From Trail—Mrs. L. L. Peabody and daughter Leah of Trail were shopping and attending the business matters here today. Also here this morning from Trail was Carl Eheleke.

To Close Monday—United States army recruiting sub-station in Medford city hall will be closed Monday in observance of Labor Day. It will be announced by Sgt. Willis S. Estep, officer in charge.

Here on Business—George Sablin, manager of the Oregon Caves resort, transacted business here yesterday. He said business at the Oregon Caves has been exceptionally brisk this season.

Executive Meeting—Executive committee of the American Legion auxiliary will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the home of Mrs. Edna Overmyer, president. All officers are requested to be present.

Large Sunflower—A sunflower measuring 17 inches in diameter was placed on display at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce today. It was presented to the chamber by Mrs. A. F. Smith of Barbaran road, Route 4.

Cancel Meeting—Next Monday evening's regular meeting of Tallman lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias, has been canceled because of observance of Labor Day. It was announced today. Next meeting is scheduled for September 13.

In Grants Pass—Miss Beatrice Palmer of this city and the Misses Maxine Gearhart and Genevieve McGee of Ashland, all instructors in the Lincoln and Riverside schools in Grants Pass, transacted business in that city yesterday.

Call on Santo—J. Lewis Renton of Portland called today on E. R. Santo, president of the Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral society. Mr. Renton is a past president of the Oregon Agate and Mineral society and part owner of the Mineralogist Publishing company. He was returning home from a vacation trip to California.

Circle Meeting—The Circle, missionary society of the First Christian church will hold its regular monthly executive meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the home of Virginia Fredenberg. All business and other plans for the September meeting will be considered. Officers and members of Miss Fredenberg's group are requested to attend tonight's session.

Committee Meeting—Fish and game committee of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting at 7:30 Thursday night in the chamber's temporary quarters at 101 East Main street. The meeting has been postponed twice because of absence of members from town. Everett Trowbridge, chairman, said he expected to have a full representation at Thursday's session.

At Mystery House—J. M. Jerpe and a party of research scientists of the General Motors corporation visited the House of Mystery on Sardine creek Sunday. Mr. Jerpe is in charge of the Parade of Progress sponsored by General Motors. The group took numerous photographs of the House of Mystery and its surroundings and seemed greatly impressed by the phenomenon.

Visitors from Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Earlwyn B. Cutler and young son Gregory of Salem are guests at the Clyde Briggs ranch in Table Rock. Mrs. Briggs is Mrs. Cutler's mother and Mr. Cutler is a brother of Mrs. A. H. Banwell of 23 Almond street. The Cutlers resided in Medford when Mr. Cutler was employed by the Rogue River national forest. He is now associated with the state forest service.

Hampton of 116 Cottage street to rehang a house at a cost of $300.

Coal for Postoffice—Delivery of 80 tons of soft coal at Medford postoffice was begun last evening. The fuel was purchased under competitive bidding by the postoffice department in Washington, D. C., from the Pacific Coal company, Seattle, Wash. Last year 90 tons of coal were consumed at the postoffice because of the prolonged winter. Ordinarily 80 tons are more than enough, 75 tons being the average consumption. Postmaster Frank DeSouza said.

Plan Armistice Fete—Tentative plans for the annual observance of Armistice Day constituted the principal business at last night's meeting of the executive committee of Medford post of the American Legion. Judging from present indications, officers said the 1937 celebration, the only large celebration of the year for Medford and vicinity, will be bigger and better than ever, with a full day's program to interest old and young alike. Further details will be discussed at next Tuesday's meeting of the post at the armory and all Legionnaires are urged to be present.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Speculative ammunition was a bit damp in today's stock market and an early buying barrage lost its force under light profit selling opposition in the final hour.

Steels and rails made a motion toward extending Monday's rally, but most failed to follow through to any great extent and other issues cut initial gains or replaced them with moderate losses. Trends were uneven at the close.

Transfers were around 500,000 shares. Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

"Wee Willie Winkie" Here Wednesday

Rudyard Kipling's stirring adventure of the Khyber Pass, "Wee Willie Winkie," with Shirley Temple in the title role, and Victor McLaglen co-starring as Sergeant MacDuff, comes to the Craterian theater tomorrow for a four-day run, hailed as one of the finest pictures in years.

An ultra-thrilling, colorful story of the Highlanders in action along India's untamed frontiers, and the little girl who won the right to wear the plaid, "Wee Willie Winkie" introduces a new Shirley Temple, a Shirley whose performance in the film has excited much comment.

As one of the new show season's outstanding productions, it is fitting that it should reintroduce the art of "toning" and "tinting"—soft, pleasing sepia and blue colors that greatly enhance the fidelity of its scenes as well as their dramatic quality.

CHARGE DOUBLE CROSS BY FEDERAL MEDIATOR IN PORTLAND TROUBLE

PORTLAND, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Portland central labor council went on record here last night asking the removal of Charles W. Hope as regional director of the national labor relations board.

Gust Anderson, secretary of the council, said the action was in protest to Hope's part in the reopening Monday of seven Portland sawmills, closed two weeks ago when employees accepted a C.I.O. charter and A.P.L. unions picketed the plants.

The reopening followed announcement by Hope last Friday of an agreement between the employees and the mill operators whereby the workers would make no demands for new wage scale or working conditions pending determination by the labor board of the question of union representation.

"Hope acted entirely without jurisdiction in this case," Anderson said. "He has double crossed not only us but the mill workers as well."

Anderson said the council's action followed a report by the A.P.L. policy committee that Hope had "failed utterly" to consider a peace plan proposed by the committee.

QUARREL IN CANNERY LEADS TO STABBING

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Lee Koch, 18, cannery worker here, lay seriously wounded in a hospital today while city police sought the identity of a "friend" believed to have stabbed Koch during a quarrel at the local cannery last night.

Koch, physicians said, received a deep knife wound in the stomach. The youth was unconscious this morning, but was not believed in danger.

Details of the affair were vague, police said, but from the story they had been able to get from the youth, it appeared that the stabbing had resulted from a fight in the cooking department of the cannery.
