

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Visiting Here—Jean Weber of Ashland is in Medford this week, visiting friends for a few days.

On Business—Calling here yesterday on business was Frank J. Van Dyke, city attorney of Ashland.

Attend Meeting—Philip Bryant and Roy Frazier of Ashland were in Medford last night to attend a Union Oil company sales meeting.

From Central Point—Out-of-town residents calling here today included Art Daly and Maxine Holland, both of Central Point.

To Remodel—Grace Voss of 1214 West Main street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to remodel a residence at a stated cost of $500.

Here from Ashland—Out-of-town residents calling here Tuesday included Dean Horne, Bill Leaver, John Murphy and Russell Miller, all of Ashland.

From Phoenix—Among those shopping and transacting business here today were Mrs. Edith Thompson and Mrs. R. H. Wilcox and daughter Natalie, all of Phoenix.

To Klamath Falls—Boone G. Harding, United States internal revenue agent, left yesterday for Klamath Falls where he was to transact official business.

Resumes Duties Here—Eric M. Gray, deputy collector of United States internal revenue, returned to his office in the federal building here this morning after spending several days on official business in Grants Pass.

At Oregon Caves—E. G. Burgess, Medford pear grower, and Mrs. Burgess were visitors Monday and Tuesday at the Oregon Caves, registering at the Chateau. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess visit the national monument every year.

Sheep Custodian—Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, left late yesterday afternoon for Klamath Falls. He received orders to proceed southward to the Klamath country to take charge of 5,000 head of sheep for the government. Purpose of the custodianship was not disclosed.

To Convention—Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Newland will leave by motorcar tomorrow afternoon for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the biennial convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers and its auxiliary. Mr. Newland is delegate-at-large from Oregon and national state vice-president. Mrs. Newland is delegate from the Medford auxiliary. They will first go to Bend where they will be joined by two delegates from Eugene. The four will travel together, stopping en route at Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon and the Pan-American exposition in Dallas, Texas. On the return trip they will swing into Canada for a brief tour and visit in Yellowstone national park. The convention will be held September 6 to 11.

Call in Medford—O. H. Billings and Mrs. F. A. Watkins, both of Ashland, visited friends and transacted business here yesterday.

From Ashland—Among Ashland residents visiting in Medford today were Gene Ritzinger and George Yokel.

Tonsils Excised—Marjorie Reich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reich of route 1, underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils this morning in the Osteopathic hospital. Mrs. W. R. Young of 1110 West 11th street was a minor surgical case. Mrs. H. A. Ditaworth of Prospect and her son George had their tonsils excised yesterday.

Fishing Good—Salmon fishing turned exceptionally good at the mouth of Smith river in northern California yesterday. It was reported by Postmaster Frank DeSouza, who spent several days at Castle Rock camp. Several excellent catches were made and fishermen expected the salmon run to continue for some time, Mr. DeSouza stated.

Camp Publication—The first and also the last publication to be produced by the Casey CCC spike camp was distributed today. It is a ten-page mimeographed magazine that leans heavily toward humor. Editor was Fred Thom, who avowed he would never do it again. His staff was composed of Arno J. Feltner, associate editor, the Rev. J. Devine Hopkins, first assistant editor, and Frank Stafford, second assistant to the first assistant editor.

Visitors Leave—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bergman and son, Junior, of Tonopah, Nev., left last Friday for San Francisco after visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fiene and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Sardinia city. After visiting in the Bay City the Revadians planned to depart for home on September 1. While here they made trips with Mrs. Fiene and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor to Crescent City, Cal., Klamath Falls, Crater Lake national park and Diamond Lake. Mr. Bergman operated a barber shop in Tonopah for 35 years. Mrs. Bergman and Mrs. Taylor have been friends since they were chums in the eighth grade in Tonopah schools.

Complete information regarding the examinations and positions may be procured at Medford postoffice from Stanley G. Sherwood, acting secretary of the local board of examiners.

Four Comedians in "The Road Back"

Providing fun for the lighter moments of "The Road Back" screen version of Erich Maria Remarque's sequel to "All Quiet on the Western Front," coming Sunday to the Craterian theater, bachelor Andy Devine regards the death-grip Slim Sumner while Etienne Girardot, mayor and butcher, father of the bride, gives his approval and half his shop to the groom.

In "Windjammer"

George O'Brien comes to the Rialto theater for tomorrow and Saturday in the most thrilling role of his career, that of a salty sea dog in "Windjammer," a daring tale of the roaring sea. Constance Worth and William Hall have roles opposite wily O'Brien.

Now at Roxy

Lily Pons and Gene Raymond with Jack Oakie are starred in "That Girl from Paris," novel film of opera queen versus king of jazz, playing at the Roxy theater today and tomorrow only.

Roosevelt To Sail Long Island Sound

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—President Roosevelt will leave tonight for a visit to Hyde Park, N. Y., and a cruise of several days on Long Island sound.

He will take with him more than 100 bills passed in the closing days of congress and still awaiting approval or rejection.

After about a week the president will board the yacht "Potomac" at Foughkeepsie for the cruise on Long Island sound. He probably will indulge in his favorite sport of fishing. He is to return to Washington September 17.

POWER LEAGUE PLANS ELECTION ON SUNDAY

PORTLAND Ore., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The People's Power League will elect officers and perfect a state-wide organization at a mass meeting at Bonneville Sunday, August 29, officials said today.

Henry L. Hess of La Grande will be principal speaker.

A program for the formation of power districts in every county in anticipation of the availability of power from the Bonneville project will be discussed. Ellis W. Barnes, chairman of the committee on organization, will preside.

The league advocates public ownership of power utilities and favors J. D. Ross of Seattle as administrator of Bonneville dam.
