

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Medford Visitor—Mrs. Harley Brewer of Ashland was a visitor in Medford this morning.

To Washington—Mrs. Jessie Muir left yesterday for Goldendale, Wash., where she will spend a few weeks with relatives.

To Pendleton—Mrs. Myrtle Geis will leave by train tonight for Pendleton where she will visit her mother.

Vacation Ends—Al Throne has returned to his home in Lakeview after visiting friends here following a vacation in Portland.

To Lebanon—Sherman Godlove and his niece, Mrs. J. A. West, left by motorcar today for Lebanon where they will visit Mrs. West's mother.

Back from Klamath—Miss Phyllis Smith and Miss Alice Ward returned to their homes here last night after visiting relatives and friends in Klamath Falls for a few days.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called yesterday afternoon to put out a grass blaze on Groveland avenue near the Valley school. No damage was done.

First Solo Flight—John Day, son of County Judge Earl B. and Mrs. Day, made his first solo flight this morning, piloting the Taylor Cub owned by Thomas A. Cuberton, Jr., manager of Medford municipal airport. Mr. Day has been receiving instruction in Mr. Cuberton's aviation school.

Recovering—Mrs. C. M. Cooper expects to return to her home near Table Rock Sunday from Community hospital where she is recovering from a major operation performed August 3.

Driver Cited—Eliworth W. McCamman, 28, of route 1 was cited by state police to appear in justice court this afternoon for the alleged driving of an auto without an operator's permit.

On Inspection—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, left yesterday afternoon to inspect new construction at Lake of the Woods. He was expected to return tonight.

Annual Picnic—Annual picnic of the Missionary society of the M. E. C. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. Carolyn Adams on Wagner creek, August 16. Those planning to attend are to meet at the church at 10 a. m. Each is to bring sandwiches and a covered dish.

Night Flight—Sgt. Roy Stockwell of Fort Lewis, Wash., landed at Medford municipal airport at 3 o'clock this morning for his Douglas observation plane refueled. On a night practice flight, he was returning to his post from Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal.

Building Progressing—Work is progressing on the new church of the Nazarene at Holly and First streets, response of the congregation and others permitting the building to continue on a pay-as-you-go basis. It was announced today. Next week 10,000 pounds of structural steel material will be swung into place. The steel will bridge a 32-foot span which will permit the combining of two auditoriums without obstructions.

Chimney Fire—Nominal damage was done late yesterday afternoon by a small fire blamed on a defective chimney serving the Flynn Electric Service store at 131 West Main street and the adjoining Carl Y. Tengwald real estate agency. A paper fire set in the Tengwald agency stove ignited laths around the chimney in the electric company store, the fire department said. Some of the laths and plaster were removed by a chemical crew to put the blaze out.

K. of C. Picnic—The Knights of Columbus picnic scheduled for Sunday will be held on the campgrounds at the south end of Diamond lake. It was announced today. Facilities, including tables and stoves, have been provided for a large number of picnickers. All Catholics of southern Oregon and their friends are invited, the picnic being sponsored by the Medford, Bend, Klamath Falls and Lakeview councils of the Knights of Columbus. Coffee, sugar, cream and ice cream will be provided by the council. An open-air mass will be celebrated at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Father E. J. Murnane of Astoria, state chaplain of the Knights of Columbus.

Jersey Judging
Feature Of Fair
SALEM, Aug. 13.—(AP)—More than 300 head of Jerseys will be judged in the Jersey and Guernsey shows at the state fair by F. W. Atkinson, head of the department of dairy husbandry at Kansas State college. Fair officials said today.

The fair will be held from September 6 to 13. Dr. L. Fourn, college of Idaho, Boise, will judge the Holstein, Brown Swiss and Ayrshire entries, while W. W. Drick, state extension agent in animal husbandry at Lincoln, Neb., will judge the swine.

LEGION PROGRAM HELD STABILIZER FOR DEMOCRACY

Convention Speakers Urge Safeguards for American Form of Government—40 and Eight Election Held

ALBANY, Ore., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Pendleton was unanimously selected as the 1938 convention city, the date to be selected to avoid conflict with the round up.

ALBANY, Ore., Aug. 13.—(AP) The American Legion Americanization program is the "most stabilizing influence for the perpetuation of democracy," Stephen F. Chadwick, Seattle, national Americanism director, told the convention of the Oregon department today.

Chadwick, candidate for national commander, was one of a series of Legion speakers who urged safeguards for the American form of government against invasion of "isms" from abroad.

"There is a divine plan in what we are doing, trying to do," he said. "When we fought in Europe we learned we had the best nation on earth with the best form of government. We don't want our teachers to preach lies on foreign fields is best."

Hits "Crackpots" He described the young pioneer organizers as "crackpots" for exalting Stalin and Lenin. He attacked opponents of military training in colleges and said it was "a duty to know something about the defenses of the country."

"This country cannot endure unless democracy is a preferable form of government as opposed to fascism and communism," he said.

S. L. Hanson, commander of Spanish War Veterans, pledged support for any Legion program placed before the public. He urged a united effort establishing Armistice Day as a national holiday.

Defense Urged Louis Starr, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars, recommended a national defense program not only to protect our coast line from invasion but to guard the interior against dangerous trends.

Delegates got down to business today after opening day preliminaries and the convention parade last night which drew thousands of spectators.

Clatskanie's junior drum corps placed first in the junior competition, with Klamath Falls post No. 8 second; Willamette Falls post, Oregon City, third, and Sherwood post No. 6, fourth.

Miss Paulette Cruson was first in the drum major contest, with Richard Gallagher, Clatskanie, third. Name Garlock's Successor A. H. S. Haffenden of Portland was elected grand chef de gaze of the Grand Volture, Forty and Eight, succeeding Lee Garlock of Medford.

Other new officers were: B. F. Pound, chef de train; W. E. Wilkins, La Grande, commissaire; D. J. Jones, Portland, conductor; Charlie Jones, Portland, garde de la porte; Earl Conrad, Toledo, sous garde de la porte; Arthur Rosenberg, Astoria, garde de la porte; Duncan Nease, Portland, Dr. V. Hooker, Salem; Joe Chamberlain, Corvallis; Walter Looker, Medford; Herman Foster, Klamath Falls; James Larson, Pendleton, and Grover Francis, Ontario, chemist; Olin Shook, Albany, commis voyageur; Lee Garlock, Medford, champion nationale; Henry Heisel, Tillamook, sous chemist nationale.

Rose City Singers Win The Rose City unit of the auxiliary swept the first division trios, quartet and sextet singing, with Portland unit No. 1 second.

In the second division, the Silver-ton, Gresham and Hillsboro trios placed in order. Gresham took first in the quartet and sextet with Hillsboro second.

The Eight and Forty, women's honor organization, concluded its session with election of Bertha Alexander, Portland, lechapeu departmental.

Other new officers elected were: Mynette Mathison, Astoria, and Grace Myers, Portland, demichapeu; Doris McCamey, Portland, lechapeu; Mildred Pancher, Gresham, l'aumoniere; Marion Somerset, Astoria, le concierge; Harriet Shoemaker, Portland, nationale pouvoir; Margaret Underwood, Portland, alternate nationale pouvoir.

Delegates to the national convention at New York are Helen Bealey, Portland; Dolores Helming, Portland; Harriette Meyers, Astoria; Bertha Alexander, Portland, and Lucille Tillman, Portland.

Coming Sunday

Given credit as being one of the most hilarious comedy-romances of the season, "Easy Living," its cast headed by Edward Arnold, Joan Arthur and Ray Milland, comes to the Craterian theatre for a three-day run, beginning Sunday.

A merry mixture of $75,000 fur coats, bus boys, swanky hotel suites, millionaires and what-not, all rolled into one grand adventure by a fun-loving steno, "Easy Living" promises much amusement.

FATHER IS FREED IN FLYING KIDNAP

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—(UP)—A felony court judge today freed John M. Hayes, 33, wealthy Mahwah, N. J. sportsman, of charges that he "stole" his own baby daughter.

Judge George Weiss ordered the charges dismissed and told Hayes he was at liberty to continue his interrupted trip to the Bronx Zoo with his 29-month-old daughter.

Patricia Ann, the state's attorney's office said it had received no request for Hayes' extradition.

Hayes, who described himself as a chicken fancier, was arrested as he stepped from an eastbound airliner with Patricia Ann in his arms two weeks ago.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Charlotte Pendergast of San Francisco, filed the charges against Hayes because, she said, he took the baby from her on a ruse.

"I just told her I wanted to take Patricia Ann to visit the zoo," Hayes said, "but I didn't say it was the Bronx zoo I meant."

Hayes' wife died in California just after beginning divorce proceedings. Mrs. Pendergast kept the baby after her death.
