in the lake and reported success. Earl Smith and family have moved

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Don Budge and his teammates in the Davis cup victory turned today to the tennis courts of their homeland for further glory after a reception that reminded New York of the gala homecomings for the famous a decade ago. Budge, with his doubles partner, Gene Mako, will play in the doubles of the eastern grass court championships, which open today, at the Westchester Country club, Rye, N. Y. After that he will play both singles and doubles at Newport in the Casino invitation tournament. Budge's teammates, Frank Parker, Bitay Grant, Wayne Sabin and Mako, will all participate in the singles at Rye, but Don will wait until the Newport tourney before unlimbering his terrific service and uncanny volleying. Budge again declared he will remain amateur for another year, despite pro offers in box-car figures.

BATHING, NOT SWIMMING IS TRUDY'S PASTIME NOW

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., Aug. 6.—(AP)—The page one streamers said: "Trudy swims channel." That was 11 years ago today—and today Gertrude Ederle sat on the little porch of her frame home as some of those who remembered came by and said hello.

She said she might go into the water later in the day. "Not for a swim," she explained. "I don't go swimming any more; I go bathing." She laughed when she said it. She's got just as good a laugh now as she had 11 years ago and she still can laugh at "the fortune she brushed right past without recognizing."

It was C. C. "Cash and Carry" Eyle who said, after the ticker tape parade up Broadway and before her vaudeville tour, "I could've made her a million."

"You know," she said, "I didn't even endorse many things. I had the chance at a couple of cigarettes, but I don't smoke." She still keeps "in condition," even though it was only recently, after months of suffering, that she came out of a plaster cast. She had hurt her back in a fall. She doesn't appear to weigh an ounce over what she did when she was the champion of woman swimmers.

"But I'm out of swimming competition forever," she said. "I'm 30 now, getting to be an old lady. I don't know anything sadder than seeing an ex-athlete trying to make a come-back. Besides that, the swimming records they're hanging up now make some of my old marks look silly."

"There's only one of my old marks that's still standing. Nobody's ever come closer than eight seconds of the unofficial time I set in the 300 meter swim."

She didn't even mention the fact that her crossing of the English channel in 14 hours, 31 minutes still is the record for women. She didn't mention how she staggered upright on the sands of France with the grease which had been her protection from the cold washed from her body. She was just an exhausted 19-year old girl then—with the whole world praising her as one of the greatest athletes of all time.

Now she is happy in a little home, even though it's a long way to the nearest glimpse of water. "The only thing left to swim is the Atlantic ocean, and nobody can do that. And don't believe this stuff you've heard about my eyes going bad. I don't want any sob stories written about me."

Visitors to McKee's bridge on August 1 were Mr. and Mrs. Ayres and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Kenneth Purcell, Joe Beach, Ansel Gunter and Fred and Bruce Metzger. At a meeting of the Boy Scout committee Wednesday it was decided to hold the summer camp August 8 to 15.

Dennis Butcher had his tonsils out Thursday, Dr. Gillis performing the operation. Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Elkin of San Francisco are visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Lola Hildreth. They have been traveling for the past month on a trip which took them as far east as New York and through 20 states. They are en route home.

When the Medford Softball association changed the pitching distance from 40 to 37½ feet at the start of the second-half schedule over a week ago, the move was supposed to eliminate the wild-eyed, slugging affairs that had taken place under the stars at the high school field. It was regarded as a smart maneuver by all and sundry, including yours truly, who figured that it would swing the balance of power to the defense. It was believed that from then on, fans would witness brilliant, air-tight pitchers' battles, something that had been as scarce as clouds over the distant fence.

To date, and after a thorough trial of the decreased hurling distance, about the only difference noticed has been higher scoring games than ever before. Where batters previously had merely dug in and swung for the fence, they now dig trenches at the plate and level for the Talent city limits. While nobody has as yet attained that distance with the over-grown baseball, the fences have taken an awful heating, infielders have taken their life in their hands, and sewerkeepers have suffered from writers' cramp more than ever before.

The other night somebody beat somebody else, 33-3. Night before last, somebody else licked somebody else, 30-3. There have been several battles with over 20 tallies chased across, and the batters, in general, have been going slug-nutty. Realizing that something has got to be done about this here situation, E. H. Hedrick has made plans to do it. Not this year, it's too late now, but next season will fans be able to witness tighter softball affairs.
