Pinball Owner STAVES OFF BAN

ALBANY, Aug. 6 - (AP) - An affidavit of prejudice against Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling delayed today the contemplated action of District Attorney J. K. Weatherford, Jr., and Sheriff Herbert Shelton to ban pinball machines in Lincoln county.

Attorney John F. Steelhammer, representing Hugh Hammerly, pinball machine owner, filed the affidavit. The action held up disposal of the restraining order issued last march by Lewelling at the behest of Hammerly.

Weatherford said he would not molest machines until the injunction was disposed of, but said he would do all he could to hasten the disposition.
