WORK OF LEGION DURING YEAR TOLD AT POST MEETING

A complete and comprehensive report of the 19th annual state convention of the American Legion, held in Albany last week, was presented by local delegates at last night's regular meeting of Medford post.

Important part in the serious business of the convention, O. L. Overmyer serving on the finance committee, Commander C. L. MacDonald on the post activity and organization committee and H. L. Bromley on the legislative and credentials committees.

Reports of these delegates made at last night's session indicated that many worth while accomplishments were recorded during the recent convocation which was conceded one of the best in the history of the state department.

Post Commander MacDonald reported on the general activities of the convention including the speeches of victors of national reputation. He also reviewed some of the many accomplishments of the Legion during the past year, stressing the Bandier fire relief, the Beaver Boys' state membership and other phases of state-wide activities.

Post Commander MacDonald also reported on the presentation of a memorial citation from national headquarters for the late Paul R. McDonald, former Medford post commander and also a vice-commander of the state department. It is planned to present this citation to the widow, Mrs. Paul McDonald at a joint meeting of Ashland and Medford posts in the near future.

Lee Garlock who was honored at the Grande Promenade of the "40 at 8" by being elected Chemist National representative of the "40 at 8" convention at which he presided as Grande Chief de Gare of Oregon. The annual parade, "wreck" and other events were highly successful and several Oregon youths were awarded a beautiful trophy for the best engine in the parade. He also advised that during the past year, over 25,000 children of Oregon were given immunization treatment through efforts of the "40 at 8 society."

Commander MacDonald announced that committee appointments for the coming year will be announced at the next meeting and asked that all members plan to attend.

Mr. Roosevelt reviewed early settlements in North America, saying they were made by people seeking an opportunity which they could not find in the old world.

"I fear very much that if certain modern Americans, who profess loudly their devotion to American ideals, were suddenly to be given a comprehensive view of the earliest American colonists and their methods of life and government, they would promptly label them socialists."
