Cornish School Graduate To Present Play Monday

Morgan Cook, who portrays one of the characters in the Shakespearean play now being presented in Ashland, will give a play entitled "The Terrible Meek" Monday evening at the First Methodist church at eight o'clock.

Mr. Cook is a graduate of the Cornish school of Seattle and has presented this play many times to large and appreciative audiences, and also used it over the radio in Seattle.

Mr. Cook will be assisted in his program by Louis Anderson at the pipe organ and scripture reading and prayer by Francis Hardy.

"The Terrible Meek" is being sponsored by the Wesley league and it is hoped that a large audience will attend this unusual program. No admission will be charged, but a free will offering will be taken.

Guests at Craft Home for Week

Guests at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Roy Craft this week are Charles Brown and Clyde Murphy, of Chicago and Ray Craft of Aberdeen, Wash. Murphy, an ensign in the naval reserve, is enroute home from a tour of duty with the U. S. S. Salt Lake City on a cruise to Alaska.

SOME BARTLETTS READY AUGUST 15

Pressure tests on Bartlett pears, conducted by County Agent A. B. Cordy show some of the Bartletts will be within the picking range by August 15. The tests apply only to the small number of pears brought in.

The county horticulturist explains that it is not customary to pick as soon as the picking range is reached, but to wait for a week or ten days for the fruit to gain more size. He further stated it was a bit early for pressure testing.

Bartletts and other varieties are now developing at the rate of about 2 per cent per day. Horticulturist Cordy states, and are developing faster now than at any other time of the year.

The tests made, and the opinions of orchardists, indicate that the Bartlett harvesting will start from Aug. 20 to 25.

EUGENE SITDOWN BROUGHT TO END

EUGENE, Aug. 6.—(AP)—City police today officially closed the story of Mrs. Allice Blaine and her "sit-down protest" against A. C. Mathews with the announcement that she had called off her daily parade in front of Mathews' residence.

Upon advice of the city attorney, police informed Mrs. Blaine that she was to quit her post. This step followed Mrs. Blaine's spectacular appearance two days ago in front of the Mathews residence, bearing a sign: "A. C. Mathews owes my 83-year old father $600 for hard labor—six years overdue."

Yesterday Mathews retaliated by spraying Mrs. Blaine with a garden hose.

MARTINS ATTEND BANQUET, DRAMA ASHLAND TONIGHT

Governor Charles H. Martin, of Oregon, will be a visitor in southern Oregon tonight, appearing as honor guest at a banquet in Ashland and giving a short address at the Shakespearean Festival in Ashland's outdoor theatre.

Governor Martin and Mrs. Martin are making a special trip here to appear at the festival. The governor is honorary president of the newly formed Oregon Shakespearean Festival association sponsoring this year's productions.

"Twelfth Night," one of the most popular of Shakespeare's comedies, will be presented on the stage following the governor's appearance. With Governor Martin on the program will be Eddie Nugent and Bradley Page, Hollywood actors, who have been attending this year's festival. They will give their impressions of the shows from a professional standpoint.

Proceeding the festival, the governor and Mrs. Martin will be guests at a dinner at the Lithia Hotel in Ashland. The affair is under the sponsorship of the Ashland chamber of commerce. The governor's appearance will be the first public appearance in southern Oregon since he was here in 1935 on the night the capitol burned.

The governor is enthusiastic over the success of this year's festival. The plays are presented under the direction of Angus L. Bower, drama head of the Southern Oregon Normal school.

"Romeo and Juliet" was presented for the second time last night before a large crowd. "Twelfth Night" will play for the last time tonight and the festival will close with "Taming of the Shrew" tomorrow night.

Two hundred additional reserved seats were added to the theatre today in anticipation of tonight's crowd, and several hundred general admission seats were also added.

Tickets for the shows are on sale at the chamber of commerce in Ashland and at the chamber of commerce and Pruitt's in Medford. General admission seats may be obtained at 50 cents and reserved seats at $1.

RAIN BRINGS HOPE OF FIRE CONTROL IN RANDLE FOREST

RANDLE, Wash., Aug. 6.—(AP)—Rain started falling today and the Randle ranger station said the moisture probably extended into the 2,000 acre fire burning on Spud hill in Columbia national forest.

The fire burned out a telephone line to Sunrise lookout southwest of the flaming area. The lookout is isolated but not in danger.

PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The federal forest service began mobilizing more men and equipment today to reinforce weary crews battling the three-mile long fire raging through the Columbia national forest near Randle, Wash.

Three hundred and ten fire fighters are en route to the lines, bringing the total man power past the 1700 mark.

The forest service headquarters reported the flames gained with a west wind last night and licked up more than 2,000 acres. A high fog today held out hopes of easier weather conditions, but the fire was by no means under control.

The fire, described as the northwest's most severe since the Bandon, Ore., disaster nearly a year ago, has destroyed thousands of dollars worth of 35-year old timber. Foresters said the blaze is spotted through an area about three miles long and a mile wide, leaving islands of unscarred trees sticking up through the smoke. They could offer no definite information on the extent of the loss.

WEEK-END REST FOR ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—(AP)—President Roosevelt expects to leave Washington late tonight for his home at Hyde Park, N. Y.

He told a press conference today he probably would return Monday morning.

Mr. Roosevelt said he was studying the $130,000,000 interior department appropriation bill with its large allotments for reclamation and parks.

Asked about his conference Wednesday with Chairman Charles Hooper of the bituminous coal commission, the president said he was considering bringing the commission's 490 employees into the civil service as was done with those of the Home Owners' Loan corporation.

In response to a special session question, Mr. Roosevelt said he was not considering calling the senate in special session, the day after congress adjourns, to consider a supreme court nomination.
