GRANGE MASTER URGES PROGRAM TO HELP FARMER
 Taber Pleads for Return of American Market to Insure Enduring Prosperity for the Nation's Farmers
 SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Return of the American market, as a mean of insuring "enduring prosperity" to the nation's farmers, was urged today by L. J. Taber, master of the national grange.
 Taber, speaking at the New York state fair, presented a 10-point "fighting program" designed to help solve the farm problem.
 Pointing to increase "of $400,000,000 in the last 12 months in farm exports," Taber asserted that had decreased during and asked: "the American "ties which WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—While nothing has been said about it officially, members of the department of justice admit privately that, if they had the power, they would stop forthcoming movie "ased on Alcatraz prison.

 Knowing that get nearer to Francisco by tant ferry "popular roman" review a film must necessarily give ple an entirely false picture a federal prison system as a whole.
 Alcatraz is the ultimate in pen institutions; it represents the maximum in confinement, the minimum in privilege, the nth degree of discipline, complete isolation from outside world.
 But it is not typical. but 218 of the nearly now held in fed range over eve from the and far fendes for, pital for def, prisoners are treat hind barred windows wall of barbed wire.
 Alcatraz has two main fns, according to experts in penology, now are disturbed over the possibilty of interfering with them: first, the threat of Alcatraz walls is a crime deterrent.
 Fictionizing the life of the inmates of this prison might easily portray a brutality that does not exist and thus arouse false sympathy or invest the inmates with dramatic villainy. Either would serve to destroy the moral effect of the institution.
 Besides serving as a deterrent, the prison likewis acts to deflate the ego of a criminal, and for the very few who are released—only the exception ends his life elsewhere—is vital to society.
 A striking example in this Al Capone.
 While interviews with public enemy No. 1 can be stated with Capone's ego is at this writing, leaves his single officials) be a div
