Williams Creek

WILLIAMS CREEK, Sept. 21.—(Spl.) — Mrs. George Minter and daughter, Mrs. Adamek, entertained the Williams ladies' club Wednesday. Mrs. Carbis, who makes her home with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs Don Reames, was chosen to quilt the quilt which members of the club have pieced.

A farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood is planned by ladies of the club for tonight with potluck supper at 7:30. Mr. Wood has leased the Williams store for the last five years. The lease expires and they are returning to Grants Pass. Friends are sorry to have them leave the community.

Arthur Gray, who graduated from Williams high school last May, is now employed by a plumbing company in Long Beach, Calif. He is also taking a correspondence course in accounting and business law.

John Letteken, who has been seriously ill for several weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed Woolfolk, in Grants Pass, is improved greatly and is able to be at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wrinkle and son, Ola, of Los Angeles. They were old time friends in Missouri. It had been more than 35 years since they had met. The Wrinkles were making their first trip through southern Oregon and visited Marble Caves, Crater Lake and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hunter spent last week at Brier Hot Springs in eastern Oregon.

Lou Hansen, Jr., is now owner and operator of the Central garage in Glendale.

Victor Sparlin is now working at the Buddy Elder sawmill on Dutch's creek near Grants Pass.

RETURN OF BLACK MADE SECRETLY

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Justice Hugo L. Black of the United States supreme court, said a usually reliable source today, sailed secretly for home yesterday.

He boarded the City of Norfolk at Southampton, this informant declared. Line officers at London and Southampton said they had no record of reservations for him; but one official, who bade passengers bon voyage, said it was possible that the justice made private arrangements with the captain. A quick check through the boat did not disclose his presence.

The ship is due at Norfolk, Va., September 29 and at Baltimore on September 30.

The justice checked out of his hotel yesterday and left for an undisclosed destination, still declining comment on published American newspaper accounts that he is a member of the Ku Klux Klan.
