

Kohen and Clemens to Settle Feud in No-Limit Grapple Tonight

MEANIE, CLEANIE MATCH HEADLINES HIGH CLASS CARD

Wild Man Zim Meets Toots Estes In Middle Event—Savich And LaRue Open With All-Meanie Tilt.

The relative grappling ability of Sammy Kohen, a meanie, and Frankie Clemens, a cleanie, will be decided once and for all tonight at the high school arena. Meeting in the main event, the two will take up where they left off last week after battling one hour to a sparkling draw. There will be no time limit in effect to hamper the boys in their feuding.

Wild Man Zim, reputedly the scrawniest lunatic in the game, will make his southern Oregon debut by facing popular Toots Estes in the middle event. In the opener, Danny Savich will try out his new-found four tactics on Jack LaRue, also no gentleman.

With no local defeats to mar his record, Clemens, the Oklahoma Indian and master of the devastating paralyzer hold, will go to the post tonight bent on keeping clear his clean slate and clamping on his favorite agonizer, which he was unable to do last Monday evening.

Wrestling smart, in addition to plenty dirty, the New York City Jew managed to forestall every move Clemens made toward applying his paralyzer. And because he did, he earned a draw. Both grapplers asked to have the time limit taken off their squabble tonight, which was done, and both are confident of upsetting the other's aspirations toward taking over top grappling position in southern Oregon.

The bout will be the second of the year in Medford in which there has been no time limit attached.

The other was the now famous Belcastro-Smolinski knock-down-and-drag-out. Although neither of the two principals in tonight's finish brawl can compare with either of the former pair in dirt, local fans expect a match no less sensational. Kohen and Clemens really have worked up a good, healthy hate for each other.

Also causing a flurry of excitement among Medford's grappling patrons is the Wild Man Zim vs Toots Estes middle event. The Wild Man will be making his initial appearance in the local ring and it reports regarding the long-haired maniac are correct, fans will witness one of the most colorful and unorthodox wrestlers now in the game.

The winner of flattening publicity Zim has been receiving hasn't worried flashy Toots Estes any, however, and the ex-champion of the Hawaiian Islands figures on making short work of the Wild Man. Estes believes a couple of dropkicks placed underneath the wild one's protective blanket of string hair will be sufficient to spill curtains for the newcomer.

Jack LaRue and Danny Savich, both meanies of the first water, face off in the opener, with neither favored to win. In fact, local addicts would like to see both lose.

Turns Villain

Danny Savich (above), ex-University of Utah football star, will match dirt with Jack LaRue in the opening event at the high school arena tonight starting at 8:30. Savich was once one of Medford's most popular boys, but since turning villain, is thoroughly disliked.

CRESCENT TRIMS ASHLAND 6 TO 4

Crescent City defeated Ashland 6-4 yesterday at Ashland to drop the Lithians into second place in the Southern Oregon league's second-half pennant race. The winners overcame a 4-2 Ashland lead in the eighth inning by scoring three times and edging one more in the ninth for good measure.

Miller's single, Reynolds' triple, an error by Manager Leonard Hall in right field and Deo's single accounted for the eighth inning outburst. In the ninth, Orville Framated opened with a two-bagger, went to third on a passed ball, and scored on Bob Hardy's balk for the final Crescent City run.

Lefty Mike Koll, Crescent City ace, fanned 11 Lithians while Hardy was setting back 8 Chinocons on strikes. Framated and Reynolds each got a triple and double for Crescent City and Keaton and Hardy hit doubles for Ashland.

Short score:

CRATERS GAIN TIE FOR LOOP LEAD BY DEFEAT OF G. PASS

Medford's crashing Craters captured themselves into a tie with Crescent City for the leadership of the Southern Oregon league yesterday at Grants Pass by whipping the Merchants, 7-6, in a 10-inning nerve-wrecker. The coast club downed Ashland, 6-4, to knot themselves and the Craters at the top of the heap with four wins and one loss, and set the stage for the championship games here next Sunday between the two leaders.

Fighting gamely from behind tonight, Manager Mike Balkovick's inspired Medfordites finally won in the tenth frame when Phil Griggs, Merchant right-hander, blew his top and walked four men to force in the deciding tally. The two clubs, displacing major league baseball at times, and grammar school stuff at others, battled from the sixth inning to the tenth with the score deadlocked at 6-all.

Locals Win 7-6 In Ten-Inning Ding Dong Battle—Hughes Goes Route On Mound—Rickert Shines.

Big Jack Hughes worked the entire game for the Craters and his contribution to the vitally important victory was 10 strikeouts, gained via that roaring high hand one, and magnificent hurling in the clutches. Time after time he found himself in unpleasant circumstances caused by errors and his own wildness (he walked five, hit one batter and out loose with two wild pitches), but just as often he pitched himself clear. His effectiveness can be realized by the fact the Grants Pass had 13 runners stranded on the bases.

Rudy Heyne, league leading hurler, was yanked after the sixth inning when Medford scored three times to tie up the battle. Phil Griggs finished for the Merchants, and although allowing only three hits from then on out, was wilder than a March hare. He gave seven free trips to first base, the last one meaning the ball game.

Grants Pass went out front in the third frame when Hughes walked Pittman and Ray and Machado sliced a single into left, scoring Pittman.

Medford Scores Three
Medford came back in the fourth to tally three. Donovan got an infield bunt, and when Heyne threw wild to second base on Hoffard's dribbler to the box, Donovan went to third and Hooster reached second. Bob Smith belted a bouncing single into centerfield chasing Donovan and Hoffard across, and scored a moment later when Al Drolette, Merchant catcher, heaved the ball into center field trying to catch him stealing. That made it 3-1, Medford.

The Merchants almost went to town in their half of the fourth when a walk, single and error loaded the bases with none away. Hughes calmly forced Hartman to fly out and fanned Pittman and Heyne to save things. However, Grants Pass took a one run lead in the fifth when they counted three times without the aid of a bunt.

McCarthy drew a base on balls and Ray was safe on Donovan's error. They moved up a base on a wild pitch and Dick Lewis dropped Machado's high pop fly to load the sacks. After Drolette had lined to Rickert, Ostrom smashed a grounder to Lewis, and the shortstop let it straggle through his legs while McCarthy and Ray reached home plate. Machado then scored on a passed ball. That made it 4-3, Grants 7-6.

Local Regain Lead

Medford came right back in the sixth stanza to again take over the lead in the crazy ball game. Rickert beat out a base knock to shortstop and promptly stole second. Donny Donovan came through in the pinch with a single to left scoring Rickert with the tying run, and went clear to third on a long throw in. Hoffard drove a long

WASHINGTON (UP) — Expansion of weather bureau hurricane forecasting to make it the most efficient in the world is announced by the department of agriculture.

Stations in charge of expert forecasters and with all modern meteorological instruments are being established in more than a score of southeastern cities and on 25 scattered islands in the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea.

Virtually every important path for tropical storms has been dotted with stations from which the progress and intensity of storms will be reported, according to E. B. Calvert, in charge of the forecast division of the weather bureau.

Earlier Warnings Assured

Under the new setup the weather bureau will be able to chart the path of any storm and issue warnings to ships and to coastal cities many hours before it reaches the mainland. New stations will augment many which have been in operation for years.

Special emphasis has been placed on the area surrounding the Florida peninsula by establishment of stations to the east and southeast of the mainland. It is from these directions that most storms approach.

The bureau's office at Miami, Fla., will cooperate with the director of the meteorological service of the Bahamas in checking the course of storms. They will exchange observations made with meteorological instruments and data on atmospheric pressure.
