SISKIYOU HIGHWAY INAUGURAL PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Gov. Martin Heads List of Oregon, California Dignitaries to Take Part in Gala Fete October 20

ASHLAND, Oct. 7.—(Spl.)—Plans are being rapidly completed for a gala Oregon-California celebration on Oct. 20 in observance of the formal opening of the new Siskiyou highway route from Ashland to within two miles of Siskiyou summit.

The new 10-mile stretch of modern highway will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies which will be attended by Gov. Charles H. Martin, members of the Oregon state highway commission, and various community leaders who were influential in gaining approval for the project, in addition to dignitaries from California.

Thousands of persons are expected to be on hand for the speech-making and barbecue which will be held at the intersection of the new and old roads high in the rugged Siskiyous, where most of the ceremonial features will be concentrated. A banquet at the Lithia hotel in the evening will be attended by all visiting notables and local leaders. A dance at the Chateau on the Pacific highway north of Ashland will be held later in the evening.

Four-Year Project.

Opening of the new route comes a little over four years after the letting of the first contract to von der Hellen and Pierson of Medford in September, 1933. Eight other grading and surfacing contracts were granted since that time at a total outlay of $1,021,350. Nearly as much more will be appropriated for the remaining six miles, which, when completed, will provide motorists with an entirely new super-highway from Ashland to the California border.

The first new section, which will be dedicated in the October 20 celebration, is three and one-half miles shorter than the old highway, which reaches the same point at Siskiyou station only after a circuitous route through the Siskiyou foothills.

Built according to modern engineering principles, the new route was constructed at the expense of nearly a million and a half cubic yard of dirt and rock, which were removed during the grading work, establishing the project as one of the heaviest jobs ever undertaken by the Oregon highway department.

Rise Is Slight.

The new road rises rapidly toward the Siskiyou summit, but in a comparatively straight line and at a uniform 5.5 per cent grade. Less than a half dozen "slow—curve" signs were found necessary on the first section.

The highway was actually thrown open to traffic on September 17, but highway officials advised that several weeks' use was necessary to put the surface in its final, smooth condition. The first 1.86 miles are paved with concrete, and the remainder is surfaced with non-skid bituminous macadam, held by experts to be superior for mountain driving.

Six different contracting firms were involved in the project: Von der Hellen and Pierson, Medford; Berke Brothers, Portland; Mountain States Construction Co., Eugene; Harold Blake, Portland; McNutt Brothers, Eugene, and E. C. Hall, Eugene.

OPAL HILL NEAR LONG AMBITION

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 7.—(AP)—After 12 years of fruitless sniping at the women's national golf championship, Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City entered the quarter-finals today, convinced that "this is my year."

The sturdy fairway veteran, mother of a 22-year-old son, reached the quarter-finals by ousting a former champion, Marion Hollins of California, and Marion Miley of Cincinnati, a pre-tournament favorite.

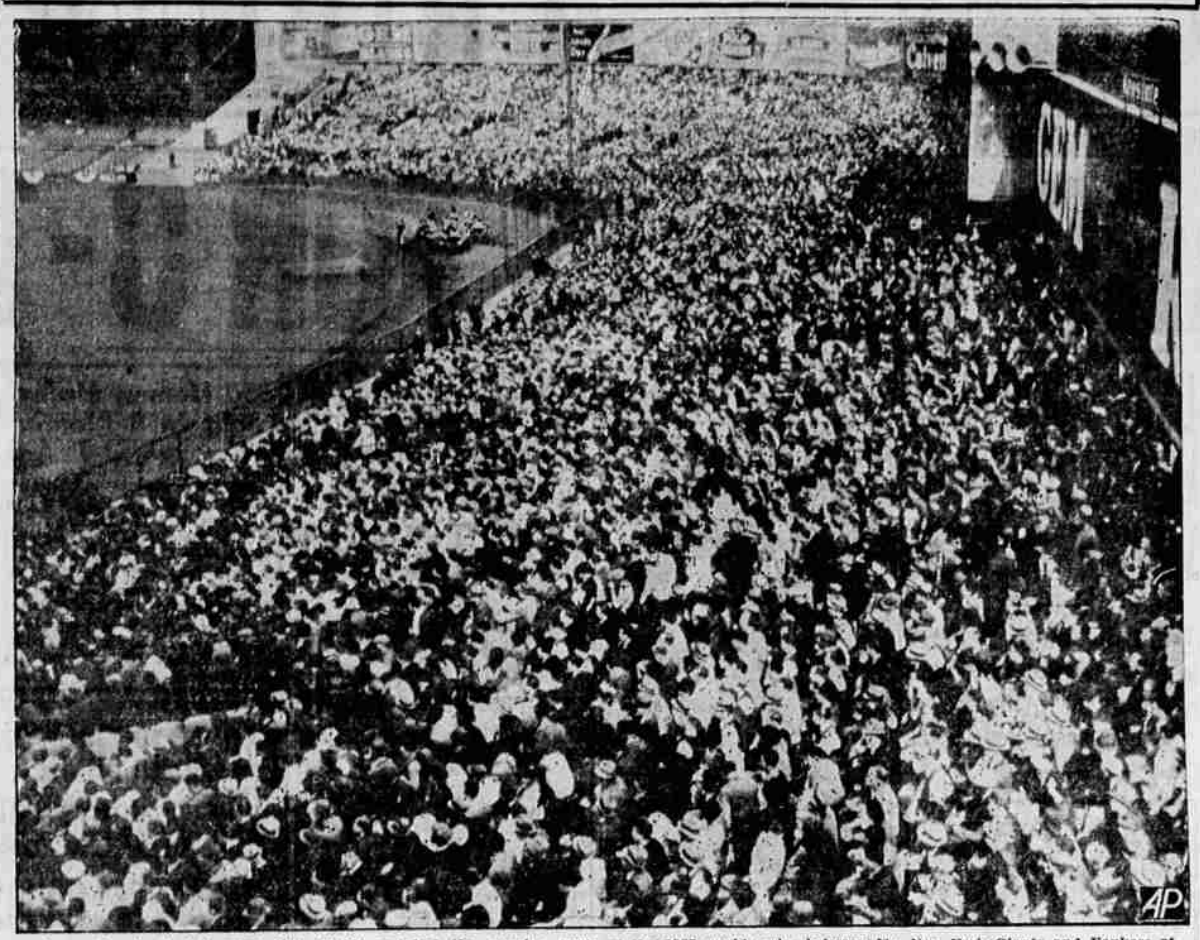
Her opponent today was Mrs. Gregg Lifur of Pacific Palisades, Cal.

Mrs. Lifur, victor yesterday over Barbara Ransom of Stockton, Cal., 2 and 1, defeated Mrs. Hill in the western amateur in 1933.

In other matches today, Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Greensboro, N. C., medalist, engaged Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, Texas; Kathryn Hemphill, 1936 semi-finalist from Columbia, S. C., played Mrs. Charles Newbold of Wichita, Kan., and Patty Berg of Minneapolis met Mrs. Willard E. Shepherd, Los Angeles.

When the first census of the United States was taken in 1790, the population was 3,929,214.

60,000 See Series Opener in Yankee Stadium



A crowd estimated at more than 60,000 watched the opening game of the 1937 world series between the New York Giants and Yankees at the Yankee stadium, captured by the Yankees, 8 to 1. This picture shows the thousands who crowded into the bleachers. Patches of open space were visible in the grandstands when the game began.

as Hubbell's started yesterday. Hoag cracked out a double and Selkirk singled, scoring Hoag. Lazzeri singled and Ruffing followed with another one-base blow, the fourth straight, scoring Selkirk, whereupon Bill Terry jerked his lean southpaw and Harry Gumbert got the Yanks out.

After clubbing rookie Melton to the showers the Yanks landed on Gumbert with their big guns in the next inning and sent him after his predecessor.

Dick Coffman, curve-ball right-hander, took over and did a neat job of retiring the side, aided by a sensational run and catch by Lou Chiozza to take Frank Crosetti's deep fly near the bleacher wall in left center.

In the seventh, the American leaguers boosted their margin to 8-1 with another two-run splurge. Joe DiMaggio started it off with a long single to left field. Gehrig drew a walk, and Dickey getting his second straight hit, singled to center to score DiMaggio. Hoag lifted a long fly to Chiozza and Gehrig scored after the catch.

The two clubs now move to the Giants' home park, the polo grounds, for the next three games, if that many are necessary.

GOVERNOR WARNS AMERICAN SYSTEM TARGET OF 'ISMS

program adopted by the last legislature, Oregon will pay out almost $25,000,000 for its social work in the current biennium," the governor said.

Tax Reformation in 1939.

Reformation of the tax structure probably will be submitted by a taxation committee for legislative consideration in 1939, he added.

Governor Martin announced broadening of the Oregon state employment service which he said will have 23 offices by January.

"From the standpoint of development of industry and economic welfare of all of the people of the state, completion of the Bonneville dam on the Columbia river is the outstanding milestone of progress of the past several decades," he asserted.

Development "for all the people" will make Oregon and the Columbia basin more independent of fluctuations in world markets, "where today we see war closing one door after another on our trade outlets," Governor Martin declared.

Issue Beclouded.

"Self-seeking politicians and demagogues have tried to becloud the Bonneville issue for their own ends, and at the expense of the people," he said. "Every cheap trick in the bag of rabble rousers has been used, but I am convinced that the people of this state will not be hoodwinked. In this modern day and age our people will be prone to accept with greater confidence and assurity the unbiased and sound calculations of trained engineers, rather than the mouthings of pundits whose specialty is in using words to conceal, rather than reveal."

The governor announced Adrien Voisin, Portland sculptor, had been commissioned to design a trophy to be presented each year to the outstanding cadet company of the University of Oregon and Oregon State college reserve officers' training corps.

JUSTICE ATTENDS PIONEER MEETING

There was no session of the Medford district justice court today, due to William R. Coleman, justice of the peace, taking a recess to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Pioneer society at Ashland. He is the son of a Rogue river valley pioneer and has missed few, if any, annual reunions.

Wayne Herbert Olson, charged with larceny, was ordered held to await action of the grand jury, when he waived preliminary hearing yesterday. Bonds were fixed at $500, in lieu which Olson was remanded to the county jail.

Olson, according to the complaint, signed by the city police, attempted to rob a parked auto bearing a Colorado license. The records show Olson, a local youth, has been in justice court three times the past two months.

Huskies Take Final Strenuous Workout

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Washington's undefeated and unscored on football Huskies went through a last strenuous workout today in preparation for Saturday's tussle with Oregon State college here. Although much stress was laid on conditioning the reserves for the Beaver game, indications were the vaunted Husky varsity would see plenty of competition against the dangerous Orangemen, who blamed fumbles for their loss to California last week. Thirty-one O. S. C. players were expected to entrain for Seattle tomorrow.

ALBANY COLLEGE, ARMY PLAY SCORELESS TIE

ALBANY, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Pitting a stronger line and defense against superior speed, the Albany college football team played the soldiers of Vancouver barracks to a scoreless tie here last night.

Vancouver threatened in the first period, marching to the Albany one-yard line, where they lost the ball on downs.

The game was replete with fumbles, but all the "breaks" occurred in mid-field.
