Home Purity Bakery

Bread and Cake Like Mother Made

COOKIE JARS

We ran across a dandy assortment of cookie jars while in Portland last week—Jars that sell for $1.00 to $1.50—yet we bought them so we can sell them for 98c and fill them with Home Purity Cookies.

The ones we like best are sort of old fashioned.—You know, the kind that look a whole lot like the ones we reached into for cookies way back in boyhood days.—Come and see them.

CONGRATULATIONS TO K M E D WELCOME NATIONAL BROADCASTING CO.

SUNDAY Morning at Nine the broadcast of our Friendship Circle program will be followed by K-M-E-D's first National Broadcasting Company program release. . . . Being radio fans, we naturally are highly pleased to know that the major broadcasts of public interest will come to us.—Speeches by famous men—major sporting events, including baseball and football, direct from the fields . . . trans-oceanic broadcasts from foreign lands as well as the purely entertaining programs that will eventually be released through K-M-E-D.

Like our airport, a network lists us with the metropolitan centers of our country—gives us a national standing as the principal city of the Mid-Pacific Empire.

We not only congratulate K-M-E-D but our city as well, on this great step forward in community growth.

Listen to Friendship Circle hour Sunday morning at 9—and hear the first N.B.C. program at 9:30.
