

Portland Beavers to Play Southern Oregon All-Stars Here Saturday

GIVE FANS CHANCE TO SEE BIG TIME TALENT IN ACTION

Game Will Be First Appearance of Coast League Outfit Here in 25 Years — Luncheon Is Planned

The Portland Beavers, 1936 baseball champions of the Pacific Coast league and runners-up this season, will be in Medford Saturday afternoon to face the cream of southern Oregon talent. The game will be played at the turf high school field and will start at 2 o'clock.

Appearance of Manager Bill Sweeney's Portland club will mark the first time in 25 years a Pacific Coast league outfit has shown in Medford, and the second time in history.

Arrangements were completed this morning between officials of the Medford Athletic association, which will sponsor the southern Oregon All-Stars, and officials of the Portland baseball club. The Beavers will probably arrive in Medford sometime Saturday morning. In case they do, a luncheon will be arranged for them.

Hickett to Manage. Wally Hickett, second baseman of the Medford Graters, will manage the All-Stars. He plans to combine the finest baseball talent in Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass for the game with the colorful Coast league team.

Larry Pepper, brilliant Medford righthander, and Bill Lanning, husky hurler from Grants Pass who this year pitched in the Arizona-Texas league, will probably take care of the All-Star pitching, with possibly Lowell Brown, Ashland southpaw, and Ray Erickson, Medford righthander, being held in reserve.

Al Drollette, well-known Grants Pass catcher, will be back of the plate, with Leonard Patterson of Ashland on first base, Hickett on second, Dick Lewis of Medford on short, and either Frank Donovan of Medford or Arba Ager of Ashland at the hot corner.

Outfielders who will be on call will be Paul Hoffer of Medford, Ray and Machado of Grants Pass, Kraton of Ashland, and possibly Cyril Frantz of Crescent City, Southern Oregon league batting champion this year.

Mostly Regulars. Portland, which will be taking a barnstorming trip over the state, will present a mixed team of regulars and rookies. However, most of the regular members will be on hand to give southern Oregon fans an honest-to-godness brand of double-A baseball.

The heavyweight boxing champion signed a contract yesterday with an independent motion picture concern to appear with Clarence Muse and an all-negro cast in "The Spirit of Youth," and five other films not yet titled.

BOMBER WILL EMOTE FOR HOLLYWOOD COIN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The Brown Bomber, Joe Louis of Detroit, came out here with his softball team for exhibitions, but will stay on to emote for cash before the movie cameras.

The heavyweight boxing champion signed a contract yesterday with an independent motion picture concern to appear with Clarence Muse and an all-negro cast in "The Spirit of Youth," and five other films not yet titled.

DEER, ELK REDUCTION NEEDED TO PRESERVE BALANCE OF NATURE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—It is time for man to right a tilted natural balance and convert a certain number of deer and elk into venison to prevent others from starving, contends Dr. H. L. Shantz, director of the wild life division of the U. S. forest service.

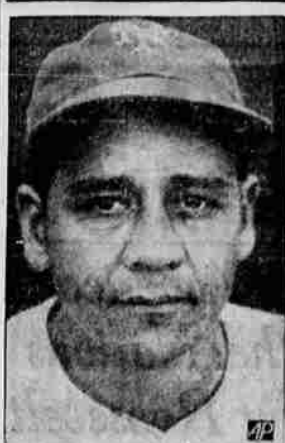

There are areas in eastern Oregon, northeastern California and central and southern Utah, where the big game population exceeds the food supply, and the only way control can be accomplished is by declaring open season on does as well as bucks," Dr. Shantz, former president of the University of Arizona, said.

Some states, he added, are now doing this.

Among the factions to be pleased by the division in such matters of policy, he explained, are the dude ranchers who want as many animals as possible to provide "atmosphere" for clients—even if the range would be damaged by over-grazing, farmers inspired by ravaged haystacks who urge extermination of the animals, and others who are opposed to killing of any game and who want to domesticate the beasts.

The forest service, he said, attempts a middle course—a sane game management program.

His Hit Helps

GUS MANCUSO
Playing a part in a vicious three-hit attack on Lefty Gomez of the Yankees, Gus Mancuso, Giants' catcher, produced the first run of the current world series with a blow in the fifth inning which brought in Rightfielder Ripple.

BOWLING

Three Classic league bowling encounters at the Smokehouse alleys last night saw Vic's Chicken Diners take three of the four points from Medco, Timber Products beat Studebaker, 3-1, and Active Club and Maid Rite roll a 2-2 standoff.

TIGERS TO INVADE ROSEBURG GRID ON FRIDAY EVENING

Klamath Falls and Grants Pass Tangle in Only Southern Oregon Conference Game During Week

Southern Oregon Conference.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Ashland	1	0	1.000
Grants Pass	0	1	.000
Medford	0	0	.000
Klamath Falls	0	0	.000

Games This Week-End. Medford at Roseburg (Friday night), Klamath Falls at Grants Pass (Friday night), Dunsuir at Ashland (Saturday afternoon).

While Grants Pass and Klamath Falls are tangle in the lone Southern Oregon conference football game this week-end, Medford and Ashland, two other league members, will be taking on powerful outside opponents.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Medford Black Tornado will travel to Roseburg Friday night for their annual battle, and Ashland entertains a great Dunsuir, Cal., eleven Saturday afternoon. Dunsuir defeated Klamath Falls, 12-6, in the opening game of the season for both teams, and is considered the strongest club to ever come out of northern California.

Drill on Air Defense. The Tigers have so far this week undergone strenuous drills destined to smooth out many rough spots appearing in the Hood River defeat last Friday. Especially has Coach Bowerman and his assistants, Ed Kirtley and Russ Acheson, drilled the outfit on pass defense, lack of which led to the Applepickers' victory.

Forty-five minutes every afternoon has been devoted to that phase, and Bowerman said today they still didn't look so hot.

According to past action, Medford can expect plenty of aerials being shot at them Friday. Roseburg lost to Cottage Grove, 20-18, last week, but scored all three of their touchdowns through the air.

Jack Hill, who sprained his back in the Hood River battle, will see no action, Bowerman stated. The injury is not serious, but the coach is taking no chances of aggravating the hurt. Dan Ehrhart, tackle, broke a finger on each hand against Hood River, but will see some service against Roseburg, Bowerman stated. Other casualties are Red Root, with a bad charley-horse, and Warren Bayliss, with an injured head. Both will play part of the time, however.

BASEBALL SCHOOL OCT. 14 IN BEND

BEND, Oct. 6.—(AP)—A school for young baseball hopefuls of Oregon, sponsored by the Cincinnati Reds, will be opened here Sunday to continue until October 14. It was announced here today following completion of arrangements.

In charge of Mickey Shuler, baseball manager of Bismarck, Ariz., the staff will include Bobby Wallace, former major league shortstop, Ben Tincup, Indian pitcher, and Paul Gehrman, pitcher who graduated from the 1936 Bend team into the big leagues.

Promising prospects will be offered contracts with one of three minor league teams or other clubs in the Cincinnati system, officials said.

OREGON WORKS OUT ON GONZAGA PLAYS

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Warned by Line Coach and Scout Gene Shields that Gonzaga would give any conference opponent a "night-might afternoon," the University of Oregon football squad considered ways and means of stopping George Karamatic when they invade Spokane Saturday.

Dummy scrimmage against reserves using Gonzaga plays occupied most of the light workout Tuesday.

Billy Hulen Says:

Giants Castoff Eager to Gain Revenge in Series

If 24-year-old Cliff Melton, the New York Giants' string-bean left-hander who was purchased from Baltimore this spring and responded by being a 20-game winner in his first year under the big top, pitches against "them 'Frank' tomorrow and wins, his young heart will be more than satisfied.

Melton was the property of the New York Yankees in 1935, but was not considered good enough for that club. He spent a brief trial with them during spring training, and after one test against the Chicago Cubs in an exhibition game, was sent to Newark, a Yankee farm. Later he was sold to Baltimore, and it was from there that the Giants procured him, spending a reported $30,000 for the rookie wrong-arm.

In the exhibition game against the Cubs that meant curtains to him so far as being a Yankee went, Melton wasn't so hot. But, he certainly had their number in the recent crucial series which decided the National league pennant. After pitching the Giants to a 9-0 shutout in the key game of the series, he came back the following day, in the ninth inning, to stop the Chicago in their tracks with the tying and winning runs on base.

So tomorrow, if the youngster goes to the mound for Bill Terry to face those heavy siege-guns of the Yankees, it will be more than a world series game to him. It will be a chance to rub it in plenty for being shunted to the minor leagues.

From this corner and at this date, it appears there will be a serious scarcity of major Oregon high school football teams who will be undefeated and untied when the curtain is lowered in November. To date, two of last year's most powerful aggregations have fallen, Hood River in its opening game of the season to Commerce of Portland, 7-6, and Eugene's mighty Avemets, with a 4-6 tie at the hands of McWhinnville last week. Salem was whipped by Camas, Wash., Saturday and The Dalles, rated one of the best, was beaten in an early season battle. McMinnville has also been trounced.

John Londahl's Bend Lava Bears apparently are on their way to another great season. In three encounters so far, they have piled up 98 points on their opponents. They beat Lincoln of Portland, 6-0, Burns, 60-6, and Redmond last week, 32-6. Last season they went through undefeated, although tied by Klamath Falls. If they keep up their present pace, Coach Bill Bowerman's Medford high Tigers will be in for a large afternoon October 30, date of the clash here.

Lloyd Hammeck, a rousing football performer for the Tigers several years back, was among those present at the Oregon-Stanford game Saturday, and he reports that Prink Callison hasn't much of a line this year. Not one to ten with last season's Webfoot forward wall, he says, and adds that the line is especially soft in the center portions.

He is just another one, however, to sing loud the praise of little Jay Grayback and Bob Smith, the sophomore passing and backfield combination that upset the Indians. He said that Bob Smith only carried the ball twice, making three yards each time, but that he almost got away once, swinging wide around end, he dodged the opposing flankmen, but the lost time in the maneuver slowed him up just enough for some other Stanfordite to get him from behind.

by fanning at a fast ball with the count two and two. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Yankees—Hubbell, working very deliberately, got the Yankees out without a run in their half of the first but only after the sensational Joe DiMaggio got his first hit and the first for the Yankees by cutting a fast ball for a single after Hubbell had walked Crosetti, the first up, and fanned Rolfe, who swung at a screw ball with the count two and two.

Crosetti stopped at second on DiMaggio's single. Gehrig flied out on the second pitched ball, and Dickey was the third out on a long fly to Leiber.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

Second Inning. Giants—The Giants went down in order, Ripple flying to Hoag after breaking his bat on the first pitched ball, which he fouled into the stands behind the Yankee dugout. McCarthy lined to Lazzari, who made a shoe-top catch, and Mancuso lined to Selkirk.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—The Yankees could do no better in their half. Hoag grounding out, Bartell to McCarthy, Selkirk bounding out, Whitehead to McCarthy, and Lazzari going down after Hubbell made a nice, gloved stab from his hopper and threw him out at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning. Giants—Gomez set the Giants down in order for the second time. Crosetti, making a neat stop at Whitehead's bounding behind second base, threw him out. Hubbell lashed a long drive which Selkirk caught on the bank a few feet out in front of the stands, while Moore was thrown out, Gomez to Gehrig.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—Likewise the Yankees fell in order before Hubbell's beautiful pitching. Gomez grounding out, Crosetti flying to Moore with the count three and two and Rolfe holting a short fly to Moore.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fourth Inning. The Giants were down one-two-three again, Bartell flying to Hoag in deep left, Lazzari grabbing Ort's tricky hopper and throwing him out to Gehrig on a pretty play and Leiber popping to Lazzari, who backed up on the grass for the catch.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—DiMaggio could do no better for the Yankees, rolling out to Whitehead, who tossed to McCarthy, Gehrig fanning with the count two and two and the crowd roared, and Dickey grounding out to McCarthy, unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning. Giants—Bill Terry's men drew first blood in a vicious three-hit attack on Gomez which produced one run. Ripple led off with a single into right field with the count two and two and McCarthy rifled a single past Lazzari on the third pitched ball.

Mancuso drove in the first run of the game. With the count two strikes and a ball, he hit into a double play. Crosetti to Lazzari to Gehrig, but the maneuver let in Ripple, who had taken third on McCarthy's an-

GRADE SCHOOL SQUADS PLAY THURSDAY, FRIDAY

Two football encounters in the Medford grade school league are on the slate for this week, both to be played on the turf of the high school stadium.

Thursday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, Lincoln and Jackson will tangle. Friday at the same hour, Roosevelt and Washington, both undefeated, will meet in what may decide the ultimate championship.

Coach Linn Mills' Roosevelt griders, averaging 94 pounds per man, roared into high gear Monday afternoon to defeat Coach Ray Hunkaker's Lincoln eleven, 39-0. Thursday of last week, Washington trounced Jackson, 33-0.

LITTLE WORLD SERIES EVENED AT THREE-ALL

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 6.—(AP)—The surprising little world series between the Columbus Red Birds and Newark's Bears was right back where it started today, all even, and more than $4000 worth of chips were down on the outcome of the seventh and deciding contest tonight.

The Birds, American Association champs, swept the three-game series at Newark, and then the Bears, International loop pennant winners by a 25% game margin, allowed the Birds a total of two runs in taking the three contests here. In the last three games the Bears outscored the Birds, 19 to 2. Last night's count being 10 to 1.

O.S.C. VETS DEMOTED IN HUNT FOR PUNCH

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 6.—(AP)—"Jumping Johnny" Alexander replaced Joe Gray, star left halfback and other veteran, gave way to reserves or sophomores as Coach Lon Stiner sought to iron out weaknesses in the Oregon State football machine Tuesday.

Hal Higgins, sophomore "find" went to the second team and Gray to the third during the afternoon's practice.

Froscott Hutchins, right guard, who has been out for the past two weeks with a wrenched shoulder, was expected to be back in the lineup when the Beavers play the University of Washington at Seattle Saturday.

Play by Play

gle. Whitehead lashed a double along the right field line. Hubbell grounded out to Gehrig, unassisted.

One run, three hits, no errors, one left.

Yankees—Hoag lifted a high fly to Bartell on the first pitch and Selkirk followed with another fly to Ripple in short right. Lazzari was the third out, swinging at a fast one with the count two and two.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Sixth Inning. Giants—Gomez yielded another hit in the sixth, but that was all the Giants could do. Moore, first up, dribbled a single through the middle of the diamond, but Bartell flied to Selkirk. Ott fouled to Catcher Dickey and Leiber hit a long fly to Hoag.

Yankees: The Yankee sluggers solved Hubbell's hurling magic with a blast of basehits which blew him out of the box after he had let in five runs and put the Yankees way in front.

Hubbell, weakening with the first pitched ball of the inning, walked Gomez and Crosetti followed with a single to left, Gomez taking second.

Rolfe filled the bases by a single to short left. DiMaggio, rapping off his second hit of the game off Hubbell's first pitch, scored Gomez and Crosetti with Rolfe taking third and Joe getting to second on the throw-in.

Gehrig, next up, was intentionally passed, filling the bases again. Dickey brought in the third run, scoring Rolfe when Whitehead failed to hold a sharp grounder and it went for a single. With three runs in, Hubbell got his first out. Hoag grounded to Ott, forcing DiMaggio to the plate, Ott to Mancuso, with Hoag safe at first. With one down, Hubbell was shocked again, Selkirk angling the third pitch sharply to right, scoring Gehrig and Dickey and sending Hoag to third.

Terry jerked Hubbell, replacing him with a righthander, Dick Coffman, but a pitch brought Harry Gumbert to the box. The announcer erroneously called Gumbert and after a conference, Terry decided to let him stay.

Lazzari continued the assault, grounding through Whitehead for an error and scoring Hoag, the sixth run, with Selkirk taking third.

Terry sent in his third pitcher, Coffman replacing Gumbert, and he promptly walked Gomez, again filling the bases. Crosetti flied to Moore for the second out and Rolfe walked with the count three and two, forcing in Selkirk with the seventh run.

The Giants' nightmare finally came to an end with the next batter, DiMaggio, flying out to Leiber in deep center.

Seven runs, five hits, two errors, three left.

Seventh Inning. Giants: The Giants did nothing to repair the damage, going out in order. Ripple flied to Hoag in short left, McCarthy rolled out, Gomez to Gehrig, and Mancuso hoisted to DiMaggio in short center.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees: Coffman pitched himself out of a tight spot after walking the first two Yankee batters, Gehrig and Dickey. Hoag, after trying to sacrifice twice, hit into a double play, Ott to Whitehead to McCarthy but Gehrig reached third, Dickey going out at second. Selkirk left him there, grounding out, Bartell to McCarthy.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees: Lazzari rang up the first homer of the series by knocking the ball into the lower left field stands with the count one strike and three balls. He got the hit off Al Smith, Giant southpaw and Terry's fourth pitcher of the game, who replaced Coffman at the start of the inning.

Smith got by the next three batters in order, Gomez going out on Ripple's one-handed stab of his line drive. Crosetti lining to Ott and Rolfe hoisting to Moore.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning. Giants: The Giants made a feeble effort to recapture the game but the best they could do was Ripple's walk to first, Ott, the first man up, struck out and Leiber lined to DiMaggio. Ripple walked and McCarthy, with the count three and two, grounded out to Gehrig, unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.
