

COURT PONDERS NEW BUDGET COMMITTEE
The county court has started its annual consideration of naming members of the county budget committee, to act with the county court in preparation of a Jackson county budget for next year. The budget committee is supposed to meet early in October, and have the budget ready to turn over to the assessor by early in November.

"We are just considering," County Judge Earl B. Day said today. "As a matter of fact, neither myself nor the commissioners have suggested a man. We expect to get around to it within a few days now."
