

Play by Play

First Inning

Yankees: After walking the first batter, Crosetti, Schumacher put three Yankee sluggers away in order, Rolfe lining to Ripple, DiMaggio going down swinging, and Gehrig bouncing out, Whitehead to McCarthy. A break enabled Crosetti to reach third. A low ball to DiMaggio crowded off Catcher Denning's foot for a wild pitch and before he could recover it, Crosetti was on third but died there.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Giants: Pearson stowed the Giants away without trouble, Crosetti nailing Moore's high bouncer and throwing him out, Bartell flying to DiMaggio and Ott also holting to Joe.

Second Inning

Yankees: The American League got to Schumacher for first blood, scoring a run on Lazzeri's single to center which put Selkirk across the plate. Dickey, first batter up, lashed a long drive to Chiozza in deep right and Selkirk walked. Hoag singled and Lazzeri punched out a single, Selkirk scoring and Hoag going to third. Pearson got Schumacher's third pass as the pitcher went wild but he got it back by making Crosetti hit into a force play. The third baseman grabbed the sharp hopper near the foul line, Rolfe fouled to Denning. One run, two hits, no errors, three left.

Giants: Pearson put the Giants away in order, Ripple going out, Gehrig grabbing his hopper, McCarthy lining to DiMaggio and Chiozza fouling to Rolfe. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning

Yankees: The irrepressible Yankees showed across two more runs, running their lead to 3-0. DiMaggio led off by flying to Chiozza and Gehrig lined a single off the right field wall but ran to second when fielder tried to catch him at first. Dickey smashed a triple, scoring Gehrig and Selkirk singled on the first pitch, scoring Dickey. Hoag sacrificed and Lazzeri was passed intentionally. Pearson fanned on a called third strike.

Two runs, three hits, no errors, two left.

Giants: Danning popped to Lazzeri, Whitehead fouled to Gehrig and Schumacher was called out on strikes.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fourth Inning

Yankees: Keeping up their bombardment of Schumacher, the Yankees nudged over another run, giving them a 4-0 lead. Crosetti was thrown out on a bouncer to Ott and Rolfe lined a hit to right, good for two bases when Ripple threw wide to second. DiMaggio beat out an infield single to Ott, Rolfe taking third. Gehrig fanned to Moore and Rolfe scored. DiMaggio holding first. Dickey forced DiMaggio, Whitehead to Bartell.

One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

Giants: Moore went out when, with the count three and two, he hit a hard smash to Crosetti, who made a nice stop. Bartell rolled out to Crosetti and Ott fanned swinging.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning

Yankees: McCarthy added to the Giant collapse by fumbling Selkirk's roller and the Yankee fielder ran to second on a belated throw to Schumacher which went wild. It was a double error for McCarthy. Hoag singled on the first pitch, scoring Selkirk. Chiozza fumbled the hit and was charged with an error which permitted Selkirk to score. Lazzeri fanned, swinging. Pearson bounced out and Crosetti filed to Moore.

One run, one hit, three errors, one left.

Giants: Again the Giants went down with hardly a struggle. Ripple grounded out, McCarthy bounced out, and Chiozza, after beating out a bunt along the first base line for the first hit off Pearson, died when Danning forced him at second. Crosetti to Lazzeri.

Sixth Inning

Yankees: Rolfe dropped a two-bagger into short right, the ball falling between Ripple and Whitehead. DiMaggio grounded out, Rolfe holding second. Gehrig holting to Whitehead and Dickey bounced out.

WHY YARDS MEAN TOUCHDOWNS is amply shown by the human ground-gripping tractor, Roy Young. The six foot, two inch, Texas Aggie's coming feet first. His shoes, 14 inches long and seven and one-eighth inches at their widest point, cost $40 a pair. They're taller than...

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Giants: Lazzeri threw out Whitehead and Wally Berger went to bat for Schumacher. He fanned, swinging. Moore drove a single to left and Hoag cut off a double by handling the rebound so fast that Moore was held at first. Bartell was called out on strikes with the count two and two.

Seventh Inning
Yankees: Cliff Melton, who was knocked out of the box yesterday, went in for Schumacher. Selkirk filed to Ripple on the first pitch. Melton stopped Hoag's hard smash but threw wildly past McCarthy and Hoag ran to second on the error. Lazzeri was passed intentionally and Pearson grounded into a double play, Whitehead to Bartell to McCarthy.

No runs, no hits, one error, one left.

Giants: Ott filed to Lazzeri on the first pitch. Ripple singled between Gehrig and Lazzeri and McCarthy piled a double off the left field wall, scoring Ripple as Hoag juggled the rebound. Chiozza bounced out and Danning was thrown out by Crosetti.

One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

Eighth Inning
Yankees: Chiozza took Crosetti's line drive and Rolfe walked on four straight balls. DiMaggio filed to Ripple and Gehrig followed suit.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Giants: Again the Giants went down swinging. Whitehead bounded out, Rolfe to Gehrig on a close play. Sam Leslie, pinch-hitting for Melton, fouled to Dickey, and Crosetti threw out Moore.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning
Yankees: Don Brennan, right hander, went in for Melton and got the Yankees out in order, Dickey lining to Ripple, Selkirk popping to Ott and Hoag lining to Bartell.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants: Bartell led off by lining to DiMaggio on the first pitch. Ott got a single to left. Ripple forced Ott at second, Crosetti unassisted but beat the relay to first. McCarthy walked on four straight balls and Pearson also threw four straight balls to Chiozza, filling the bases. Johnny Murphy, right hander, replaced Pearson. Danning filed to DiMaggio in short left and it was all over.

No runs, one hit, no errors, three left.

MIDGET AUTO DRIVER BADLY HURT IN CRASH
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Bob Swanson, nationally-known midget car driver, was critically injured last night in a spectacular crash at Gilmore speedway.

Pinned beneath his tiny machine, when it somersaulted after side-swiping another car on the 49th lap of the 50-lap event, Swanson suffered a broken right leg, possible fractured shoulder and possible spinal injury, an examination at Hollywood receiving hospital disclosed early today.

MRS. LIFUR GAINS SEMI-FINAL SPOT

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Four days ago Mrs. Greg Lifur was just one of 120 aspirants to the national women's golf championship—today she was a semi-finalist and an outstanding contender for the crown.

Mrs. Lifur, three times California champion but a newcomer to the south, yesterday disposed of Mrs. Opal S. Hill, Kansas City matron, after being three down.

"I am glad to get that match out of the way," she said after closing out Mr. Hill on the 17th green for a 2-and-1 decision.

"Mrs. Hill knocked me out of the western amateur championship in 1929 when she beat me over 37 holes in the finals and I've been gunning for her ever since."

Mrs. Lifur's semi-final opponent is youthful Patty Berg of Minneapolis, who registered a hard-earned, 2-up victory over Mrs. Helen Lawson Shepherd of Los Angeles. The match went to the last green after Miss Berg's 5-up lead at the turn had been dissipated.
