liners under the blazing guns of the Japanese fleet. Sunset found "French town" ready for another dark night of siege. Foreigners and Chinese alike feared a repetition of last night's terrific battle over Whangpoo, industrial area across the Whangpoo river from the concession.

At dusk guns of Japanese warships in the river began a terrific bombardment. The direction of the shells could not be ascertained. Thousands killed.

There were no estimates of casualties in outlying areas, but it was believed many were added to the thousands already killed and wounded in the five-day battle.

However, before it could close, the Japanese military quartered 1500 Japanese refugees in the Astor hotel, virtually ejecting the management and taking over the property.

The first bombardment today came when Japanese warships sprayed the western edge of the foreign area with shell fragments as they sought to down a Chinese pursuit plane.

Later, 13 Japanese bombers launched a powerful reprisal raid against the Chinese Chapel and Kiangwan areas to the north and the Chinese lines. The bombardment centered about the Commercial Press building near the northern edge of the international settlement.

Areas around both the Japanese and Chinese lines were blazing from fires started by the bursting shells. A rising wind fanned the flames.

Reports on last week's American Legion state convention in Albany will be given at the regular semi-monthly meeting of Medford post in the armory at 8 o'clock tonight.

The picture that huris you into the adventures of a white doctor, whose plane is wrecked in the interior of this frozen hell, desperately fighting his way to an outlying post, amid perils of burning forests, assaults of wild beasts, and menacing starvation and severe cold.

"Artists and Models"

SOLDIERS PITCH CAMP ON FT. LEWIS RESERVE FOR BIG SHAM BATTLE

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Rookies and regulars set up tents side by side today on the Ft. Lewis military reservation and the final phase of the huge fourth army maneuvers officially began.

Nearly 14,000 men were establishing themselves for a two week stay on the Nisqually river military reservation, with new convoys of trucks arriving hourly from Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Oregon and Washington points.

National guardsmen were concentrated largely in the Camp Murray area, adjacent to Ft. Lewis proper, while regulars of the third division pitched their tents near the permanent barracks buildings.

While the men spent the day getting their quarters prepared officers of the national guard, including Maj. Gen. George A. White, of Oregon, and Brigadier Maurice Thompson, adjutant general of the Washington state organization, conferred with Big. Gen. Alfred Smith, commander of Ft. Lewis, and the chief umpire, Col. Alexander M. Milton of San Francisco, arranging details of the elaborate sham battles to be staged next week when the Pacific northwest is theoretically to be invaded by a hostile army.
