Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Feesble rallies failed to hold in today's stock market and late selling knocked leaders down 1 to 4 points, with a few suffering more pronounced declines. Retarding influences, brokers said, were America's stiff note to Japan on the Nanking bombing, possibly presaging imminent application of the neutrality act and further cutting commensurate with the Orient's revival of doubts concerning corporation earnings in the light of mounting costs, and the general inability of the market to follow through on recovery moves. Transfers approximated 800,000 shares.

A trial of a sea captain which electrified the world some ninety years ago is powerfully and brilliantly brought back to life in the epic motion picture "Souls at Sea," which opened at the Craterian theatre last night.

"Souls at Sea" is the motion picture treatment of the famous trial of "Nuegla" Taylor, sea captain of the "40's," who assumed command of the brig "William Brown" when that ship caught fire in mid-Atlantic shortly after her master died. Taylor is played by Gary Cooper, who hard-earned fame as well in any of his long string of credible adventure stories—possibly because he was re-enacting a story from history's pages for the first time.

The "William Brown" was equipped with only two life boats and Taylor realized that he could never bring the entire ship's company to safety in the frail craft. He ordered a trial to determine who should be permitted to go aboard the lifeboats and who should be ordered—at pistol point—to remain aboard and go to the bottom with the ill-fated vessel. He included himself among the survivors not because he wanted to save his life, but because he admirably courted, but because he knew he was the only man who could bring the life-boat safely through to land.

There followed a trial which is now epic among sea trials. Taylor was accused of manslaughter on the high seas not only by most of the survivors, but what hurt most, by his sweetheart, played by beautiful Frances Dee. This powerful picture lists in its cast George Raft who is superb as the hard-boiled mate of the vessel who would steal a kernel of corn from a hen but would follow his captain to the grave; Henry Aronson, Harry Carey, Clyde Brucke Baker, Robert Cummings, Porter Hall and a roster of supporting players culled from Hollywood's most noted feature players.
