Baptist Auxiliary Meeting Place Changed

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet in the Recreational hall, instead of with Mrs. Raymond Crawford, as previously announced.

Mrs. Grace Roberts will preside in the morning, and Mrs. F. R. Leach of Seattle will tell of her work with the Chinese and Japanese people of that city.

In the afternoon Mrs. Myrtle Wilson will have charge of a pageant. Local women taking the parts of missionaries will tell how Christmas is spent in their fields.

All who wish to hear Mrs. Leach speak on her work, or to see the pageant, are cordially invited. Each lady is requested to bring a gift suitable for a missionary.

Out-of-State Guests Are Numerous

During the entire summer Medford is fortunate in enjoying a number of guests from a distance. Just as the social season lays a bit for more casual amusements, there is a rush of visitors to our midst, so that we never become bored with ourselves, or each other. It is such a grand feeling to know that we have so many outstanding points of interest to show our friends from out of the state.

Luncheon at River Home for Sister

Mr. T. Slater Johnston entertained at a luncheon yesterday for his sister, Mrs. E. Carter, of Rochester. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter and their house guests, Miss Pamela McConnell of Los Angeles, and Miss Harriette O'Neil of Pasadena.

40-8 TRAIN GROOMED FOR STATE CONCLAVE; WILL BID FOR TROPHY

Southern Oregon youths' 40 at 8 train was groomed today for its trip to the state convention in Albany this week.

Dressed up in fresh paint and new decorations, the train will leave here at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning in charge of Cass Wymore, grand chemist, and William Rosenbaum.

The train has participated in conventions and "wrecks" all over the state and in northern California. It has brought a considerable volume of publicity to Medford and new ideas are continually sought to promote advertising for the city and the Rogue valley.

The present train crew is of the opinion that a few boxes of peats would help materially in publicizing the valley, the fruit to be distributed during the 40 at 8 and American Legion convention.

The train will participate in the big convention parade scheduled for Wednesday evening. It was the thought of the crew that the peats could be loaned to the operators at the parade passed through the streets of Albany.

Closing time for Foo Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

MAHONEY BACKED FOR STEWER SEAT

SALEM, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Democratic speakers advanced the names of Willis Mahoney of Klamath Falls as a candidate for United States senator and Governor Charles H. Martin for re-election, before a crowd of about 2,000 persons who attended the Marion county Democratic picnic at Silver Creek Falls park yesterday.

Warren Erwin of Portland urged the nomination of Mahoney to oppose Senator Frederick Steiwer, while George McLeod, S. Dem., urged the reelection of the governor.

Horace Walters of Salem, long active in Democratic circles announced his retirement from the Marion society on the eve of his departure for Arcadia, Calif., to make his home.

WASCO SETS DEADLINE ON PINBALL MACHINES

THE DALLES, Aug. 9.—(AP)—T. Leland Brown, district attorney announced pinball and marble board games will be banned in Wasco county after August 11.

The city of The Dalles has been licensing boards at $5 a month per unit.

TWO ASSESSED FINES FOR ILLEGAL ANGLING

Ray D. Doran and Paul D. Culbertson, charged with unlawful angling with foul hooks, were each fined $25 and costs in justice court Saturday on pleas of guilty.

By the use of foul hooks, weighted with lead, the anglers were able to "snag" fish on the bottom of the stream, it is claimed.

William H. Heath of Grants Pass, charged with violation of the basic speed law, was fined $5 and costs. Heath allegedly drove through Central Point at 60 to 65 miles per hour, when the speed limit is 25 miles per hour.

MORE TELEPHONE WIRES PLANNED FOR KLAMATH

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Charles Seavey, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company here announced plans of a $70,000 construction project on long distance lines between here and the California border.

THE OTHER WOMAN LIVES JUST AROUND THE CORNER

It may seem unreasonable, but most men cannot understand why a woman who is usually happy and loving should have recurring periods when her whole character seems changed.

Don't let the ordinary that all women face cause you avoidable discomforts or enlarge your home. Buy as few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

ASHURST DENIES STAILEY MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

The motion of Corinthis E. Stailey for the continuation of her suit against the late T. Heimroth, set for August 16, has been denied by Circuit Judge Edward B. Ashurst of Klamath county.

The motion was based upon the claim of Mrs. Stailey that Earl H. Pehl, her son-in-law, and "associated in the case," would be unable to attend. Pehl, convicted of ballot theft, under the terms of a parole granted by Governor Martin, cannot return to Jackson county until midnight August 15.

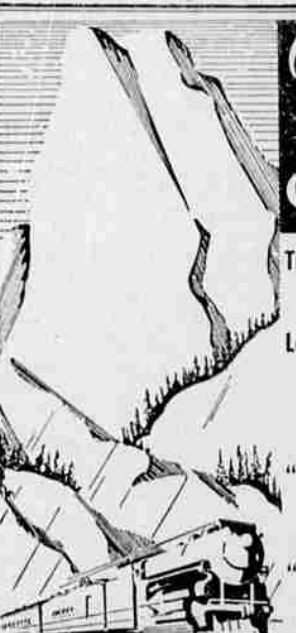

The suit concerns the Pacific Record-Herald building on Sixth street. It is based upon the allegation of Mrs. Stailey that Heimroth, who came into possession of the property under a sheriff's sale following foreclosure of a mortgage for money loaned Pehl, agreed to pay Mrs. Stailey $100 per month rental. Heimroth died last March. It is alleged $3450 is due under the agreement.

ASHLAND FESTIVAL SUCCESS ASSURES PERMANENT BASIS

Governor and Mrs. Martin Enthusiastic — Sponsors Tickets and Box Office Receipts Total $1000

Described by Gov. Charles H. Martin as one of the state's most outstanding artistic achievements, the Oregon Shakespeare festival ended its six-day run in Ashland's outdoor theatre Saturday night.

A financial as well as artistic success, the festival this year attracted nearly three times as many visitors as last year, and assured the continuation of the Shakespearean plays on a permanent basis.

"Taming of the Shrew," new to festival audiences this year, closed the production Saturday night before a large crowd. Biggest audience of the week, however, turned out the night before when Governor and Mrs. Martin made a special trip here from Salem to lend encouragement to the festival productions.

Bank Three Events Portland's "fleet week," Eugene's "Oregon Trail" celebration and southern Oregon's Shakespearean festival have been the three outstanding attractions on this summer's program in Oregon.

Both the governor and Mrs. Martin were enthusiastic over the performance Friday evening, being impressed not only with the smoothness of the acting, but with the colorful costuming. They went backstage after the performance was over and took a keen interest in meeting the individual performers and complimenting them on their work.

Film Actors Enthralled Hollywood players who have been spending several days here, added their compliments as professional actors, stating they regarded this year's productions as the finest and most authentic Shakespeare they have ever seen.

Walter H. Levelette, business manager for the festival, reported today that box office receipts, including sponsoring membership tickets, to-talented well over $1000. Last year's receipts were slightly over $400.

The increased receipts will enable the festival association to proceed with plans for next year's shows, secure in the knowledge that all obligations will be paid and a nice balance remain for improvements in the staging facilities.

Judge Earl B. Day, active president of the association, has expressed his gratitude to all who contributed toward the success of the festival this year.

"Hamlet" will probably be staged as one of next year's productions. It was announced today. "Twelfth Night" and "Taming of the Shrew" will probably be repeated.

DID YOU SAY Action?

HELEN HOWARD, diver, realizes what healthy nerves mean. Does she smoke? "I smoke as many Camels as I please," Helen says.

CAPT. BILL HATCH, noted fishing skipper, says: "After a tough fight with a big one, when I feel tired, I get a 'lift' in energy with a Camel."

AUCTIONEER. "I work at a tense pace," says John M. Mitchell. "Jittery nerves? No! My cigarette never gets on my nerves. It's Camel."

RIGHT ON THE NOSE! Consistent, accurate hitting makes Bob Bullock a dangerous scoring threat. Above, he rides an opponent out of play—at the same time makes a well-timed shot to the up-rights at blinding speed!

CLOSE QUARTERS! Bullock is famous as a hard-riding defense player too. Above, he's playing to retrieve the ball for his side. Like Lou Gehrig (the Iron Man of Baseball), and Glenn Hardin (World's Champion Hurdler), Bob Bullock has a decided preference for Camels. He's smoked Camels for over a decade.

Naturally Bob Bullock appreciates mild smoking. POLO enthusiasts will agree with Mr. Bullock that it takes healthy nerves to play polo—nerves that don't fall in a pinch. Bob Bullock says: "Camels deserve the blue ribbon for mildness. I've smoked Camels every day for years. They never jangle my nerves!"

Meatime (right) finds Bob enjoying Camels—for digestion's sake. "Smoking Camels at mealtimes and afterwards adds a world of enjoyment to eating," he says. "I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"
