

Athletics Outhit Murderer's Row to Take Second Straight Victory

TAIL-ENDERS HIT MOST HOMERS TO BEAT YANKS, 12-6

White Sox And Boston Beaten, While Detroit Takes Double-Header.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Those astonishing Athletics, staggering along in the American league cellar, made easy meat of the pace-setting New York Yankees for the second straight day today.

Demonstrating the proof in the argument that there's no comeback for a home run, the no-longer apathetic Athletics beat the New York swat squad at its own game, 12 to 6.

Bud Thomas, who went the route and held the yankees to eight hits, clouted one of three homers Connie Mack's youngsters collected in their 16-hit attack on Kemp Wicker, Johnny Murphy and old Blubber Malone. Joining him in wallowing round trippers for the day were rookie chatcher Earl Brucker and outfielder Bob Johnson.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Johnny Allen made his first start since illness retired him June 18 and scored his fifth victory of the season today as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Chicago White Sox in the second game of their series here, 4 to 3.

Allen limited the Sox to six hits in seven innings and was at his best with men on bases.

DETROIT, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers mopped up a double-header with St. Louis today, slaming five Brownie pitchers for 40 hits which included eight home runs.

Elden Auker, who pitched the four-hit ball to win the first game, 16 to 1, hit circuit clouts in successive innings as did Charlie Gehring in the second, which the Tigers won 20 to 7.

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Society took over the closing program of the grand circuit meeting at Good Time park today, with three events for amateur drivers making up the program. The three professional judges were absent and Elizabeth Harriman, Mrs. E. T. Gerry and Mrs. Cornelius Blas, Jr., all of New York, placed the horses, the first feminine stand in the history of the major harness racing circuit.

Four-man team standing in the Rogue Valley club's tournament, following the second week of play, reveals the quartet of Captains H. L. Hathaway and L. G. Stewart leading the parade with two wins and no losses. This week, in matches to be played between Monday and Friday, the following teams will play: Kellom versus Wilcox, Porter versus Stewart, Clark versus Hammond, and Harding versus Leonard.

Today, a ball sweepstakes will be held, with full handicap allowed over the 18-hole medal play. Between 25 and 30 golfers are expected to enter.

The ball sweepstakes last Sunday was won by Leonard Harding and Lee Watson, both of whom posted net scores of 68.

Two ball mixed foursomes over nine holes, shot Thursday evening, saw Mrs. Leland Clark and Phil McManamy take low honors with a net 39.

CURT DAVIS, ONCE VALLEY PITCHER, MAULED BY REDS

Cubs Lead Cut—Giants And Pittsburgh Chalk-Up One Run Wins.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds avenged yesterday's 22 to 6 rout by pounding out three homers, each with a mate on base, and 14 other hits to beat the Chicago Cubs, 10 to 5, before 10,807 today and slice the league leaders' margin over the Giants to five and one-half games.

Ival Goodman and Alex Kampouris homered off Curt Davis in the fifth to score four runs and erase a 2-1 club lead and Ernie Lombardi homered off Roy Parmelee in the eighth.

The defeat, the Cubs' sixth in their last 12 games, was charged against C. Davis, who was making his fifth start after being out the first half of the season.

GEHRINGER ONLY HITTER TO GAIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The batters below fourth place in baseball's big leagues are finding it tougher and tougher, week after week, to climb any higher in their chase after the hitting crowns.

Although Ducky Medwick increased his National league lead to 23 points over his nearest rival and Cecil Travis held a 12-point bulge in the American league race, not a change disturbed the standings of the top four clubbers through this week.

Travis, who dropped two points during the week, slipping to 386, was trailed by Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio, the Yankees' chief executives, and Charley Gehringer of Detroit. Gehringer was the only one of the four to gain during the week, hitting 11-for-25 to boost his mark six points to 385.

Medwick, still riding along over the 400 mark, slipped one point to 401, but his second-place rival, the Cubs' Gabby Hartnett, fell 14 points to 378, followed by Pittsburgh's Paul Waner and Johnny Mize of the Cardinals.

Reversing the procedure of the past few weeks, the pitchers had their innings this time, generally slicing generous portions off the leaders' betting marks. Biggest drop was Hartnett's in the National league, and Beau Bell of the Browns in the American. Bell fell from sixth to eighth place with 342.

CRATERS WIN BY RALLY IN EIGHTH; FACE PASS TODAY

Tied with Crescent City for second place, just one-half game back of the Ashland Lilians.

Tied with Crescent City for second place, just one-half game back of the Ashland Lilians, Medford's fighting Craters will face the Grants Pass Merchants at 2:30 this afternoon at Grants Pass. Jack Hughes, righthanded speedballer, will open on the Crater mound while Rudy Heyne, league leading hurler with four wins and no losses, will hurl for Grants Pass.

A blazing four-run batting rally in the eighth inning broke a 1-1 tie and gave the Medford Craters a 5-1 victory over the Glendale Loggers yesterday afternoon at the high school field. The victory enabled the Craters to remain in the red-hot Southern Oregon league pennant race.

Pitcher Larry Pepper, who won his fifth game of the year, scored the winning run. He blasted a double to center field with none away in the eighth and scored on Dick Lewis' roaring triple down the left field foul line. Wally Rickett laid down a perfect bunt to squeeze Lewis across the plate for the Craters' third run, and went to second when Nunnenkamp threw wild to first base. Donovan hit to Thirdbaseman Pete, and Rickett was trapped between second and third. After Hoffman had grounded out, Bob Smith then belted a terrific drive over the center-fielders head for a home run, scoring Donovan ahead of him and completing the four-run outburst.

Until that eighth frame, big Larry Nunnenkamp of the Glendale and Pepper had hooked up in a great pitchers battle. The Loggers scored their run in the fourth frame when Pierce, Arthur and Robertson hit successive singles. Medford tied it up in the sixth on Rickett's single off Pierce's glove. Lewis singled with two gone and Rickett smashed a drive between first and second, after Lewis had stolen second. Pierce, Glendale firstbaseman, made a sensational one-handed stop, but Rickett beat Pierce's throw to Nunnenkamp and Lewis crossed the plate with the equalizer.

Pepper, using his fast ball and dippy-doo curve to great advantage, fanned eight Loggers. He allowed nine hits but was very tough in the clutches. Great fielding behind him also contributed to the victory. Nunnenkamp gave up seven safeties in his seven innings of toil, but was jerked in the eighth inning with nobody out to make way for Merle Johnson. It was off Johnson that Smith socked his round-tripper.

Wally Rickett led the Medford batters with three hits in three trips, including a double. Dick Sakraida came up with a thrilling sneezing catch in the ninth inning to end the game.

TOOTS ESTES TO FACE MAT TERROR MEAN BOYS CLASH

Wild Man Zin, reputedly the most mantal wrestling lunatic that ever stepped in a squared circle, will make his bow to Medford's grapple addicts tomorrow night when he faces the popular Toots Ester in the middle event at the open-air high school arena.

In the top squabble, Frankie Clemens and Sammy Kohen are rematched following their tough one hour draw last week. Both insisted that Promoter Mack Lillard take the time limit off their go, which he has done. So tomorrow, the boys will fight it out to the bitter end whether it takes 10 seconds or 10 hours.

Dirty Danny Savich and equally unorthodox Jack LaRue will meet in the opening event. The match is expected to be nothing less than legalized mayhem as neither cares for clean mat work.

Promoter Lillard states that Wild Man Zin is the greatest wrestling attraction to ever appear in southern Oregon. Peculiar in the ring, the long-haired freak is even more queer when living what he terms an ordinary life. He resents people, Lillard said, to such an extent that he disappears for days at a time. His hair falls below his shoulders, giving him an extremely gruesome appearance, and his wrestling carries out that same theme to perfection.

PADRES HALT WIN STREAK OF SACS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 14.—(AP)—San Diego's Padres whipped Sacramento, 9 to 2, behind big Jim Chaplin's six-hit pitching today and tightened their grip on the Coast league lead. The San Diegans hammered Seats, Stout and Murray for 12 blows and took advantage of four errors in stopping the Senators' winning streak at six straight. It evened the series at one each.

Shortstop George Myatt led the Padre attack, getting four singles in five times up.

Chaplin, scoring his 21st victory of the season, blanked the Solons until the tenth, when Nick Culllop's single tallied Buster Adams, who doubled, and Prou's two-bagger sent Culllop home.

After tomorrow's double-header the San Diegans and Sacramento, one-two in the championship battle, will move to the capital for seven games. Padres hold a game and one-half margin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Ernie Bonham, big righthanded hurler for Oakland, pitched his team to a 4-2 victory over the Mission Reds here today.

Bonham pitched 8-hit ball, holding the Reds scoreless in all but one inning—the third—when they chalked up two runs on singles by Boien and Vetter and a triple by Rosenberg, centerfielder.

The Oaks jumped into the lead in the seventh inning, scoring two runs on a single by Hitchcock, a double by Raimondi, and a squeeze play by Lehman. Bob Gibson, first base, accounted for his team's fourth run with a homer over the right field wall in the eighth inning.

CONN DECISIONED BY AGED CORBETT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—(AP) At 31 years of age, Young Corbett, the Fresno, Calif., left-hander who in 1933 held the world's welterweight title, was back among boxing's current contenders today, with his latest triumph a ten-round decision over Billy Conn, Philadelphia middleweight.

Conn, whose record sparkled with victories over three former 160-pound champions and lesser fry, apparently had trouble with Corbett's southpaw style here last night. It was his first fight with a left-handed puncher.

Vicious body attacks gave Conn an edge in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh rounds, and the referee awarded Corbett the others.

It was a costly setback for young Conn, who has been rated by the National Boxing association as No. 1 middleweight contender.

Corbett weighed 157 pounds and Conn 160.

No Birth-Death Report

THE DANCES, Ore., Aug. 14.—(AP) Through neighbors the Wasco county health authorities learned that a 40-year old baby was recently born in the Maupin district, died and buried by members of the family without report to authorities. While Dr. Harold Erickson declares this an extreme case, he says considerable laxity exists among rural residents in reporting births.
