ANNOUNCING!

MRS. SUSIE CURTIS, FORMERLY WITH THE M. M. DEPT. STORE—NOW AT THE ELITE.

Make Calls Here—Among those calling on friends and business acquaintances here yesterday were Bud Gander, Mrs. F. A. Watkins and A. A. Madden, all of Ashland.

Grange Meeting—Roxy Ann Grange will meet in regular session tomorrow night. The charter will be draped for the late George W. Franks. All members are requested to be present.

Here from Ashland—Out-of-town callers here Tuesday included Barbara Miller, Jimmy Voss, E. B. Murray, A. C. Nittinger and Mrs. Eva Hammett, all of Ashland.

To Make Repairs—Lavinie Sparks of 114 Almond street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to make general repairs to a house at a stated cost of $500.

Convalescing—Mrs. E. N. Vilm of 208 Genesee street was today reported convalescing satisfactorily in Community hospital where she underwent an operation last Saturday.

Exhibit Planned—Southern Oregon Art association will exhibit in the Art Hill fair Saturday. It was announced today. Pictures by members will be shown in pastels and watercolors.

Checking Properties—M. J. Melchior, field inspector of the World war veterans state aid commission, arrived here last evening. He will spend a few days here checking properties owned by the commission in this area.

Looking After Property—T. E. Pottinger, former Medford resident now living in San Leandro, Cal., is spending a few days here looking over his real estate holdings. He arrived here Tuesday and plans to remain until Sunday.

Returning to College—Gordon Clark, Joe Clark and Merrill Bond today completed their summer's work with the Rogue River national forest to return to college. They were employed during the summer in mapping recreational areas in the Union Creek district.

Navy Club Meeting—Rogue River Valley Navy Mothers club will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Florence Cuffel at 809 North Central avenue at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. All mothers who have sons in the United States are invited to attend. Mrs. Maude Culbertson, commander, will preside.

Rummage Sale—Everything was in readiness today for the big rummage sale to be conducted by Zonta International tomorrow and Saturday at 211 East Main street. The sale will include "just about everything," officers said. Hours of sale are 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. tomorrow and 8 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Saturday. All Zontians are requested to deliver their contributions to the place of sale this evening.

Jail Sentence—Joseph F. Deal, 53, of North Carolina, received a 30-day city jail sentence this morning from City Judge Allen D. Curry. The charge was drunkenness. Deal had previously been warned to leave town, city police said. R. W. Marsh, 39, of Ashland, Texas, charged with drunkenness, was given his choice of spending ten days in city jail or leaving town immediately. He said he would leave Medford. Fred Woods, 53, of Spokane, Wash., was fined $10 on a charge of drunkenness.

Here for Day—Charlie Wiemer of Ashland spent the day here visiting with friends. Wiemer resides in the Bellevue section.

Health Better—Homer Hutchinson, well-known cattleman of Sprague River, is staying in Ashland and is improving in health after a sickness of over a year.

Resumes Mapping—David H. Kerr, student employee of the Rogue River national forest, yesterday returned here from the Umpqua national forest to which he was sent a short time ago for special work. Later in the day he left with Marion Rance, junior forester, to complete the type mapping of the Butte Falls district. Kerr is a student at Oregon State college school of forestry.

Back from Council—Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kerrigan have returned from the Klamath Indian Agency after attending the tribal council meetings which lasted for three days. Kerrigan reported that the council was a complete success and that B. G. Courtwright, new agency superintendent, was well pleased with the results and large attendance. Kerrigan spent yesterday in Medford and then returned to his home in Ashland.

To Hunt Deer—George Skate, Harry Morrow, Dr. Charles E. Kuna and Ernest M. West plan to leave for eastern Oregon Saturday afternoon to hunt mule deer. The season opens Monday morning. They will also take fishing tackle in case the angling is good in the eastern streams. Mr. West, navy, was recruited by the grant of a furlough and the recruiting station in the Medford federal building will be closed from noon Saturday to the morning of September 27.

Minor Accidents—Cars driven by Orville C. Hamilton of Central Point and Bonnie Burelson of Medford were involved in a minor accident at 11th and 1st streets yesterday noon. A city police report said today. Margaret Elliott of 325 North Bartlett street and Glenn O. Taylor of Reddy avenue drove machines involved in a minor mishap on North Quince street Tuesday evening, according to a city police report. The Elliott car was struck on the left side as Mr. Taylor backed out of a private driveway, the report stated.

Foolproof Plane—A plane described as "foolproof" was demonstrated today at Medford municipal airport by A. E. Walker, factory pilot. It was a Stearns-Hammond plane, manufactured in San Francisco. Floyd Hart, Maurice Spatz, Max Peirce and Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., were taken on courtesy hops. Walker arrived last evening from the north on his way back to San Francisco from a demonstration tour. The plane has three landing wheels, one being under the nose. The propeller is mounted amidships.

BOWLING ALLEYS SET FOR OPENING

With two new alleys installed and the other four completely refinished and shelledacked, the Smokehouse Bowl will officially open for business tomorrow night with all local bowlers invited to unlimber their best pin-setting arms for the first time this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Antle, managers, requested that all captains of the six teams entered in the Classic league and the 12 outfits to see action in the City league, be sure and have their bowlers lined up and ready to go Sept. 23, opening night of play. It was also announced that anyone wishing to learn how to bowl may do so by paying for their alley time while receiving free instruction from either Mr. or Mrs. Antle.

MINING ASSOCIATION INCORPORATES AT G.P.

SALEM, Sept. 15.—(P)—The Oregon Mining Industry Protective Association, Grants Pass, filed articles of incorporation here today. A charitable organization, it listed property and money assets at $500.

The purpose of the corporation is to encourage all plans for the mining industry, engage in publicity and activities in promotion of the industry's welfare, and to take protective measures for the benefit of the industry.

Incorporators were George E. Riddle, R. W. Dudley and J. J. Ringwold, treasurer.

Wood is the symbol for the fifth wedding anniversary.

PABLUM SOLVES FOOD PROBLEM

When you take a small child on a trip the problem of feeding it is often serious. A product put out by the Meade Johnson company solves this problem, in most cases, for a large number of mothers. It is a ready cooked cereal named Pablum. The only labor necessary to prepare baby's food is to add milk or water to Pablum. It is inexpensive. We have a large store can for 30c.

The child who is just starting to school very often has difficulty in adjusting himself or herself to school routine. This is not always the fault of the child and is very apt to be caused by a defect in vision. If you even suspect any faulty vision, take your child to an oculist at once. Read "Optometry On Trial," in the August Readers Digest. Issued 10 c. to 40 c. in 13. We give S. H. Green stamps. Heath's Drug Store, phone 384.

THREE TALKS SEEN AS DRAWING LINES OF 1938 ELECTION

Speeches by Roosevelt, Vandenberg and Borah Called 'Debate' On Court Issues — New Strife Forecast

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—President Roosevelt and two staunch opponents of his judiciary reorganization program will engage in a three-day discussion this week-end which may add new fuel to the nationwide controversy over the supreme court.

Each will give a speech inspired by the observance tomorrow of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the constitution.

Senator Borah (R., Idaho), long recognized as an authority on constitutional law, will lead off tonight at a Masonic meeting.

May Be Key Talk President Roosevelt's address, which may hold the key to his future court policies, will be delivered at the base of the Washington monument tomorrow night. It will be the principal Constitution day rally.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) will round out the discussion with a speech Saturday at a Michigan political rally. His subject is "The Republican Challenge."

Although there was no advance indication that any of the speeches will be a direct rebuttal to the others, they will represent widely divergent viewpoints. Consequently Washingtonians were referring to them as a "debate" which may draw legislative carrying over into the 1938 congressional elections.

Klan Whets Interest Mr. Roosevelt still regards some reorganization of the supreme court as desirable and he may weave his views on the constitution into a discourse on current judicial questions.

Whetting interest in all three addresses is current discussion over the alleged Ku Klux Klan membership of Justice Hugo L. Black, whom the president recently named to the only supreme court vacancy which has occurred during his administration.

The constitution anniversary finds nearly as much argument over the interpretation of that historic document as there was over its adoption.

The Grange

Upper Applegate Grange Meeting was called to order by master, Valoria Haskins with 33 members present.

Lecture hour was in charge of Lecturer Bertha Haskins who gave an interesting talk on her trip to Illinois. While there she visited the corn factory and brought back a box containing samples of finished products, also several kinds of corn from Argentina. All corn used in this factory is imported.

Preparations are being made for "Booster Night," Sept. 30. Everyone will be welcomed.

A dance will be sponsored here Sept. 18. Silva's orchestra will play.

Phoenix Grange met in regular session Tuesday night with an attendance of 24. A good business meeting was conducted by Worthy Master Bob Logan.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Denzer, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Reedy.

At next meeting, on the fourth Tuesday night of this month, the birthdays of those born in July, August and September will be observed and the home economics committee will have charge of the serving.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Allen of 1022 Stevens street Tuesday night at Sacred Heart hospital, a baby girl weighing 6 pounds, 14 ounces. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Alice Fay, Ameche And Ritz Brothers In Craterian Film

Spotlighting a swiftly paced parade of outstanding entertainment personalities such as has been seldom seen on the screen, the New Craterian theatre offers a grand festival of top-notch sing-song musical comedy in "You Can't Have Everything," which opened a four-day run yesterday.

It features Alice Fay, hitting to new hi-de-heights; the Ritz Brothers, triple threats to gloom; Don Ameche, screen heart-throb and star of radio's biggest show; Charles Whinniker, radio's "Cap'n Humpy Louie" Hovick, bringing a new personality to the screen; Hubert and his violin; and Tony Martin, romantic raver of the airwaves.

Alice Fay, who was selected by Irving Berlin and Cole Porter as Hollywood's best song-plugger, plays a singing playright whose stark, sardonic, tragic masterpiece is adapted by the Ritz Brothers into a howling farce. Because she thinks Don Ameche has had a hand in this blasphemous act, Alice puts the kibosh on his romantic ideas, only to relapse in subsequent scenes.

William Boyd, the familiar "Hopalong" of the Clarence E. Mulford "Hopalong Cassidy" series, returns for another thrill-packed adventure in "Hopalong Rides Again," which plays at the Rialto theatre tomorrow and Saturday. "Wind" George Hayes, handsome Russell Hayden and William Duncan are seen in supporting roles.

"Blazing Sixes," starting the singing sensation of the screen, Dick Foran, plays as the added western hit with the Mulford thriller.

Home Headlocks Divorce Grounds

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—(AP)—She didn't mind going to wrestling shows with her husband, Iona Gotten, former film player, said today, but when he demonstrated the holds after they reached home it was too much.

So she was granted a divorce from William C. Juller, an oil company executive, in superior court. Once, she testified, he tried a headlock and injured her nose.

ANTON WALBROOK'S NEW ROMANTIC HIT AT ROXY

Anton Walbrook, new romantic sensation, is starred in "The Soldier and the Lady," playing at the Roxy theatre today and tomorrow. The dramatic adventure film is based on Jules Verne's "Michael Strogoff" and features in the cast Beulah Walsbrook, Margot Graham, Eric Blane, Elizabeth Allan and Akim Tamiroff.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE FOR GRANTS PASS MAN

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 15.—(P)—Fred W. Berger was under Josephine county grand jury indictment today on a charge of manslaughter. He is accused of fatally shooting George Bryan, August 6. Bryan died August 21.

The circuit court jury has been dismissed until October 11 and trial is not expected before that date.
