Cobra Prefers Music—SINGAPORE.—(UP)—A 15-foot king cobra was cheated out of a victim here by its own weakness for music. The cobra was about to strike an Indian coolie on an estate when the coolie sprang up a tree and began to sing. The snake forgot all about his ravenous appetite and listened. It listened for nearly an hour.

A company commander brings you his story of the C. C. C. in "Company 8757". Read it in this week's Saturday Evening Post.

The Morning After Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills

Brilliant Cast in Coming Show

With Robert Taylor and Eleanor Powell co-starred, and with its giant cast including such luminaries of the show world as George Murphy, Binnie Barnes, Buddy Ebsen, Sophie Tucker, Judy Garland, Charles Ingram, Goetz, Raymond Walburn, Robert Benchley.

Plunging from an open-cockpit airplane, a man identified as Raymond L. Corlett, 37, Los Angeles, plunged to death through the roof of a dwelling in the southwest section of the city today. Police reports quoted William Gage, pilot of the plane, as saying it was a suicide.

Mrs. Louise Carson, occupant of a bungalow on West Ninety-fourth near Vermont, heard a crash in her house. She rushed into the kitchen and found the man dead, amidst a pile of plaster and debris carried down from the hole in the roof which he made in the plunge.

Mrs. Corlett said her husband did not say where he was going when he left home this morning. "He was sick when he got up," she said. "He hadn't been feeling well."

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 7.—(AP)—The resignation of Edward F. McGrady as assistant secretary of labor was announced today at the summer White House.

In his letter of resignation McGrady said his new employer, whom he did not name, had "cordially agreed that whenever you feel need for my services for any special work I shall always be available to your call."

Accepting the resignation with "deep regret," the president said: "Your broad industrial background will, I am sure, make you a great value in improving relations between labor and management."

"I wish you all the success you so richly deserve. I am glad that you will always be available for future service to government and I look forward to seeing you often."
