Miss Findley Is Married Saturday

A recent wedding of interest to Medford friends was that of Miss Louise Findley, sister of Dr. Dwight H. Findley of this city, who became the bride of Lawrence Heim of Oregon City Saturday.

The ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, in Salem, before a large group of relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Findley returned to their home here Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Findley's mother, Mrs. M. E. Lerley of Oakland, Calif., who has been visiting in the north. Mrs. Lerley will be a guest at the Findley home here for a few days this week before continuing south.

Newbury Guest Leaves for North Leaving for the north by train this morning was Miss Jennie Dezell of Portland and Klamath Falls, who has been a guest here for the past week of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury.

Miss Dezell arrived here last week after a summer in California, where she vacationed and attended summer school at the University of California. She will go to Eugene, where she is to be the guest of her sister and from there will continue to Portland for a visit with her parents before returning to Klamath Falls early next month.

Miss Dezell was greeted by a number of Medford friends during her stay here.

Eastern Visitor Is Medford Guest Among Medford hostesses entertaining out-of-town visitors is Miss Helen Bullis, who has as her houseguest Miss Barbara Luther of Olean, N. Y.

Miss Luther arrived here a few days ago and plans an indefinite stay. Informal entertainment is being arranged to greet the visitor during her stay here.

Former Residents Vacationing Here Visitors in the valley are Mrs. A. J. Wurts and two daughters, Janet Elaine and Sandra Jean, of Burlingame, Calif., who arrived last week from the south.

They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott V. Davis at the Davis river home, Rogue Oaks. Mrs. Wurts is a daughter of Mr. Davis. She will be joined later by Mr. Wurts.

Mr. and Mrs. Wurts are former Medford residents and will be greeted by a wide circle of old friends while here. They are to be here for some time.

Also a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Davis was Mrs. C. E. Wolcott of Laredo, Tex., who spent the week-end at Rogue Oaks. She is an aunt of Mrs. Wurts.

Spillers Leave For Coast Trip Leaving this morning by motor were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Spilner, who are planning a two weeks' vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Spilner will motor up the Oregon coast, stopping at Newport and Agate beaches and other points en route. They will return by way of Eugene, where they will spend several days as the guests of their son, George Spilner, and family.

Auburn Visitor Guest of Parents Recently arrived visitors in the city include Mrs. C. D. Garrett and son, Dennis Jack, of Auburn, Wn., who arrived here by motor Sunday evening.

They are house guests of Mrs. Garrett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Dallery, at their home here.

Young Set Guests At Week-end Affair

Several members of the valley's young set were entertained over the week-end by Miss Janet Reter, who invited friends to the Reter summer cabin at Fish Lake.

Entertainment included swimming and surfboard riding at Fish Lake and dancing at the nearby Lake of the Woods resort.

Guests were the Misses Dorothy Terrett, Betty Ross, Shurlee Enders and Donald Monteth, Jack White, Donald Croucher and Louis Thurman.

Once a member, always a member, he added.

McGill, making the first defense of the Alabama, stood close to the desk usually occupied by Black.

He said yesterday it had appeared the opposition to Black was based on legal grounds, but that today "some of those opposed were seeking to prevent confirmation on the theory that under no circumstances is he qualified to fill the post."

"On that score," McGill added, "I have no difficulty whatsoever. It has been my pleasure during the past seven years to sit on the floor but a short distance from the senator from Alabama."

Character Known "Hearings to determine whether he was a good lawyer, a man of high standing, a man above reproach would be futile indeed because every senator can be a witness to these things."

"He has demonstrated since I have known him that he is a man tolerant in his views, of great learning, highly educated, quick of intelligence and capable in every respect to fill the high office to which he has been named."

Turning to Copeland's Klan charges, McGill said the New York senator had read "from a few newspaper clippings" on Black's "career, or supposed career."

"There is not a man on this floor," he added, "relative to whom it is not impossible to say you could go to his home state and find where he was assailed by the newspapers."

"I do not take that as evidence against Senator Black."

Copeland said Black's nomination should be rejected "if the Klan relationship is accepted as true," but that if there was doubt about it in senatorial minds it should be sent back to committee for an investigation.

Small Enemy Group A small group of Republicans and "old line" Democrats facing almost certain defeat were lined up in the fight against Black.

They claimed only 20 votes. The 13 to 4 favorable vote yesterday by the judiciary committee, they said broke the opposition campaign.

Their hope for delaying confirmation rested with Copeland, whose speech bringing in the Ku Klux Klan issue dealt with a subject previously discussed guardedly in senate cloakrooms.

Copeland took the floor at the outset of today's session which senate leaders called an hour earlier than usual in an effort to confirm the Black nomination today.

Discussing the nomination in the light of what he called "the Klan relationship," Copeland said, "I have no doubt of what my action should be."

"Other senators will be governed, as they should be, by their convictions," he continued, reading a prepared speech, "but there rests upon us a responsibility, in importance second only to the decision we made in the court-packing scheme."

"Unless the president relieves us from that responsibility by withdrawing the designation, it is our manifest duty to know one whole truth before we act."

"Throughout its history the supreme court has independently and fearlessly discharged its duty."

"The court's aloofness from partisan politics, bigotry, and popular clamor, has heretofore been considered its crowning virtue—a virtue essential to the impartial interpretation of constitutional restrictions."

Reversing decisions by the supreme court, Copeland said: "Neither the president nor the nominee can complain if we scan with greatest care the character, attitude of mind, and past record of a man who has been named to the group that determine the destinies of a people presently free."

Court Is Guardian He said America was free because it was "guarded by the supreme court," and asked: "What will happen if a half-dozen men of the mental basis of the nominee should be seated on the bench?"

"Is it likely that the remodeled court would deal tolerantly and generously with religious and racial questions, as the court has done in the past?" he asked.

"Does the logical change in spots? Will Mr. Justice Black be any different than Candidate Black, who, according to the Mobile Register of August 15, 1926, 'backed by the Klan, had a walk-away in his race for the senatorial nomination?'"

U. S. IN PEIPING. The wireless masts of the U. S. Marine radio station dominate the scene in the foreign legation quarter of Peiping, ancient Chinese city that now is the focal point of bitter clashes between Japanese and Chinese forces. At the right is the chief Peiping railroad terminal. Streams of troops from both Tokyo and Nanking were pouring into this trouble zone.

Copeland quoted Charles Michelson, now publicity director for the Democratic national committee and then correspondent for the New York World, as commenting on the Alabama election that "the primary result in the nomination of Klan-endorsed men for both the senatorship and the governorship."

Klan Aid Cited Copeland also quoted Michelson as saying that Black "seems to have won the senate nomination beyond a reasonable doubt," and that "in Black the Alabama Klan has a loyal and devoted friend."

"What chance," Copeland asked, "would Governor Al Smith have been for some reason to appeal to a supreme court made up of a majority of Klansmen or Klan sympathizers? What chance would any Catholic have who sought justice there?"

"We see Catholics attacked, their churches destroyed, their priests and nuns massacred, their property confiscated. All this occurred in a country where once that great church symbolized the state religion. What ever constitutional guarantees Catholics possessed in Spain have disappeared like a morning mist."

"I need not argue with any Jew as to the significance of unlawful and unconstitutional modification of the Palentinian constitution. Surely it is not necessary to remind loyal Americans of Jewish blood that a violation of the American constitution by indirection is of the same essence."

"The rights of all racial groups and religions, all minorities, in America, are not asserted in the congress, or our states, or our legislatures. They are asserted in the constitution and enforced by the courts of justice."

There are also new Townsend developments of interest to all Townsendites. Mr. Perry, district board member, will report on the last board meeting.

Board Post Goes To Mary Dewson WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—President Roosevelt nominated Mary Dewson of New York today to be a member of the social security board.

Miss Dewson was named to the post now held by Vincent M. Miles, whose term has expired. She is a former director of the women's division of the Democratic national committee and is now chairman of that division's general advisory committee. She also has been vice-chairman of the national committee since 1928.
