Bing Crosby In Sunday Picture

Promising double the usual entertainment, "Double or Nothing" comes Sunday to the Craterian theater, starring Bing Crosby, with Martha Raye and Mary Carlisle as his two leading ladies. Also featured in the cast are Andy Devine, William Frawley, Fay Holden, Samuel S. Hinds and Benny Baker. Bing's latest venture into the realm of comedy with music concerns a freak will, a night club on wheels, and a race to win a million. A Scotty pup has his innings in the midst of the action.

Carrier issues seemingly responded to rumors an agreement was near on the long drawn-out wage controversy. A slump in metal prices, both here and abroad, was thought to have been the touch-off signal for the initial set-back. Export copper fell briskly and the domestic rate for the red metal was cut a cent to 12 cents a pound following a reduction from 14 to 13 cents Monday.
