Here From Ashland—Out-of-town callers here Wednesday included Mrs. Jesse Faren and Everett Nance of Ashland. Mrs. Faren calling in the afternoon and Nance in the evening.

Stops Overnight—The Rev. G. L. Hall of McMinnville and his cousin, John Whitford of Chautauque, N. Y., stopped in Medford overnight yesterday. They left this morning early to continue to Klamath Falls. The Rev. Mr. Hall was pastor of the First Baptist church here 28 years ago and will be remembered by many long-time residents. He officiated at the marriage of his daughter, Phyllis, to Werner Plep of Coquille at the Hall home in McMinnville September 4. The young couple will make their home in Coquille.

May Recover—A report received here today said hope was now held for the recovery of J. W. Stanford of Piedmont, Calif., who was critically injured early this week in an auto accident near Evanston, Wyo. Mr. Stanford was en route to visit his daughter, Mrs. David H. Canfield, at Rocky Mountain national park in Colorado where Mr. Canfield is superintendent. The Canfields resided here while Mr. Canfield was superintendent of Crater Lake national park. He was promoted recently to superintendent of the Colorado park.

To Attend Fair—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Smith and Mrs. Volney Dixon left this morning by motor for Salem where they will attend the state fair. They expect to return home Sunday.

Grange Meeting—All families attending the Grange meeting at 8 p. m. Saturday in Gold Hill are requested to bring sandwiches and coffee cream.

Driver Cited—Harold H. Eddy of Roseburg was cited by state police to appear in justice of the peace court here September 18 to answer a charge of speeding a truck at 45 m. p. h. on the Pacific highway near Gold Hill yesterday.

Radio Club Meeting—Rogue Valley Radio club will hold its first autumn meeting at 8:15 tonight at the Medford municipal airport clubrooms. As urgent business is to be transacted, officers requested a full attendance of members.

Resumes Teaching—Breynton R. Finch, for the past summer stationed in Crater Lake national park as chief fire dispatcher, resumed duties this week as member of the Medford senior high school faculty. Mr. Finch was in charge of the new radio communications system in the park.

Flying South—United States Representative Nan Wood Honeyman of Portland was a brief visitor at Medford municipal airport this morning. She was en route to Oakland on the 10:56 United Mailliner. She conversed with Democratic leaders here over the airport telephone.

Returns to Faculty—Joseph Nee, former member of the Jacksonville high school faculty, has resumed duties at the Halsey high school in the Willamette valley following a summer spent at Crater Lake national park as ranger. Mr. Nee was in charge of community house programs.

New Bookkeeper—Miss Virginia Jessup has begun duties in the Crater Lake national park office as permanent bookkeeper, taking over the duties of Charles Duncan, who resigned during the summer. Miss Jessup has been employed in the branch office of forestry in the national park service office in Berkeley, Calif. She will make her headquarters in Medford this winter.

Cassidy Role

William Boyd plays his tenth role of "Hopalong Cassidy" in "The Hills of Old Wyoming," which comes to the Roxy theatre for tomorrow only. George Hayes and Gail Sheridan share starring honors in the Clarence E. Mulford yarn.

Episode nine of the "Robinson Crusoe" serial is on the same bill.

Building Permit—W. W. Abbey of 28 Geneva street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to extend a private garage at a stated cost of $50.

Edward Arnold in Sunday Drama

Jim Fluke's illicit southern cotton sold in the North at exorbitant profits is the basis of a fortune accumulated by the famous Wall Street speculator and starts things rolling in "The Toast of New York," coming Sunday to the Craterian theatre, with Edward Arnold in the role of Fluke. Cary Grant, Jack Oakie and Frances Farmer also featured in top roles.

Mickey Rooney On Rialto's Bill

Mickey Rooney, the youngest and greatest trouper in the show business, comes to the Rialto theatre Sunday for a three-day run in his latest starring vehicle, "The Hoosier Schoolboy." He is seen as a young impoverished schoolboy who is condescended with his shell-shocked father, the nuisance of the town. How, with the help of a new school teacher, he wins the respect of the town, forms the basis of the age-old classic. Ann Nagel, Frank Shields and Edward Pawley have the leading roles with young Rooney.

"Dance, Charlie, Dance," a bit of comedy nonsense featuring Stuart Erwin, Jean Muir, Glenda Farrell and Allen Jenkins, shares double bill honors.
