

Oregon State Fumbles Pave Way for 24 to 6 California Victory

BUTTER FINGERED HALFBACKS GIVE SCORING CHANCE

Gray's Pass to Mountain Gives Staters Lone Score No Points Kicked By Victors.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Calif., Oct. 2.—(AP)—University of California's Bears coupled stout downfield blocking with costly errors on the part of the opposition today to defeat Oregon State college 24 to 6.

Some 25,000 fans saw Coach "Stub" Allen's hairy stars open the Pacific Coast conference championship race in victorious fashion.

The Bears scored four touchdowns and in each instance the visitors from the Pacific northwest set the stage for the tallies by fumbles.

Three of the go-ahead drives took place in the second quarter, one for 27 yards, another for 42 yards and the third for 30 yards.

After the Bears had taken the ball on Oregon State's 27 yard line in the first period, they pushed to a touchdown to start the second quarter. It came from straight punches at the line with Right Halfback Sam Chapman busting through for the final two yards.

Left Halfback Bottari contributed the next two touchdowns, going over once from the two-yard line and the second time from the one-yard marker.

The Bears snatched the ball on the 42-yard line and rambled go-ahead in three plays. The second thrust was left by Bottari's 31-yard run around left end. Chapman got off a 22-yard run. On the third touchdown drive, which started 30 yards from the O. S. C. goal after Mercer had dropped the ball and Quarterback Meek had recovered it for the Bears.

A scoreless third period saw California's second stringers in action while the third team took over the work in the last quarter.

The lowest reserves on the Bear squad held their own against the first ranking Oregonians by scoring a touchdown to match one of the visitors put over shortly before.

The Oregon State points resulted from Gray's pass to Bob Mountain, substitute right halfback. The ball was on the 33-yard line. O. S. C. having put the ball into play on California's 48 and advanced 15 yards on a pass and three line plays. Gray's toss was 18 yards and Mountain ran 15 yards to score standing up.

A California punt, going out of bounds on the Oregon State 33-yard line, paved the way for the last Bear touchdown, but it was another fumble on the part of the visitors that brought in the points.

Kolberg, back to punt, dropped the ball and Hyman Foster, a substitute tackle, plopped down on it.

None of the place kicks on the try for points were accurate.

California failed to complete a pass in five tries.

Rain earlier in the day left the field a bit slippery but the crowd enjoyed sunny weather.

HUSKIES TOPPLE TROJANS 7-0 IN DING DONG GAME

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The Washington Huskies inaugurated a drive for their second successive Pacific coast conference championship today with a hard won, but well executed 7 to 0 victory over the University of Southern California Trojans.

The broad-beamed leads from the great northwest struck with fury when a break in the form of a Trojan fumble presented itself in the first quarter, and held off a belated aerial attack in the final moments to walk off with the Trojan scalp.

In between, Coach Jimmy Phelan's Huskies played heads-up ball against a less seasoned band of Trojans, dead set determined to strike down Washington in a bid to reclaim long lost grid prestige.

Sixty-five thousand spectators sat in on the struggle, waged up and down the field in a kicking and passing campaign.

Early in the initial period, Ambrose Schindler, ace quarterback of U.S.C., fumbled the ball on a spinner play and Rich Worthington, Husky right tackle, fell on it. It took Washington seven plays, including two sharp passes, to get the ball down to the one-yard line, where Jimmy Johnston, Husky halfback, crashed over for the touchdown.

Al Cruver, the fullback, who with many of his mates helped set the Trojans back, 12 to 0, a year ago, placed kicked for the extra point.

Vitality important in the Husky attack was Capt. Fritz Waskowitz, right half, who fired an eight-yard pass to the other back, Chuck Newton, in the scoring attack.

Another pass, Cruver to end Tom Schindler, went for 11 yards in the rapid onslaught for a score.

From then on, it was a ding-dong battle until the final minutes of play. Led by Schindler, Troy moved the ball from its own 19 to the Washington 28 before losing it on a pass intercepted by Newton.

Schindler went out injured. But the Trojans rushed the Huskies into kicking and in the last two minutes of play were back on the Washington 10-yard stripe, first down. The threat abruptly ended, Washington's forward three Oliver Day for a loss, and then Walter Elliott, sub center, intercepted another Trojan pass just before the gun sounded.

PLAY ARMISTICE DAY GAME HERE
The Medford-Ashland high school football game, originally scheduled to be played in Ashland Armistice day, has been transferred to Medford, it was announced yesterday by C. G. Smith, Medford principal, after consulting arrangements with B. C. Forythe, principal of Ashland high.

There is no change in date, the traditional battle being staged here as a feature of the annual American Legion Armistice day celebration.

Transfer of the game will give the Medford Black Tornado one conference battle here. As originally drawn up, the schedule saw the Tigers playing all three southern Oregon conference opponents away from home.

Medwick Gehringer Near Batting Honors
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Although both lost ground to second place rivals during the past week, Ducky Medwick of the Cardinals and Charley Gehringer of the Tigers still sported enough advantage today to just about assure their National and American league batting championships, respectively.

Junior High Losses
Coach Bob Wood's Jacksonville high football team defeated the Medford junior high aggregation, coached by George Harrington, 14-0, at Van Scoyoc field, Friday afternoon.

Faces Belcastro

Les Wolfe (above), the Texas Terror, will face the hardest test of his career in the Medford Armory tomorrow night when he tangles with Pete Belcastro. Undefeated locally, Wolfe will bear the brunt of extreme fanfare in addition to plenty of dislike from his opponent.

Pete Belcastro, Wend, California's leading citizen, moves into town tomorrow night for the express purpose of attempting to tame the hated and horrible Les Wolfe. The pair will meet in the main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly grapple program at the Medford armory.

In the middle event, Marshall Carter and Frankie Clemens, two superb cleanies, will face off and in the opener two more orthodox grapplers, Bobby Wagner and Frankie Murdock, will fight it out.

The card is expected to draw the largest house of the year. Wolfe, by his cruelty and savageness, has drawn down the wrath of every wrestling fan in southern Oregon, and to a man, they will be backing Belcastro to eliminate the Texas Terror from the horizon. It will be at battle of manhood and manhood. Both are little or not at all for the cleaner aspects of the game, and depend on sheer dirt to win themselves mat victories.

WORLD SERIES TO BE BROADCASTED
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—It has been settled that broadcasting of the 1937 world series via the networks is to be on a sustaining basis. That is, there will be no sponsorship as was the case last year.

Under plans now in formation, ball and strike descriptions is to go out on the three channels of NBC, CBS and MBS, starting with the opener next Wednesday and continuing daily until a decision is reached between the New York Giants and Yankees. Broadcast, at 10:15 (P.S.T.) would be 15 minutes ahead of "play ball."

Eugene Held To 6-6 Tie by McMinnville
McMinnville, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Eugene and McMinnville high school football teams battled nip and tuck here last night to a 6-6 tie.

The home-towners scored first in the third period. Kreiger going over after a 34-yard drive starting with a recovered fumble.

Early in the final period, McLean, who starred for Eugene, ran 71 yards off right tackle to the McMinnville 3-yard line, where the visitors lost the ball on downs.

The McMinnville punt was blocked and Eugene recovered on the 25-yard stripe. Caven scoring in two plays.

Willamette Squelched
SALEM, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Beaten back from the shadow of the Willamette goal after two long scoring drives, Fresno State college took advantage of the breaks to tally in the closing minutes of the football game here last night and defeat Willamette University, 7 to 0.

COUGARS CONQUER IDAHO 13 TO 0 IN STEADY DRIZZLE

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 2.—(AP)—A powerful running attack headed by Eddie Bayne, triple-threat quarterback, and fullback Carl Littlefield carried the Washington State college Cougars to a 13 to 0 victory over the University of Idaho here today.

The Cougars scored early in the first quarter of this thirty-ninth game between the rivals of the Palouse wheat fields and were never in danger thereafter.

A crowd estimated by college officials at 8,000 sat through a steady drizzle at the end of a two-day rain.

Washington State moved into the scoring territory on a series of line bucks and end runs by Littlefield and Bayne in the first five minutes. A pass, 27 yards in the air from Bayne to Johnny Klumb, end, brought the score. Klumb, standing on the goal line fell over the line as he was tackled.

Idaho came closest to scoring in the second quarter but was turned back after it seemed their drive must carry them over. After a drive from their own 43 yard line, including a long pass from Belko to Knap, the Vandals lost the ball on the State four yard stripe when Chrape fumbled and Chuck Holmes, Cougar sub-end recovered. Later in the same quarter, Idaho again moved to the four yard line and lost the ball on downs. Belko passed wide into the end to end the final threat.

ASHLAND VICTOR OVER PASS IN MUD

On a muddy field and beneath a steady downpour of rain, Ashland high's Grizzlies opened the 1937 southern Oregon conference football season at Ashland Friday afternoon with a 12-0 victory over the Grants Pass Cavemen.

Coach Skeet O'Connell's Grizzlies scored twice with lightning rapidity in the third quarter. Ken Harris, reserve halfback, shot a pass to Halfback Bob Gregory for the first touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Jimmy McNair caught the ball on his own 25-yard line and raced 75 yards down the sidelines for the touchdown.

The first half was a putting dul, with honors about even. Ashland had the edge in the second half.

NEBRASKA HANDS GOPHERS LICKING

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Minnesota's dream of marching to its fourth successive mythical national gridiron championship exploded in an upset today that shocked the gridiron world.

In sunbaked Memorial stadium before a sellout crowd of 36,000 frenzied spectators, Nebraska conquered the mighty Gophers, hitherto defeated only once in three years, 14 to 9.

The result left the spectators stunned and bewildered as they watched mighty Minnesota ground into defeat after losing once in a 33-game gridiron parade that started in 1932. The one blot on Minnesota's record was Northwestern's triumph in the mud and rain last year.

Minnesota made more first downs, gained more yards, attempted and completed more passes, and yet was able to score only nine points, chiefly because the Huskers played an astonishing defensive game with a line of seven veterans charging and blocking brilliantly.

The game, an uproarious conquest for the Huskers, was not without its tragedy. Elton McElroy, a 20-year-old sophomore fullback from Tecumseh, Neb., was in critical condition tonight, suffering from a brain concussion and possible skull fracture as a result of a terrific pileup of players in the third period.

SONS AND ALBANY PLAY TO 6-6 TIE ON LOCAL FIELD

Southern Oregon Normal school and Albany college, playing a surprise game on the local high school turf field yesterday afternoon, battled to a 6-6 tie, both teams scoring in the final half.

Originally slated for Ashland, the encounter was moved to Medford when the field in the Lithia city became unplayable because of the rain Friday. The field had been drenched Thursday, and the downpour the following day turned the earth into solid mud.

Coach Don Faber's Albany Pirates scored first midway through the third quarter on a beautifully executed forward and lateral pass. Les Pete, quarterback, shot a short forward pass to Ken Blakely, fullback. Blakely ran 10 yards, then lateraled to Captain Pete D'Alfonso, guard, who stepped 45 yards behind great interference to the goal line.

The SONS tied the score in the fourth quarter, just five minutes before the game was over. Fullback Barnes passed 18 yards to Hansen, halfback, who ran about seven more yards to the goal line.

Both teams failed to convert the extra point. The SONS attempt missed the uprights by only a few inches.

The entire first half was given over to a punting duel, with the teams opening up in the second, however, to thrill the fair sized crowd.

THE DALLES WINS O'ER KLAMATH 7-6

THE DALLES, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Pallure to convert after a touchdown spelled defeat for the Klamath Falls high school football team in a game with The Dalles here last night which ended 7 to 6 for the locals.

The Dalles pulled first, a pass from Fowler to Tuttle netting 35 yards to let Markham, fullback, carry the ball across from the 3-yard line.

A long pass, Yancy to Green, brought the Klamath Falls score, the try for the extra point failing.

POINTERS BLAST GLENDALE 7 TO 0

A two-yard blast through center by R. Pinkham early in the game gave Central Point high school its first football victory of the year against Glendale high yesterday at Glendale. The score was 7-0. A pass, P. O'Connor to Scott, added the extra point.

The Pointers of Coach Ken Hulbert staved off a determined Glendale bid in the last few seconds of the game by holding for four downs on their own six-yard line. Other outstanding players for Central Point were Copinger, right end, and Jewett, right half. P. O'Connor's punting was one of the features.

The game was played on a muddy field and beneath a heavy rain most of the time. Next week, Central Point tangles with the Ashland high second team.
