Evangelistic services at the hall at 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school for the young people at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. All this coming week the regular meetings will be held at the gospel tent every evening at 7:45 except Monday and Saturday. Good music and special singing. You are welcome to attend these meetings.

Central Avenue Church of Christ W. E. Stram, minister. Meetings temporarily at the armory. Bible school classes for all ages, Sunday, 9:45 a. m. At 11 a. m. Sunday, following the Lord's Supper, Mrs. Stram will sing, "Someone is watching Your Light." Minister's sermon will be "How Any Church Can Be Financed Without Costing Any Member One Red Cent." At 7 Sunday night there will be a meeting of the Young People's Christian Endeavor, and an adult personal worker's Bible study group. At 8 p. m. Evonon Free is to sing a soprano solo, "My Father Watches Over Me." Sermon topic, "Let Us Rise Up and Build." We feel encouraged in the average attendance of 100 and better at each Sunday service for worship and preaching. The public is heartily invited to attend these meetings.

Each visiting minister will take an active part in the service, the sermon of the occasion being delivered by Rev. B. L. Shipman, pastor of the church. Mr. Shipman's subject will be "Desecration or Consecration." Since Mr. Shipman's appointment May 2 as temporary pastor, the keen interest of the members of the church and his newly made friends of Medford have made it possible to accomplish a task so long needed. area are dairymen. The congressman told them that he had waged a fight to increase taxes on oils used for making butter substitutes, but had been unsuccessful. "I'm still the only member of the agricultural committee from the 12 western states, but we do get support from Wisconsin and New York, which are dairy states," he added. "We presented, but were not able to pass, my bill which would increase taxes on cocoanuts."
