made under titles VIII and IX of the Social Security Act. Title VIII relates to taxes for old age pensions and imposes an income tax on employes and an excise tax on employers. Each tax is based on the wages paid to the employes, except as to certain services excepted by the act.

The rate for each tax levied under title VIII is 1 per cent of the wages for years 1937, 1938 and 1939. The income tax on the wages of the employe is withheld by the employer.

Title IX imposes an excise tax on employers of eight or more for unemployment compensation. The rate is 1 per cent on wages (with certain statutory exceptions) for 1936, with provision for credit not exceeding 90 per cent of the tax for contributions to state unemployment funds.

Insanity No Escape

PORTLAND, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A divorce, secured under the five-year law, does not free a husband of financial responsibility for an insane wife, Circuit Judge Robert Tucker ruled today, in ordering a husband to pay $25 a month for the support of his divorced wife.

Grants Pass Gains

GRANTS PASS, Oct. 2.—(AP)—September building permits exceeded all previous months to make the nine-month total $79,085. New residences predominated.

BRITAIN ACTS TO FORCE SHOWDOWN IN SPANISH WAR

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Great Britain and France today sought a showdown with Italy on the Spanish question despite a Soviet maneuver apparently designed to force their hand and anger Rome.

Diplomatic quarters reported that the Soviet union demanded abandonment of the entire Spanish non-intervention scheme in a note to Lord Plymouth, chairman of the 27-nation non-intervention committee. The move would permit shipment of arms and volunteers to Spain.

Paris and London went ahead with plans for a three-party conference by inviting Italy to participate in an "attempt to deal promptly and effectively with issues relating to foreign intervention in Spain."

Despite pessimistic reports from Rome, British and French were hopeful that Premier Mussolini would accept the invitations.

Diplomats said the Russian move would form the basis for further Russian negotiations to obtain greater equality of opportunity to help the leftist-inclined republican government of the war torn nation.

The note said that the old non-intervention naval patrol ceased to be effective when France and Britain withdrew their warships—following similar action of Germany and Italy.

Warcraft of the four powers had comprised the cordon around Spain to prevent shipments by water of volunteers and war materials.

LATOURETTE MAD, GOVERNOR LAUGHS

SALEM, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Gov. Charles H. Martin, after a careful reading of the statement of Howard Latourette, Democratic national committeeman, in which Latourette chided the governor for having "the audacity to say that the president agreed with him" on the Bonneville power issue, laughingly remarked:

"There will be ample Bonneville power for all candidates by election time and the rate will be within the reach of all."

Governor Martin refused to comment on last night's address of Associate Justice Hugh L. Black, of the United States supreme court.

Grazing Parley Set

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—F. R. Carpenter, director of grazing, will hold conferences at Pocatello, Oct. 18 and Burns Oct. 20 with ranchers and interested government officials to submit proposed 1939 rules to stockmen.

VERNON J. ROBINSON ACQUIRES INTEREST IN DANIELS AGENCY

A noteworthy addition to the Medford insurance fraternity is Vernon J. Robinson of San Francisco, who has acquired an interest in the McCurdy-Daniels Insurance Agency.

For several years past Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have visited in Medford and were attracted here by the outstanding advantages of the city as an ideal place of residence.

Mr. Robinson has been engaged in the general insurance business for the past twenty years, and resigned his position in San Francisco as secretary of the California Insurance company, to become associated with the local firm and make his home in Medford.

"I am very much pleased to have a man of Mr. Robinson's ability and experience associated with the McCurdy-Daniels Agency," said Mr. Daniels in discussing the new addition to the firm.

Stockholders in the corporation include T. E. Daniels, John J. Wilkinson and Mr. Robinson, all of whom will continue to be actively engaged in operation of the business. Mrs. Maud Chapman and Mrs. Edith Harwood are also employed by the agency.

On Labor Board

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Thomas Graham, Portland, and Patrick Walker, Spokane, have been appointed directors of the national labor relations board district, E. J. Eagan, acting director, announced today.
