

PINBALL HEARING SLATED SATURDAY AT GRANTS PASS

Hearing on a motion for an injunction to restrain the district attorney and sheriff from fulfillment of their order banning pinball machines from Jackson county will be heard at Grants Pass Saturday morning. The same issues involved affect both Jackson and Josephine counties. A speedy decision is anticipated.

Attorneys for the pinball operators will ask that whatever decision is made by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton also be made effective in Jackson county. District Attorney Frank J. Newman will participate in the Josephine county proceedings.

The Jackson county order bans the devices after Wednesday, August 28. The Josephine county order banned them after August 18. The Josephine county plaintiff is Earl Bush of Marshfield, an operator. The Jackson county plaintiff is Earl A. Sims, a local operator.

In each suit, the operators seek to enjoin the authorities from confiscation of the machines, or the arrest and prosecution of operators or players.

The complaints hold that the pinballs contain an element of skill and therefore are not lotteries, that they are protected by patents, and are licensed, and therefore not violative.

Authorities contend the devices are lotteries, and in violation of the Oregon state constitution.

The removal orders were taken upon the ruling of the attorney-general's office, based upon a decision of the state supreme court.

Both Sims and Bush are represented by Attorney George M. Roberts, George A. Coddling, William M. McAllister of this city, and Attorney Walter L. Tooe of Portland.

TENGWALD IS GRANTED RELEASE AS COUNSEL FOR CHILOQUIN INDIAN

A court order accepting the resignation of Attorney Victor A. Tengwald as counsel for Eldon Miller, Chilouquin Indian, charged with a statutory offense, and whose jury trial resulted in a mistrial, was filed yesterday.

Attorney Tengwald sets forth in his request that Miller, for whom he acted as counsel upon court appointment, is now financially able to pay for an attorney of his own, and has done so.

Retrial of Miller is scheduled for the October term of court.

The mistrial was declared by the court after the jury had reached a verdict, and was ready to report, and neither of Miller's counsel was on hand. After an hour Attorney Tengwald appeared in court. He explained that he had been at a movie. Miller also could not be located at once, as he was auto riding with friends. Attorney George A. Coddling was at home.

The court ordered Miller held in the county jail, without trusty privileges, where he still languishes. He was nabbed by Sheriff Syd I. Brown as he was entering the courthouse, after the mistrial had been declared.

COURT EYES SITE ALLEGED SHOOTING

The trial of Harry Mackey, charged with pointing a firearm at another, was underway this afternoon in justice court. The court and defendant and complaining witness visited the scene of the alleged action this afternoon. Testimony was completed this morning. Mackey is a rather aged man. The complaining witness is C. L. Myers, a near door neighbor.

Myers charged that while he and wife were picking cucumbers late last Monday, Mackey in shooting at Orrie Love's dog, pointed the sawed-off shotgun, introduced as an exhibit, in his general direction. It was alleged the dog was hit.

Mackey made a general denial of the charges.

It was intimated that Mackey had resented any trespass on his property and Myers testified he had not spoken to Mackey for several weeks, because of a dispute over water usage.
