

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

K. of C. Meeting—A meeting of the Knights of Columbus will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the parish hall of the Sacred Heart church.

Here on Business—Miss Lois Mae Horton, representative of the Silver-Burdette Book company, was a business visitor in Medford yesterday.

To Reshingle—Lewis Ulrich of 830 Minnesota street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to reshingle a residence at a stated cost of $110.

Baby Clinic—A well-baby clinic will be held in the Sparrow Memorial clinic at the Jackson county courthouse from 1:30 to 4:30 Thursday afternoon. Appointments may be made by telephoning 1359.

At Wrestling Matches—Among Ashland residents attending the wrestling matches at the Medford armory last night were Mr. and Mrs. Art Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. McDougall, W. D. Jackson, Roy Parr, Jr., Phil Keaton, Merritt Schilling and Willie Durham.

Confined to Home—Wilbur R. Childreth is confined to his home on Court street with blood poisoning. He became ill while in Eastern Oregon and returned last Saturday to receive hospital treatment here. Yesterday he returned to his home where he will be confined for several days. He is a member of the staff at the Medford experiment station.

Start Ball Plans—Plans were tentatively outlined for the annual firemen's ball at the regular monthly meeting of volunteers at fire headquarters last night. Committees will be appointed at next month's meeting and work of preparing for the dance will then begin in earnest. It was announced by Chief Roy Elliott who presided. Meantime the chief asked that the public bear the ball in mind. As in the past, it will be held Thanksgiving night. Proceeds, as usual, will be used in reconditioning discarded toys for distribution among the county's underprivileged children at Christmas.

Accordian Group to Meet—The Accordian band will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe.

From Eugene—Dr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Day of Eugene are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Arnold of this city. While here, Dr. Day plans to fish in the Rogue river. Lucille Wright of Eugene arrived here with Dr. and Mrs. Day and will make her future home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold.

Knights of Pythias Meet—Meeting of Tallman lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias, Monday evening was well attended and the concert of the band, other entertainment and refreshments were enjoyed. A meeting of the D. O. K. K. has been called for Saturday and all former members of the organization are asked to attend.

From California—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. West of Mineral, Cal. have spent the past week here visiting at the home of Mr. Wright's aunt, Mrs. L. P. Stevens. During their stay daily trips were made to points of interest throughout southern Oregon. Mr. West is state highway foreman at Mineral.

Church Meeting—For the purpose of forming a permanent organization, a fellowship, coffee supper will be held in the First Christian church Wednesday evening beginning at 6:30 o'clock. All men in the community and friends and members of the church are invited to attend. Following the supper, there will be speeches, games and music by the church male quartet.

Stanley Coming—Tom L. Stanley, manager of the Shasta-Cascade Water district association, will be here Wednesday night and Thursday morning to acquaint members with plans for the association's annual convention in Suisunville, Cal. October 18 and 19. He may be contacted through the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. At noon Thursday he will go to Ashland.

Airport Arrivals—Yesterday's arrivals at Medford municipal airport were Dave Lewis of Oakland, Cal., who was en route to Portland via Grants Pass in his Fairchild plane; Glenn Neel, inspector for the bureau of air commerce, en route from Klamath Falls to Portland in an Army North American biplane; trainer and George Yost, potato grower of Klamath Falls, who made a hop to Medford and return in his Waco.

Minor Accidents—A car driven by Philip A. Bumgardner of route 1, struck a machine operated by Wilma Kincaid of 806 West Main street yesterday at the intersection of Dakota street and South Oakdale avenue, a police report said today. The Bumgardner car struck the Kincaid machine on the right front fender and running-board, the report stated. Edward F. Walton of Prospect and Jack Charlton of Jacksonville drove cars that collided with minor damage three miles north on the Crater Lake highway yesterday morning, according to a city police report.

Make Good Catch—H. S. Kenyon of Portland, deputy clerk of the United States district court, and Otto DeJarnett, Medford postal clerk, landed six cutthroat and two steelhead trout in two and a half hours of fishing on the Rogue river yesterday afternoon. They fished a few miles this side of Gold Hill and reported the stream somewhat high but clear. One of the cutthroats hooked by Mr. Kenyon was almost as large as the smaller steelhead and was described by Mr. DeJarnett as the largest he had ever seen. Mr. Kenyon had the fish packed in ice and sent to friends in Portland.

"Varsity Show" Here Wednesday

It isn't all music and romance in "Varsity Show" coming to the Crater Lake theater tomorrow. There's fun and plenty of comedy mixed in as Fred Waring's Pennsylvania, aided by Dick Powell and Priscilla Lane, lend a touch of hokum hilarity to the proceedings.

Also featured in this year's first collegiate musical comedy are Ted Healy as the perennial freshman, and a few as much as 15 or so at the worst.

The list broke early following rumors the president's final important speech on his western tour of Chicago would sound a world warning against violation of international treaties and stress the dangers of the United States of foreign wars of aggression.

Transfers approximated 1,750,000 shares.

"Mouthpiece" Here Wednesday

Otto Kruger portrays the role of "Mouthpiece Number 1" in "Counsel for Crime" which comes to the Crater Lake theater tomorrow and Thursday as the added feature with the latest of the Charlie Chan series.

Key Luke, J. Edward Bromberg and John Marsh head the all-star cast of the mystery thriller.

In Comic Roles

Eve Arden stars with Edward Everett Horton in his funniest comedy hit, "Oh, Doctor," which plays at the Roxy theater today and tomorrow.

CHAMBER OPENING FALL PROGRAM AT LUNCH ON MONDAY

With vacation time over for another year and with the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce back in its remodeled and re-decorated building, a heavy program of winter activities was taking form today.

First major event of the autumn program will be the luncheon to be held in the Hotel Medford at noon next Monday, Leonard E. Read, manager of the western division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States will be the featured speaker.

MEETINGS IN WHICH THE CHAMBER plays a part were already on the increase today. The finance committee met this morning and tonight at 7:30 the Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral society will meet in the chamber.

BUDGE KEEPS TITLE BY HUMBLING RIGGS; CHILEAN GIRL WINS

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Donald Budge is still the world's greatest amateur tennis player. The lanky Oakland, Calif., red-head turned back a stirring challenge by young Robert Riggs of Los Angeles yesterday to retain his men's singles crown in the Pacific coast championship here. The scores were 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.
