American Legion Auxiliary

Medford unit No. 15 of the American Legion Auxiliary entertained the Legion post last evening at a covered-dish dinner at the armory. Covers were laid for 70 legionnaires and auxiliary members, including a number of visiting legionnaires and their wives. An informal resume of the national legion convention in New York was given by Lee Garlock, who with Mrs. Garlock has just returned from the east.

Following the dinner, the auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting and plans were discussed for the membership drive which is the auxiliary's

PUCHNER MOVES TO HEAD OFFICE FIRST NATIONAL

Transfer of A. R. Puchner, assistant manager of the Medford branch of the First National bank of Portland for the past 18 months, to the head office of the organization in Portland was announced today by Eugene Thorndike, manager. Mr. Puchner left Sunday to take up his new duties.

V. E. Rolfe, former state examiner of banks in eastern Washington, arrived in Medford the same day to succeed Mr. Puchner. The new assistant manager of the local branch has had 26 years' banking experience, serving as manager of the bank at Cheney, Wash., for over 20 years and the past four and a half years acting as state examiner in that state.

With his wife and two children, Jean and Verne, Mr. Rolfe is moving into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Puchner on Wellington Heights. Verne will attend Roosevelt grade school. Mr. Rolfe said his daughter, Jean, was graduated last year from a Spokane, Wash., high school, and will reside here.

Mr. Puchner had been assistant manager of the Medford branch of the United States National bank of Portland since March 1, 1936, when he had been transferred here from the head office in Portland. This latest change sees him moving back to the same position he formerly held in the head office. He will be in the credit department. Mr. Thorndike stated, although in just what capacity is not yet known.

Everyone is asked to come and make the affair a success. Each old member is requested to bring one new member to the next meeting to assist the membership chairman in the coming drive.

P.T.A. Activities

The Oak Grove P.T.A. met last Friday at the school at which time plans for the grand opening of the new, modern gymnasium were discussed. It was decided to give a Halloween carnival October 29 with teachers and P.T.A. members cooperating on plans for the evening of fun and entertainment.

Everyone is asked to come and make the affair a success. Each old member is requested to bring one new member to the next meeting to assist the membership chairman in the coming drive.

224 PLANES USED PORT LAST MONTH

Medford municipal airport was used by 224 planes in September, it was shown in a report submitted to the city council last night by Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., airport superintendent.

The planes were classified as follows: Fifty-seven United States army, 3 United States navy, 42 private, 2 bureau of air commerce and 120 United Aid Lines.

A WPA crew has laid about 1,000 feet of drain tile on the east side of the main runway south of the cross runway, the report stated.

"The bureau of air commerce requires a minimum of 10 feet in width for night operation of Douglas DC-3 planes (United Air Lines) and as soon as our runway is widened we should be able to maintain our place along the airway," Culbertson stated.

JACKSONVILLE RALLY ON SUNDAY TO MARK FOUNDING OF CHURCH

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 6.—(Sp.)—A rally to commemorate establishment of the first Protestant church west of the Rocky mountains, in the year 1854, will be held on the grounds surrounding the old Methodist church in Jacksonville, Sunday, October 10 at 2:30 p. m. The old church will be especially decorated for the event and will be open for inspection.

The rally is sponsored by the business men's association of Jacksonville and Prof. Irving E. Vining, of Ashland, will deliver the main address. All interested are cordially invited to attend. G. W. Godward is president and Grace V. Hamaker is secretary of the association.

The following program will be:

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD
Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nut!

The stomach absorbs about two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or busy—your stomach power is too much taxed. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over.

Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes three little black tablets called Bell's and for indigestion, flatulence, gas, heartburn, nausea, pain, sour stomach, constipation, and all other stomach troubles. Bell's is a powerful, safe, and reliable remedy. It is a powerful, safe, and reliable remedy. It is a powerful, safe, and reliable remedy.

GARLOCK RETURNS FROM CONVENTION AMERICAN LEGION

Lee Garlock, official delegate of the 40 at 8 to the national American Legion convention held recently in New York, returned home Monday night, weary from a 3,000-mile motor trip westward from Chicago but highly enthusiastic over the meeting that saw 300,000 legionnaires from all parts of the country take over the nation's metropolis for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garlock left Medford and motored to La Grange, Ill., where Mrs. Garlock remained with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cooper, of Washington, D. C., for a day's visit with his nephew, Lyle Garlock. From Washington, D. C., Mr. Garlock proceeded to New York City for the national convention.

While in New York City the local man saw George Andrews, Jr., former Medford resident now employed by the National Broadcasting company.

In describing the gigantic American parade, which lasted for 18 hours straight, Mr. Garlock said that all marching was done 18 abreast. Nobody paraded for 18 hours. He explained, the men keeping rank for 53 blocks and then breaking up while the parade behind them kept moving up. It took about two hours to march the 53 blocks, he said.

He said that 90 legionnaires from Oregon attended the convention, the largest delegation from that state in history. Mr. Garlock was the lone Medford man to attend.

While in New York City he stayed at the Pennsylvania hotel. Taking in a night club one night, he spotted Joe Louis, heavyweight boxing

TOMATO CROP HIT BY RECENT FROST

Frost of the past two nights in the upper and central Rogue River valley, will slow up the picking of the tomato crop, and may materially affect the quality of the remaining tomatoes, in the opinion of William A. Gates, identified with the Bagley Canning company of Ashland.

Gates said that approximately half of the estimated tomato tonnage of 40,000 tons had been picked or packed.

Before the rain of last week, and the frosts of this week, tomatoes were flowing to the cannery in sufficient quantities to require a double shift to handle them.

Adverse weather has hampered the 1937 crop here. Growing was retarded by a cool summer, causing slow ripening, and followed by a lack of ripening heat.

Gardening is sometimes referred to as "Adam's profession."
