"Hell Divers" Coming Back

"Hell Divers," sensational drama of the air, is being brought back by popular demand to the Risbo theater where it will play a three-day run starting Sunday. The picture, co-stars Wallace Beery and Clark Gable, with Conrad Nagel, Marjorie Rambeau, Marie Prevost and Dorothy Jordan in supporting roles. The story deals with the savage rivalry between Beery, as a navy veteran, and Gable, a new style of sailor, and typifies the conflict between old and new ideas in naval operations. "Bulldog Drummond at Bay," featuring John Lodge, Dorothy Mackall, Victor Jury and Claude Allister plays as the companion feature.

PLAN WIDE HUNT FOR LOST FLIERS

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Missing a week, the vanished Soviet transpolar fliers will be the object of one of the most widespread international aerial searches in Alaska-Arctic history with arrival this week-end of Sir Hubert Wilkins, noted explorer, and a party of five in a 17-ton flying boat. Sir Hubert and his pilot, Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, noted Canadian aviator, arrived at Port Arthur, Ont., from Toronto, and planned to take off for Fort Smith, N. W. T., 1,200 miles distant. The huge silver flying boat, purchased by the Russian government for the expedition, will then fly north to join other aviators in the search for Sigismund Levantsevsky, who, with five companions, was last heard from a week ago today, several hours before his four-motored plane was expected in Fairbanks to refuel for a United States dash.

Transient Booked On Shoplift Charge

Steve Jalishok, 47, a transient from Michigan, was arrested by city police this afternoon and is being held in the city jail on a charge of shoplifting. He will appear in court tomorrow morning. "Good Earth" Starts Sunday

Coming Sunday to the Craterian theater, showing for the first time at popular prices after record roadshow engagements, the picturization of Pearl S. Buck's sensational best-seller, "The Good Earth," will be the number two hit of the new show season, a picture that has received more attention than any show of the last decade. In the top roles are Paul Muni and Luise Rainer, last year's Academy Award winners, portraying Wang, the lowly poor farmer who rises to riches, and his faithful wife, O-lan. Others in the cast that includes thousands of extras are Walter Connolly, Jessie Ralph, Tully Loach and Wayne Luke. "Artists and Models" will close its run tomorrow night at the Craterian with "A Dangerous Adventure" as the preview.

K. F. FOOD HANDLERS SOLDIERS NEARING END THREATEN 'STAY OUT' OF FORT LEWIS 'WAR'

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 20.—(AP)—The Klamath Falls Culinarian Alliance was threatening a "stay out" strike starting Sept. 1 in protest against a recently-adopted city ordinance requiring semi-annual physical examinations for all food handlers. Sept. 1 is the deadline set for examinations under the ordinance, and members of the Alliance voted last night not to go to work on that date unless they are assured the ordinance will not be enforced. G. C. Tatman, representative of the alliance, said the food handlers are strongly in favor of the examinations but object to paying the $2 examination fee. They feel that the public, which stands to benefit, should bear the cost, Tatman said.
