PLOT TO ASSASSINATE QUEZON NIPPED IN BUD

MANILA, Aug. 18.—(AP)—An apparently well laid plot by Sakdal fanatics to assassinate Commonwealth President Manuel L. Quezon upon his arrival yesterday was foiled by detention of leaders, the Manila Daily Bulletin said today. A reign of terror also was reported planned.

Agitators for immediate independence, who have been involved in past bloody riots, were rounded up by police 24 hours before Quezon's ship brought him from Washington.

The Bulletin said police and constabulary officials were aware of the plot well in advance.
