

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

"Everyone in Southern Oregon Reads the Mail Tribune."
Daily Except Saturday.
Published by MEDFORD PRINTING CO.
Phone 10
11-27-29 N. 1st St.

Entered as second-class matter at Medford, Oregon, under act of March 3, 1879.
Subscription Rates:
By Mail—In Advance:
Daily, one year, $1.00
Daily, six months, .60
Daily, one month, .20

Official Paper of the City of Medford
Official Paper of Jackson County
MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively authorized to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it, and also to the local news published herein.

MEMBER OF UNITED PRESS
MEMBER OF ADVERTISING BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS
Advertising Representative

WEST-HOLLIDAY
MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
1937

Ye Smudge Pot
By Arthur Perry.
Legal aspects of the pinball machine controversy are befuddling.

Associate Justice Hugo Black, whose alleged Klan relations stirred a storm over his appointment to the U.S. supreme court bench, is sore dejected.

"Mama has about as much influence with her love lorn girl child as an old cat has with a half grown kitten she has weaned which is practically none at all."

A 97-year-old Hillsboro, Ore., autoist has been granted a license to drive a 16-year-old auto. This establishes a precedent for a 16-year-old boy to drive a 97-year-old auto.

Press reports state the Church of England pastor, who performed the wedding ceremony for the late King of England, at a personal sacrifice, will soon take charge of a Chinese town mission in the east, due to not being in the best of financial circumstances.

After a year at OSC the Bob Hammond boy will enroll at "Old Oregon," the alma mater of his paw and big brother, and other kin.

FRANK AND CANDIS SOUL (Oakland Calif.) Tribune
"Too Eminent"
"Who does one seldom read anything in the Forum column that is important to anybody?"

A statistician surveying the jobless situation of the nation, reports "many of the jobless never had a job." This is a pretty howdy-doh!

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

"Twilight of the Gods"

THE League of Nations refuses to reelect the government of Spain to its council. This means that Spain, still a member of the League, will be deprived of its vote. Such action is equivalent to disenfranchising a law-abiding American citizen, because he has been the unfortunate victim of a gang of crooks.

NOT only has the League failed in its main purpose which was to advance the cause of world peace, it now gives aid and comfort to those who worship the god of war, and put their faith in armed force. If the world powers that now control the League, did not believe that the Loyalist Spanish government is doomed to defeat, that General Franco, supported by Germany and Italy, is sure to win, this extraordinary action would certainly never have been taken.

WHY, asks the Portland Oregonian, doesn't the League liquidate itself? Why indeed! If it disbanded, the world would be the better for it. But there isn't a chance, as long as the world powers, find the organization a convenience, in advancing and protecting their selfish interests.

YE verily the League of Nations has not only failed, it has gone over to the enemy,—it has sold out. Every charge directed against it, when it was first organized, has been sustained, by subsequent events. Old Man Murs must be chucking under his brass hat, and mumbling: "I told you so!"

AND yet—declaring the League has failed is rather like declaring Christianity has failed. The best answer to that was delivered many years ago: "How do you know, when it has never been tried." The League has never been tried, even the basic principles upon which it was established, have never been supported, its provisions have never been carried out.

IF when Japan first invaded Manchuria, the League had taken such action as the covenant demanded, imposed at once an economic boycott, against the aggressor, everything in the world today, might be very different. But the League wretched,—fell back upon an impotent and belated verbal protest—and then and there signed its death warrant, as far as being a force for world peace is concerned.

AND now the League reading the handwriting on the wall, agreeing with Napoleon that God is on the side of the heaviest battalions, betrays and double crosses, another one of its members,—because that member is weak, is coveted by the powers that are outside the League, and unless it is given aid by the League, is doomed to defeat.

Would F. D. R. Win?

A "faithful reader" writes in to disagree, with our recent opinion, that if a national election were held today, President Roosevelt would still be several thousand miles ahead of his nearest competitor. Well that's O. K. As there will be no such election until 1940, such an opinion can be no better than a guess, no matter who happens to express it.

VERY interesting, but before we agree, we would ask our correspondent to kindly NAME the opponent. That was the nub of our particular forecast. The support given President Roosevelt at the polls last November we admit, is today split and scattered, seven ways to breakfast. That is always more or less true, between elections.

Under such circumstances, for whom would a majority of the people of the country vote? As we see it there is only one answer—for Roosevelt.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M. D.
Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink.

ACETANILID HABIT
Acetanilid is made of aniline (a coal tar product) and glacial acetic acid. Another name for it is phenacetin. It is sometimes called acetophenetidin.

Phenacetin is another coarser derivative similar in effect to acetanilid. Phenacetin is sometimes called acetophenetidin. Antipyrin is still another coarser derivative of similar character.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Why Neck?
Can your neck be cured surgically or otherwise? The condition has been present since birth, and although it is not painful it does detract from my appearance.

NEW YORK
Day by Day
By O. O. McIntyre
NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—One of the better known barbers in mid town is Charles De Zimler, whose shop is in Radio City.

When wolf hungry, my choice for a midnight snack is one of those lunch wagons set middle-wise on West street and close to the vegetable and meat markets.

Robert C. Benchley does not seem able to make up his mind about careering—whether to remain within call of the studios in Hollywood or occupy his usual seat on the aisle as a critic.

Plain common sense or something has made it almost impossible for the stage to wangle a laugh from me any more. Yet Mickey Mouse makes me fit to be tied and W. C. Fields and Gracie Allen put me in stitches.

Home Well Posted
MARTIN PERRY, O.—(UP)—Quarantine regulations have hit doubly hard on Roy Stewart and his children. Two signs one for measles and one for whooping cough, are displayed.

Some large hotels have apparatus which can take a quick glance at a room and tell what is missing before the departing patron reaches his car.

Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, speaking in Washington on Constitution day, demands "an interpretation of the constitution sufficiently broad to MAWE DEMOCRACY WORK."

WHAT is democracy, anyway? Here is this writer's idea of it: "True democracy is a way of living whose CHIEF PURPOSE is to bring to the AVERAGE MASSES of the people the highest possible levels of liberty, happiness, comfort and security."

HOW MANY Americans want to emigrate to other countries in order to better themselves? Do you want to leave this country and go somewhere else? Did your father or your grandfather yearn to LEAVE America and settle in Europe?

LET'S be smart. Let's remember the fable of the dog and the bone. We of America POSSESS ALREADY the biggest and the juiciest bone on earth. Let's not drop it in the creek in a foolish effort to get for ourselves the old, dry, gnawed-off bone possessed by the regimented people of Europe.

Menus of the Day

- By Mrs. Alexander George LUNCHLON SERVING SIX
The Menu
Corn Soup Water
Chicken Mousse
Tomato Slices
Shoestring Potatoes
Hot Biscuits Currant Jam
Ripe Olives Stuffed Celery
Peach Melba
Coffee
Chicken Mousse (Unusual Flavor)
2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
1-3 cup cold water
2-3 cup salad dressing
1 cup diced cooked chicken
1/4 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped pimientos
2-3 cup seedless grapes
1/4 cup almonds
1/4 cup whipped cream
1 tablespoon minced parsley
Soak gelatin for 5 minutes in water. Dissolve over boiling water. Cool and add to the rest of the ingredients. Pour into loaf mold and chill until firm. Unmold. Cut in slices and serve on lettuce or crepe. Garnish with tomato slices.
Tomato Slices
6 one-inch slices tomatoes
2 tablespoons salad dressing
1/4 cup cream cheese
1 teaspoon minced onions
1 teaspoon minced green peppers
1/4 teaspoon salt
Select firm ripe tomatoes. Peel and cut into slices one inch thick. Spread with rest of the ingredients. Chill until setting time. Cut in halves and arrange around the edge of platter.
Peach Melba
6 pieces angel food cake
6 halves peaches
1 1/2 pints vanilla ice cream
1 cup raspberries
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 cup whipped cream
Place cake on serving plates. Top with peaches filled with ice cream. Mix berries and sugar. Place on ice cream and top with whipped cream. Fresh or canned berries may be used.

Behind Washington Headlines

By H. R. Baukhage
Copyright 1937, by The North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.
(Continued from Page One)
He was George Stimpson, correspondent of the Houston Post. Mr. Stimpson is a deep student of early American history and he was reading Madison's notes of the constitutional convention. Completely absorbed in the intimate record before him, he only vaguely realized that he was approaching the anniversary of the very day of which he was reading.

There was a simple statement in Secretary Wallace's announcement of the 1938 AAA conservation program which has a story behind it, and what is more, a lot of fireworks ahead of it. The significance of the provision referred to is this: If the measure is carried out, a lot of those tenant farmers in the north will get a considerably larger share of the bounty passed out by the department of agriculture next year.

THE starry-eyed dreamers of the New Deal want to RUN PEOPLE'S LIVES for them, as governments do in Europe. It's a lot of fun, you know, to run somebody else's life. But they are shrewd enough to know that before they can get our consent to run our lives for us they must make us dissatisfied with what we have.

Now the C. I. O. framers gaze with gratification on the fruits of their labor. But they say that the fight has only started. Officials of the U. C. A. W. predict that they will have a knock-down and drag-out battle to see that the tenant farmer gets the dollars that will be due him under the new rules. A counter-offensive against organizers of the tenant farmers broke out last week again in Arkansas and Missouri. This opposition is hailed by the organizers as proof of success in the last two months.

Now the C. I. O. framers gaze with gratification on the fruits of their labor. But they say that the fight has only started. Officials of the U. C. A. W. predict that they will have a knock-down and drag-out battle to see that the tenant farmer gets the dollars that will be due him under the new rules. A counter-offensive against organizers of the tenant farmers broke out last week again in Arkansas and Missouri. This opposition is hailed by the organizers as proof of success in the last two months.

Flight 'o Time

Medford and Jackson County history from the files of the Mail Tribune 10 and 20 years ago.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
September 21, 1927
(it was Wednesday)
All forest fires in Jackson county under control.
Stores of city hold fall openings.
Mrs. Earl York of the county agent's office starts vacation.
Thirteen naval planes stop at fair grounds airport.
New system of collection of city garbage to be proposed by city council.

ASHLAND harvest fête to be held October 6.
Ruth Elder is granted license for trans-Atlantic flight.
TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY
September 21, 1927
(it was Friday)
Many forest fires burning in various parts of county.
German duplicity in America exposed in efforts to influence congress for peace move.
Emily Stevens in "The Slacker" at the Page; Fatty Arbuckle at the Star.
Children's day at county seat draws huge crowd.
Elks present Major Kelly with token of esteem on eve of departure for army service.
State engineer inspects Talent irrigation plans.

PAIR FINED FOR MELON STEALING
Castle A. Woolverton, 27, and Leslie B. Hathaway, 19, of Central Point, charged with theft of eight water-melons of the value of $1, from the Otto Bohner field, plead guilty in justice court yesterday and were each fined $25 by Justice William R. Coleman. They paid $10 on account and are to pay the balance later, including costs.

The pair, according to the testimony, were apprehended by a state police officer while carrying the melons from the patch to their auto. George V. Kendall, charged with permitting the discharge of sawdust into a tributary of Crane creek, and thus endangering fish life, was scheduled to appear tomorrow.

Robert G. Warner of this city, charged with violation of the basic speed law, in traveling on the Pacific highway, and Floyd Woolridge, charged with having no rear red light on his auto, were scheduled to appear this afternoon.
Fire-Spotting Record.
YREKA—(UP)—Spotting a fire which only burned for three minutes and which was 14 miles away is the record recently hung up by Lloyd Darley, lookout at the Orr mountain lookout in the Gooseeater area, east of here.
Use Mail Tribune want ads.

MAKE MINE WITH OOP!
Illustration of a man and woman with a bottle of Old Oscar Pepper.
OLD OSCAR PEPPER (OOP for short) is old whiskey—a grand and glorious combination of smooth, mellow, straight whiskeys. Famous since 1838. Try it!
Old Oscar Pepper is a blend of straight whiskeys, 90 proof, made by Frankfort Distillers, Inc., Louisville and Baltimore.
SEE WHERE OOP GETS ITS NAME?
$1.00 PINT $1.90 QUART
ALSO AVAILABLE IN RYE