We wish to extend to all un-churched Lutherans of the community a hearty invitation to come and worship.

Regardless of whether you were born in the United States or Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany or any other country, if you are a Lutheran and have not united with a church since coming here, we want you to come to worship and feel that this is your church. We can all unite in the American language to worship our Heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ. Remember that to be a Lutheran one has to be a Christian. To be a Christian includes the necessity of regular Sunday worship in church. Come next Sunday and worship with us.
We do not want to leave the impression that our church is only for Lutherans. We definitely invite and encourage all not connected with any other church to come and worship the Creator with us.

TRAMP PREACHER HELD FOR HAMMER MURDER OF WIFE

LINDEN, N. J., Aug. 28.—(AP)—A gauging itinerant preacher was formally charged in police court today with the hammer killing of his evangelist wife.
"I did it, that's all," 44-year old Lloyd Pusey said quietly as he stood before Police Judge Louis Rakin to answer the murder complaint signed by Police Chief Frann Hickey.
Held without bail for the grand jury, he was taken to Union county jail.
"I loved her very much," Hickey quoted him as saying before the arraignment. "I told her I'd never harm a hair of her head and I don't know why I did it."
Prosecutor Abe J. David said earlier Pusey sought "consolation" in a Bible stained with the blood of his wife he confessed killing in his automobile last night because she threatened to leave him.
The mason's hammer used in the killing, Chief Hickey said Pusey told him, was picked up at Needles, Cal. Mrs. Pusey saw it lying in the road, he said.
Hickey said Pusey came to New Jersey originally from Pocomoke, Md. and worked on a farm at Oakland, N. J., for seven years before going to the west coast.
The chief said he had two sons, one now 12, the other 17, by a former marriage, who now were with unidentified friends in Los Angeles. His first wife is dead.
