W.C.T.U. Reports of State Meet Given

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Dr. Eva Carlow with the president, Mrs. Minnie Bryant opening the program. After the song, "Jesus Saves", and prayer, Mrs. Dawes led the devotionals, the theme being prayer. Mrs. Meeker sang "A Perfect Prayer."

Reports of the state convention at Newberg, once the home of ex-President Herbert Hoover, on Oct. 5-8 were heard. The sessions opened with the song "All the World Needs Jesus" and devotionals by Mrs. Rosella Douglas. Election of officers was held and Mrs. Necla Buck was named state president; Mrs. Ruth Touze, vice-president; Mrs. Alice Thomas, treasurer and D. G. Clark, recording secretary. Mrs. Minnie Bryant was named a state director and she also won first prize on her essay on Korea, or Chosen, the country she W. C. T. U. is studying this year.

Competition was held for the Pearl medal prize with contestants reciting entire chapters from the Bible and the winner will leave soon as a foreign missionary.

Many posters were displayed, the best coming from the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, which was visited by the delegates from Medford, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Cox. The trio were greatly pleased with the management of the farm reporting that it is a real home, teaching the children courtesy, Christianity, reliability, gratitude, and reverence. They have seven cottages and 168 boys and girls. The home has a grade school and junior high and students finish at Corvallis high school.

The delegates voted no on taxpayers approval of the United States operating distilleries in the Virgin Islands and negative on the sale of herring or marlinas.

County or union chairmen will be appointed at the next meeting in two weeks. Dr. Carlow closed Thursday's session with a prayer.
