

ROOSEVELT TALK SEEN OUTGROWTH OF PARTY SPLIT

Developments Within Week Culminate Events Which Have Changed Political Picture Since 2nd Term

By Nathan Robertson
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's aggressiveness since the collapse of his legislative program—evidenced anew in his Roanoke Island speech—emphasized today the possibilities of the split which has developed within his party during this session of congress.

The chief executive followed up his selection of liberal Senator Black (D.-Ala.), for the supreme court with a fighting speech yesterday at Roanoke Island in which he characterized his critics as "American Lord Macaulays" who do not believe in democracy.

Picture Changed
These two developments within the past week culminated a series of events which have completely changed the political picture since the president began his second term seven months ago today.

The Black appointment in itself was evidence of the changing political scene. It topped off a sudden shift in senate leadership, in which the death of Senator Robinson of Arkansas was only a part.

At the outset of the session, Robinson and Senators Harrison of Mississippi and Byrnes of South Carolina were the acknowledged senate leaders and Roosevelt spokesmen on Capitol Hill.

Suddenly, younger and more liberal senators took their places. Barkley of Kentucky became the majority leader by one vote over Harrison, and Senators Schwelienbach of Washington and Minton of Indiana, together with Black, formed the new inner circle.

Democrats Divided
The session began with 76 almost united Democrats forming the biggest party majority the senate had ever seen. It is ending with 75 Democrats divided into nearly equal factions on some of the Roosevelt legislative proposals.

Thus the Democrats on some issues have turned the balance of power over to the numerically weak Republican minority, not only in the senate, but in the house.

Even Vice President Garner's status has changed. At the outset he was regarded as a stalwart behind-the-scenes negotiator for all presidential policies. Although still friendly and loyal to the president, he has been the spearhead of opposition to some administration plans.

Court Plan Blamed
President Roosevelt's court reorganization proposal is credited generally with creating the party friction. But close observers have noted many contributing causes, some nearly as fundamental.

Harrison and Byrnes supported the court bill, but they along with Garner and others in the party were critical of the president's handling of the sit-down strike problem and the labor situation during the winter. They clashed also with the president on his spending policies, first in private, and when that failed to gain results, in public.

Harrison Critical
The "last straw" for many of the critical Democrats, particularly those from the southern wing of the party, was the wage-hour bill. It drew from the lips of Harrison the first caustic criticism of Roosevelt policies he ever had uttered in public.

Picnics and dinners held to smooth over party differences have been in vain. The day after a "harmony" dinner in honor of Barkley, the Democrats divided fiercely over anti-lynching legislation.

Observers have talked freely of a new political alignment between conservative Democrats and Republicans. Perhaps the difference can be ironed out. President Roosevelt in his address yesterday, however, gave no sign of surrender.

Lightweight Fails In Melon Marathon

PETERSBURG, Ind., Aug. 19.—(AP)—William Conrad, weigh 129 pounds, had only a sore stomach today to show for his attempt to devour a 45-pound watermelon.

Allowed an hour to complete the feat, Conrad had a quarter of a melon to go when time was called. Conrad swore he would redeem himself by downing 48 raw eggs in public Saturday.

Coquille Ups Fee On Pinball Device

COQUILLE, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Apparently undisturbed by the legal buff over pinball machines in other parts of the state, the city council has voted to increase the license fee for operators of the game device. Coquille has charged $5 per month and will now take 25 percent of the gross revenue.

The machines will remain in use until the outcome of a test case at Roseburg, said District Attorney Ben Plaxel.

Cows Added Hazard For Plane In Trouble

ELLENBURG, Wash., Aug. 19.—(AP)—A passenger plane, one of its two motors sputtering, had to pass up Ellenburg's unfinished airport because a herd of cows wouldn't "move over."

The plane later landed safely at Ephrata, 50 miles away. The cattle took possession of the airport when their owner leased the airport, an abandoned WPA project.

Wholesale Grocers Hike Office Wages

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—(AP)—An agreement between office workers and Portland wholesale grocery firms resulted in wage increases for about 400 workers. Florence Brost, secretary of the Office Employees Union, said today.

The new scale ranges from $18 to $25 a week, includes one week's vacation with pay, holidays with pay and a 44-hour week and union shop. Top pay will go to workers with two or more years seniority.
