SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Two Visiting Here From North

Arriving here from the north last evening were Miss Jeanne Ferguson and Miss Kathryn Robinson, both of Portland, who will be among holiday guests in the city over the week-end.

Miss Ferguson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, and Miss Robinson will be a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Robinson.

Both are former residents and will be greeted by a number of old friends.

Reames Return After Vacation

Returning home Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames, who have been among Medford residents vacationing out of town.

They were the guests of Mrs. Reames' mother, Mrs. Edward J. Lanning, at her summer home at Gig Harbor in Washington during part of their stay away. They spent a week in Seattle and also visited in Tacoma and other northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Reames were away three weeks.

Yorks Vacation On Boat Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. Earl York returned home Wednesday after a two weeks' vacation in the north.

Motoring first to Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. York embarked for a nine-day cruise along the Canadian coast to Steward, B. C. They stopped at other points in the northwest before returning home.

Hale Greenman to Be Wed October 30

Of interest to Medford friends is the recent announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Harriet Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Campbell of Beaverton, and Hale Greenman of this city.

The announcement was made last Saturday in Portland when Mrs. M. C. Woodard and her daughter, Mrs. William A. Ferrin, were luncheon hostesses at their home.

Quiet Week-end Seen for City

Quiet relaxation over the Labor Day holiday week-end is in prospect for Medford residents, according to present plans.

A few will entertain guests from out of town and others will take short trips to other nearby points. Many will seek outdoor recreation at various resorts of the region, while others are making no arrangements except for a quiet week-end at home.

Four Attending Racing Event

Leaving for the north yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Muirhead and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer, who are attending a motorboat racing event at the coast city.

Pyles Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pyle returned to their home here Wednesday morning after a two weeks' vacation.

They were guests of relatives and friends in Carmen, Okla., and North Hollywood, Calif.

OFFICE OPEN LATE SATURDAY EVENING FOR SUBSCRIBERS

increased their prices, the Mail Tribune is this year offering a greater bargain than ever before," said Gerald Latham, circulation manager. "We are offering the same low bargain rates of past years while other newspapers are advancing prices. This means that everyone may now benefit by the great savings afforded by this special bargain period."

"With world-wide news coverage by the Associated Press and the United Press, the best of daily features, and thorough coverage of local news, the Mail Tribune is a complete newspaper. No one in the Rogue River valley can afford to be without it. With out low bargain rates no one need be without it."

Subscriptions may be left at the Mail Tribune office, given to carriers or sent in by mail. To be eligible for the special rates, present subscribers must be paid up to September 1.

Mr. Latham advised against delay in subscribing under the special bargain day rates. If subscriptions are delayed there is danger of forgetting the matter until it is too late to benefit by the bargain prices, he cautioned. There will positively be no extension of the bargain period beyond September 13, he emphasized.

NEW DEAL WAITS GRAPPLING FANS

It will be practically a new deal all around for wrestling patrons of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly programs next Monday night.

After seven straight weeks under the stars at the open-air high school arena, the torso twisters will return to their old stand in the Medford armory.

In addition, a minor housecleaning of principals sent Savich, Wild Man Zim and Bob Wagner on their way to be replaced by two newcomers and an old standby.

Top main event will feature Marshall Carter, brilliant ex-wrestling instructor of the University of Missouri and Les Wolfe, master of the rocking-chair scissors, who returns after a year elsewhere. Wolfe, before his departure from Medford, hadn't quite made up his mind whether he wanted to be a cleanie or meanie, and local fans are anxious to see if he has definitely decided that vital question.

Flashy Toots Estes will form the one-man welcoming committee for Gorilla Pogi, in the middle event. Pogi is reported to be the meanest brute that ever came out of the pampas.

Still another newcomer will be Young Zbyszko, nephew of the ex-world champ of the same name. Hailing from Poland, Zbyszko will meet Sailor Dick Trout of San Diego in the opener. Both are clean and scientific.

BIRTHS

RUSSIANS ACCUSE ITALIAN SUB OF SINKING VESSEL

'Fascist Pirates' Must Pay Dearly Is Warning by Official Organ—'People in Great and Terrible Rage'

ROME, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Usually well informed fascists said today that Italy would not attend any conference at Geneva on Mediterranean naval attacks, even if it were held separately from League of Nations sessions.

These persons gave four reasons:

1. Italy will not go to Geneva until the question of her Ethiopian conquest is settled.

2. Such a conference has not been officially prepared.

3. It would interfere with European non-intervention committee work.

4. The time is not ripe for such a meeting.

MOSCOW, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Pravda, the communist party newspaper, warned today that the sinking of the soviet motorship Timiryazev "by an Italian submarine" was a challenge to Russian rights on the sea for which "fascist pirates who are going to extremes" must "pay dearly."

(The Timiryazev was torpedoed and sunk by a submarine last Monday in the Mediterranean off the coast of Algiers on its way from Black sea ports to Le Havre and Liverpool. Its attacker was not then identified.)

Pravda's threat was made as a foreword to an entire page of resolutions by Russian workers' organizations deploring 'piracy" against Russian shipping.

"Great and terrible is the rage of the soviet people," the newspaper declared.

"This new crime of Italian fascism is not only a challenge to the soviet union. It is also a challenge to other countries interested in preserving peace.

"The soviet union will not stand for the insolent provocation of the fascist government. The soviet government is investigating and will be able to call to order Italian fascist bandits who went to such an extreme."

LONDON, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Great Britain aped destroyer reinforcements today to find "pirate" submarines in the western Mediterranean and decided to present "important proposals" before Europe's statesmen at Geneva to safeguard shipping in the war-infected waters off Spain.

French warcraft also augmented the British patrol force against the mysterious submersibles which have sunk or imperiled merchant shipping and even the course of British warships. A new torpedoing, this time the sinking of a soviet freighter in the northern Aegean, widened the scene of chaos at sea.

With the reinforced British destroyers told to capture or sink "undersea pirates," British statesmen made their plans for a conference of the Mediterranean powers at Geneva on September 10 to end bitter and mutual distrust arising from the submarine attack.

CHURCH FOUNDER'S SON SUCCUMBS AT AGE OF 83

ST. HELENA, Cal., Sept. 3.—(AP)—William C. White, 83, son of the founder of the Adventist church, who died here Wednesday, will be buried at Battle Creek, Mich.

White was the son of Mrs. Ellen G. White, whose texts are used extensively in Adventist schools and churches. He retired from active church work after the death of his mother in 1915.

CLARK CARDS 70 IN QUALIFICATION TO PACE FIELD

Eighteen-hole medal qualifying rounds in the southern Oregon-northern California golf tournament early this afternoon saw Medford's Leland Clark, r., card a brilliant 70, even par, for the finest score to that point. Clark, decidedly hot, put two 35s together.

Defending Champion Eddie Simmons hammered out a 73 for next low medal honors. Hubert Bentley of Ashland and Don Thompson of Portland, two of the tournament's dark horses, both turned the Rogue Valley course in 74 to remian the favorites with many.

There were 99 entries at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with out-of-town shotmakers continuing to register in a steady stream. Local golfers were also teeing off every minute or so under threatening skies.

Other qualifying scores early this afternoon were Bob Woods, 78; George Harrington, 78; Harry Ravizza, 77; Roy Pruitt, 79; Sprague Riegel, 94; Bill Porter, 88; R. G. Bardwell, 90; Herf Hathaway, 79; T. Slater Johnston, 90; Glen Jackson, 84; Hobert Price, 83; Al Clements, 92; Allen Buckingham, 109; S. Lewis, 81; Les Avrit, 84; Frank Reum, 95; Orin Schenck, 90; Charley Clay, 88; John Cupp, 95; Max Peirce, 98; Bill Catey, 91; Jack Bzerma, 99; Jerry Jerome, 94; Ole Alenderfer, 99; Mark Miller, 89; Walter Kresse, Jr., 84; E. Drysdale, 105; Harvey Woods, 89; Bob Ingle, 98; Sam Houston, 100; A. E. Orr, 88.

Jean Eberhart, Southern Oregon Normal school athletic coach, and Dick Sleeter, Medford, this morning turned in medal qualifying cards of 77 to practically insure their entrance into the championship round of 32 of the ninth annual southern Oregon-northern California golf tournament being played at the Rogue Valley Golf club. Experts say that qualifying rounds of 80 or better will be good enough to make the championship round.

Eberhart unwound his lanky frame to go out in 39 and return in 38 for his 77. Par for the course is 70. Sleester duplicated Eberhart's efforts, with a 39-38—77.

Other early qualifierh this morning, none af which were expected to enter the championship round, were D. Bashaw, 85; K. Haut, 88; Ralph Clement, 92; E. Siegmund, 94; and M. O. Littrell, 98.

All Odd Fellows are requested to report at the Perl chapel at 1:30 Saturday, to attend the funeral of Brother George B. Franks. F. E. Redden, Vice-Grand.
