

Belcastro Tangles With Paralyzer Expert in Mat Card Main Event

POGI AND WOLFE WILL MATCH DIRT IN MIDDLE EVENT

Frankie Murdock and Glen Stone Billed for Opener—Fans Look for Fireworks When Mat Villains Collide

Grappling fans of Medford and vicinity who like their mat action featured by villains, will receive their money's worth tonight at the Medford armory when Promoter Mack Lillard presents his regular Monday evening program of pain and punishment.

In all three squabbles at least one grunt and growler will be on hand to satisfy those who demand plenty of blood and thunder, and in the middle bout it will be unanimous with Les Wolfe facing Gorilla Pogi. Climax of the weekly card, which Promoter Lillard figures will pack them in, will be furnished by Weed's Mad Italian, Pete Belcastro and the Indian wonder boy from Oklahoma, Frankie Clemens. Quite an upset occurred last week when Clemens, appearing here after an extended absence, failed to paralyze Marshall Carter into submission. It marked the first time in local history that Clemens had missed with his excruciating Indian paralyzer, but at that, it was the bell that saved Carter from defeat. A clean wrestler, Clemens will be facing probably his toughest test in Belcastro, who whacked Les Wolfe to a rare-three-well last Monday. Consensus is that if Frankie can maneuver the sly and vicious Pete into his pet paralyzer, the match will be over.

To open the card, Impresario Lillard has billed Frankie Murdock, an upstanding American gentleman with Glen Stone, who carries little about the traditional niceties of the mat game. In fact Stone, who appeared here about two years ago under the name of Billy Newman, is so disinterested that he was forced to switch his moniker recently, to be able to ply his nefarious trade at all, he being suspended for life somewhere or other because of extreme cruelty.

Following Murdock and Stone into the arena will be Gorilla Pogi, affame with the Revenge Curse, and Les Wolfe, object of pogi's "waged" Wolfe, who is about the "waged" pogi to yet make a local showing, recently hammered Pogi unmercifully. The Gorilla from South America, like an elephant, has not forgotten, and has pledged himself the pleasure of ramming the Wolfe brand of dirt right back down his throat. If Pogi should be successful, he will be a very popular gent, as Wolfe is regarded by all as southern Oregon's ace meanie.

BEARS WIN THIRD STRAIGHT START

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—(P)—The Chicago Bears once again are prowling down the professional football championship trail.

The Bears, who took their last title in 1933 and since have seen the New York Giants, Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers wearing the national professional league crown, won their third straight victory of the season yesterday, defeating the young Cleveland Rams 20 to 2.

Detroit's Lions won their third game in four starts by turning back the strong Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 3. The Green Bay Packers, who started slowly this season and have lost two games, were under full steam as they rolled over Chicago's Cardinals 34 to 13.

Philadelphia, after four defeats and one tie, broke into the win column with a 14 to 0 shutout of Washington's Redskins.

ONE DEAD, THREE HURT IN 150-MILE AUTO RACE

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 11.—(P)—Pewee Dastard of Los Angeles held the 150 mile national auto racing title today after noosing out a field of crack drivers in a race marked by one death and three injuries.

Ralph Roberts, 18, Alameda high school boy, was fatally injured and his father, Henry Roberts, a WPA worker, slightly injured, when a racer driven by Sam Hanks of Alhambra, Calif., blew a tire, and crashed through a fence where the boy and his father were watching the race. Hanks was slightly injured.

FATHER MEYER WINS BOGEY TOURNAMENT

Father A. A. Meyer took top honors in blind bogey golf tournament held at the Medford public course yesterday. W. H. Catey was second and Carl C. Schroeder third.

The pitch and putting contest has been continued every day until next Sunday, according to Professional Selkirk.

On Reception Committee

Frankie Murdock (above) will welcome Glen Stone, alias Billy Newman, back to the Medford grappling ring tonight, meeting in the opening event. Murdock, master of the figure-four leg-breaker, will pit his superb wrestling ability against Stone's dirt.

Billy Hulien Says:
I. Pickem Gloats As Grid Guesses Increase Fame

Mr. I. Pickem, the world's greatest prognosticator of pigskin embroglio, modestly steps forward today to receive the acclaim due him. Against odds a only a bunch of crazy football team can produce, the celebrated I. Pickem knuckled down and batted out seven winners in 12 trips to the crystal ball, and is justly proud.

Until Saturday, the old percentage was on the verge of shrinking into something resembling what you get for letting the government take care of your do-re-mi. Now, however, the Pickem fellow can look with disdain upon those of you who flip a coin or grab from a hat. To date, including games of Saturday and Sunday, and strictly officially, the average is a neat 528. That comes from correctly putting the finger on 19 battles out of 36 during the past three hectic weeks.

To quickly get the bad news over with, here are the five encounters that spoiled I. Pickem from reaching the ultimate in prognostication. Southern California's Trojans, instead of losing to Ohio State, 14-0, defeated the Big Ten school, 13-12. Notre Dame forgot to turn on the heat and was held to a scoreless tie by Illinois instead of rolling to four touchdowns. In the same category was UCLA, which didn't send Washington, colored back, into enough action and was whacked by an underdog Stanford outfit, 12-7. The Bruina were selected by Mr. Pickem to win, 10-6. Of course, I. Pickem missed fire on the Oregon State-Washington surprise, he stating that the Huskies would cop by 21-0, and lo and behold, it was 6-3 in favor of Joe Gray and Joe Wendick of the Blinemen. But, who didn't miss on that one? (Quiet, Frank Peril, quiet.)

This one remaining football game I. Pickem really is ashamed to mention. St. Mary's 42, Nevada 0. That, boys and girls, was Mr. Pickem's big upset for the week. He prognosticated the Wolfpack from Reno would up and trim the Gaels, 7-6. Oh well, maybe next week the crystal will not be so cloudy around the Bay district.

Now for the good news. Medford high came through as expected, by an overwhelming win. Figured to trounce Crescent City with ease, the Ashland Grizzlies did it by only 6-0. However, the winner was picked. Oregon's Webfoots did far better than was expected of them; 40-6 was the count instead of 13-12 as figured. California may really have another "wonder team" at that. They defeated W. S. C. 27-0, instead of by 12-7, but again, the correct thought is there. Idaho was named a 6-0 winner over Utah and it was 2-7. Santa Clara was figured 21-14 over San Francisco and they did it, 13-0; and lastly, Army was named to win 14-7, and the actual count was 21-18, over Lou Little's Columbia club.

And now that the above is done with, Mr. I. Pickem, great as he is, wishes to doff his bonnet to a master. And, no kidding. You guys who have read this far, name somebody who honestly picked Oregon State over Washington. You can't do it, because it just wasn't being done. Almost.

TIGERS PREPARE FOR INVASION OF EUREKANS FRIDAY

Bowerman to Polish Aerial Attack for Coast Outfit—No Serious Injuries in Triumph Over Roseburg

Southern Oregon Conference

Team	W	L	Pct.
Ashland	1	0	1.000
Klamath Falls	1	0	1.000
Granta Pass	0	2	.000
Medford	0	0	.000

Week-end games in the Southern Oregon conference saw the Pelicans of Klamath Falls slide into a tie for the top spot with Ashland by defeating Granta Pass, 18-0, Friday night at Granta Pass while the Grizzlies an dMedford's Black Tornado were taking on outside opponents.

Displaying a terrific offensive punch, Coach Bill Bowerman's Tigers routed to a 39-7 win over Roseburg in a Friday night game at Roseburg. Saturday afternoon, Ashland scored once to defeat Crescent City, 6-0, at Crescent City.

To Polishing Passing
The Black Tornado will this week prepare for the invasion of the powerful Eureka high eleven at the stadium. Fairly well satisfied with the performance of the club in the Roseburg battle, Coach Bowerman stated he would place special emphasis on polishing the team's offense and defense. Medford threw only two passes in the game, one being completed and one intercepted, and the head man figures they should do better than that.

Pitifully weak on pass defense against Hood River two weeks ago, the Tigers boasted a great defense against the Bump Huddle of Roseburg. Bowerman said, attempted over 30 aerials and completed only five. Casualties were held to a minimum. John Childers, second string guard, received a sprained ankle for the most serious injury. Jack Bowman, regular halfback, hurt his shoulder slightly, and Grov received a bumped knee. Other than those, the Tigers came through in great shape.

Ettinger Scores First
Medford scoring was distributed evenly in the Roseburg rout. Bobby Ettinger broke through center in the first quarter for a 35-yard gallop to pay dirt for the initial Tiger tally. After Roseburg tied the score, Eldon Grov received the kickoff and raced 80 yards to the goal line. Red Root, on a quarterback sneak, got Medford's third touchdown, going 34 yards to the end zone. Bob Newman, just before the half-time gun, got off for a 60-yard touchdown center.

In the third period, Jack Bowman reached scoring territory after power plays, and Rodney Stead scored the final six-pointer after a blocked punt.

Series Interest Suffers From Continual Triumph Of Col. Ruppert's Yanks

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Attendance and receipts for world series baseball:

Attendance	Yesterday's Game	Total for 5 Games

Receipts	$167,747.00	$785,999.00
Commissioner's share	25,162.05	125,891.10
Clubs' share	71,292.47	356,394.46
Leagues' share	71,292.48	356,394.47

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—What baseball needs is a program to plow under every second or third Yankee and give the game back to the common players.

Every club in the American league would vote for it. The Giants, home-coming yesterday after Mel Ott scored their two runs with a homer in the third indicated the California conquistador could have done it a day earlier just as easily.

McCarthy was mostly being kind to dumb animals when he didn't "sle" Lefty Gomez on them again in the fourth. He never would have started Bump Hadley in a tight series. The aplomb with which Gomez tamed the Giants yesterday after Mel Ott scored their two runs with a homer in the third indicated the California conquistador could have done it a day earlier just as easily.

Only the Giants have been able to give the Yankees any sort of an argument at all in the world series, and that debate hasn't lasted very long in two years. Maybe the National league ought to consider breaking off relations entirely. In all seriousness today, however, baseball men generally agreed the Yankees aren't doing the game any good, and that some means of putting graphite under the juggernaut's wheels would be welcomed by every manager and owner in the two major leagues—except Col. Jacob Ruppert.

Ruppert Disappointed
The colonel, who is reputed to be down to his last 17 million in ready cash and negotiable securities, was almost heart-broken because his boys failed to make it four straight on Saturday.

The Giants, on the other hand, failed diamally in almost every department. They made nine errors, every member of the infield contributing at least one and Dick Bartell, their sparkling shortstop, muffing three. Neither did they hit when it counted. Carl Hubbell, old reliable, saved them the humiliation of a four-straight licking by holding the Yanks to six hits in Saturday's game. At that, some felt Manager Joe

HUMBOLDT IMPRESSES IN TRAMPLING S.O.N.S.

EUREKA, Calif., Oct. 11.—(P)—An impressive 34 to 0 victory over Southern Oregon Normal school of Ashland, Ore. sent Humboldt State college gridgers off to a flying start Saturday for their 1937 season.

Two touchdowns in the first period, one in the second and two more in the fourth, accounted for the score, with Earl Meneweather, Colorado halfback, setting the pace with bullet passing and flashy runs.

Southern Oregon's threat in the third period ended when Humboldt held on their two-yard line. A 60-yard dash by Hudson opened the Oregon march.

huge navigation and power project. Ross, now on a business trip to Los Angeles and Salt Lake City, was reported in his home city of Seattle as preparing to resign as a member of the securities and exchange commission. It is understood he will not yet withdraw as superintendent of city light at Seattle, a position he has held for more than a quarter of a century.

Secretary Harold Ickes of the interior department announced the Seattle municipal power exponent's selection yesterday. As guiding head of the Columbia river project, Ross will administer the transmission and sale of all hydro-electric energy produced at the dam on the Columbia river and will supervise construction of supplemental facilities for transmitting, distributing and marketing the power.

The operation of the navigation and power-generating features of the dam will be controlled by the army corps of engineers.
