

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Officer Here — Capt. W. W. Williams of COC Camp Bonanza was in Medford today on official business.

$10 Fine—Jesse Nelder, 17, of Talent was fined $10 in city court this morning for driving a vehicle without an operator's permit.

Chorus to Meet—Jackson County Teachers' chorus will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the courthouse auditorium. All members were urged to be present in the notice of the meeting.

Lecture On Birds—Dr. Wayne Wells of the Southern Oregon Normal school will give a lecture on "Birds of Rogue River Valley" tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock in the courthouse auditorium. The lecture is primarily for the intermediate teachers' council but anyone interested in birds is welcome. Admission is free.

From Clear Lake — Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Jackson of Clear Lake, Calif., were here last night, having been called by the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Emmett Gott, who underwent an appendectomy at the Community hospital yesterday. Mrs. Gott is progressing nicely, attendants said today.

To Portland—Herb Grey, advertising manager of the Mail Tribune, and his father, J. O. Grey, left for Portland this morning. The former will attend a meeting of Oregon advertising managers. Both will visit Harold Grey, former WPA district director here and now an official in the Portland headquarters. They are expected back Sunday.

To Start Vacation — Miss Edith Funk, clerk of the Rogue River national forest, and her sister, Mrs. A. N. Krouse of Applegate, will leave here by motorcar tomorrow morning on a two weeks' vacation in the north. They will visit their father, George I. Funk, in Portland; their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy I. Funk, in Tacoma and friends in Seattle.

Off to School—Bex Wilson, acting ranger in the Union Creek district of the Rogue River national forest, and Owen Aydelott, assistant ranger at Lake of the Woods, will leave here by motorcar tomorrow for the Hemlock ranger station in Wind River, Wash., where they will attend a ranger training school. They will be accompanied by their wives, who will visit in the north while their husbands are at camp. The training school will last a month. Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, is an instructor at the camp.

All citations were made by state police yesterday.

Airport Arrivals—Today's arrivals at Medford municipal airport included Lieut. G. P. Anderson, who was en route from Hamilton field, San Rafael, Calif., to Pendleton in a Martin bomber; Jack Bellby, from Oakland, Calif., to Port Orford, in a Stinson owned by the Trans-Pacific Lumber company; and Jack Derby, from Santa Monica, Calif., to Seattle, Wash., in a P-40 owned by the fleet flying service of Santa Monica.

Plan Convention—Tom L. Stanley, manager of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association, conferred here yesterday with members, including Olen Arnspiger, president, and A. H. Banwell, manager, of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. Purpose of the conference was to go over plans for the association's annual convention in Susanville, Calif., October 18 and 19. Mr. Banwell has been appointed chairman of the convention's transportation division and will conduct round-table discussions on transportation.

In "Big Show"

In "The Big Show," which plays at the Roxy theatre Saturday only, takes Gene Autry to the Texas Centennial Exposition as a double for a snooty singing cowboy screen actor. Gene makes a bigger hit than the star would have and thus wins for himself a new girl friend and continued success. Episode 13 of the "Robinson Crusoe" serial is also on the same bill.

"It Happened in Hollywood"

Fay Wray and Franklin Pangborn assist Richard Dix in his newest starring role as that of a western movie hero in "It Happened in Hollywood," coming to the Rialto theatre Sunday for a three-day run. Added in the cast are some twenty of the actual "double" to Hollywood's most famous stars. As a pleasant surprise to movie fans is the grand return of once-

DR. BRAY RETURNS TO LOCAL PULPIT

Dr. Jonett P. Bray, who was recently assigned to the pastorate of the Main Street Methodist church (South), and family arrived from Tangent, Oregon last night to make their permanent home here. Dr. Bray was appointed at the recent conference of the church held in Spokane, Washington. Dr. Bray is no stranger in the city, having built the present church in 1929 and again served here in 1926 for a term, this being his third pastorate at the church. Dr. Bray states that he and his family are happy to be at home again and will for the present live at the parsonage instead of their home on Loxley Lane.
