

SLIGHT INCREASE IN POPULATION OF STATE HOSPITAL

2536 Patients Now—T. B. Hospital Population Jumps 56 As Compared to Last Year—Fewer in Pen

SALEM, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The population of eight state institutions was 6,405 in September, 12 more than at the same time last year, the state budget department showed today.

The state hospital increased 89 to 2,536 patients, showing the largest gain of any institution. The state training school's population was 78, a decline of 87 from a year ago. This was the largest drop.

The state's tuberculosis hospital's population jumped 56 to 325, while the blind trades school, only other institution to show an increase, had a population of 42, one more than a year ago.

Fewer Feeble-Minded.
The eastern Oregon tuberculosis hospital dropped from 149 to 147, while the Fairview home for feeble-minded declined from 949 to 947. The penitentiary fell from 990 to 975, and the school for girls from 54 to 50. The eastern Oregon state hospital dropped from 1,330 to 1,306.

Per capita costs increased at all but one institution because of higher prices of food and clothing. The blind trades school has a per capita cost of $57.53, highest of any institution, but this figure is $5.34 less than a year ago.

The eastern Oregon state hospital has the lowest cost of $13.10, compared with $12.15 a year ago.

The latest per capita costs at other institutions, compared with a year ago, are: State hospital, $13.82 and $12.70; tuberculosis hospital, $47.93 and $45; eastern Oregon tuberculosis hospital, $53.88 and $49.44; Fairview Home, $14.41 and $13.71; schools for girls, $38.70 and $34.22; penitentiary, $19.59 and $20.17; training school, $51.98 and $22.51.

Roosevelt Greeted By Thousands On Seattle Visit

One hundred thousand Seattle citizens greeted President Roosevelt when he arrived in the city on his western tour Tuesday night. This photograph was taken as Mr. Roosevelt, the First Lady and Gov. Clarence D. Martin rode up the crowd-lined avenue. The President's son, James, and Mayor John F. Dore also rode in the flower-laden car. Roosevelt flashed his famous smile and waved his hat. (A. P. LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION OPENS SATURDAY WITH $80,000 FOR WINNERS

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Doors swing open at 8 a. m. tomorrow on the 27th annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition here.

A 10 percent increase in premiums and a corresponding boost in arena prizes will result in the distribution of $80,000 to farm and livestock exhibitors, $25,000 to blue ribbon winners in the horse show and $10,000 to rodeo participants.

A rodeo innovation this year will be the crowning of a king of the bucking horses, with a silver-mounted halter, suitably engraved, as a reward. T. B. Wilcox, exhibition president, said.

Robert Ormond Case and Ernest Haycox, widely known writers of western fiction, and Henry W. Collins, veteran president of the Pendleton Roundup, will judge rodeo performances.

A free matinee performance of the horse show and rodeo will feature the children's day program, beginning at 1:45 p. m., during which all children of school age will be allowed to see the entire exposition for a small gate charge, Wilcox said.

Matinee and night shows are also scheduled for Sunday.

DRUNKEN DRIVING LAW PROVING EFFECTIVE

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A record of 51 convictions and no acquittals by the district attorney's office here indicated today the effectiveness of a new Oregon law bearing on drunken driving cases.

Convictions were secured in all cases since June 7, when the state statute went into effect making examination by a physician of drivers so charged unnecessary, Deputy Tom Work said.

Seven of the convicted drivers have entered appeals.

STATE DEBT LOAD CUT $2,569,699

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—The state highway bonded debt was reduced today to $21,141,750 and the World War Veterans' state aid bonded debt fell to $22,175,000 when State Treasurer Rufus C. Holman deposited $2,569,699 with the state's fiscal agent in New York.

The deposit was used to pay $1,000,000 principal and $476,408 interest on highway bonds, and $600,000 principal and $492,291 interest on state aid bonds.

"Material progress is being made in the reduction of the bonded indebtedness of the state and its subdivisions, and the state's financial condition is the best in several years," Holman said.

The state's bonded debt now amounts to $46,585,010, compared with a peak of $68,062,810 in 1928.

ASHLAND SCHOOL BUDGET BOOSTED

ASHLAND, Oct. 1.—(Sp.)—The board of directors and citizens' budget committee of school district No. 5 adopted the official budget Wednesday night for the 1938-39 school year, requiring $376,550 more than the figures for the current year. The increase is entirely due to increased salaries granted teachers in local schools, according to Supt. George A. Briscoe.

Official publication of the budget figures will occur in a few days and a public hearing will be held 20 days later, Mr. Briscoe said.

Total estimated expenditures for next year are $84,705, as compared with $81,236.50 for the current year, and estimated revenue is $22,450, compared with $22,750 for the year 1937-38. The amount to be raised by taxation in the new budget is $62,255, as against $58,886.50 for this year.

FARM SECURITY CHANGES DRAWN

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Farm security administration officials of Washington, Oregon and Idaho perfected here today plans for an administrative change making farm debt adjustment and community and cooperative services an integral part of rural rehabilitation loans.

The plan, Regional Director Walter A. Duffy said, is intended to meet the problem of personnel and budget curtailment as well as to strengthen and broaden the rural rehabilitation program.
