

Mae Is Set for First Kiss And First Drink in Film If Censor Gives Consent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21.—(AP)—If the censors, bless 'em, let her get away with it, blonde Mae West of Brooklyn and Hollywood is all set to kiss a man and take a drink—for the first time—on the screen.

MAE WEST

For all her vamping, acquired in semi-naughty comedy, Mae has had to keep her movie characters as essentially pure as Little Eva ever since she scored back in 1933 in "She Done Him Wrong."

She is still pure in "Every Day's a Holiday," her current movie, but she hopes the censors won't mind if she gives venerable Charlie Wininger a sweet smack on the face.

As for holding a cocktail, why Garbo, Dietrich, Crawford and Colbert have been getting away with it for years.

Mae is playing an ingenious young lady named Peaches O'Day, who sells the Brooklyn bridge to a Greek pushcart peddler for $200 on New Year's eve, 1939. In the course of events, she wears 17 Paris gowns and tries to speak French.

She has been studying French for six months so her accent won't sound like Flatbush. She's also been exercising down to 117 pounds on the theory that, while curves are the most interesting distance between two points, they should be controlled.

All this has kept her busy, but not too busy to fill out a questionnaire for us. We handed it to her on the set this week. She knew all the answers:

Q—How can a girl get and hold a man?
A—One good rule, I'd say, is not to let a man know you're married than he is. As for holdin' 'em—well, the best way is in your arms.

4-H CLUB SCORES LISTED IN COUNTY FAIR COMPETITION

Table Rock, Lake Creek Girls Division Leaders—
Lake Creek, Bellview, Table Rock Boys Leaders

Scores for the 4-H clubs in Jackson county making the highest record on completion, size of exhibit, quality and attendance at the recent 4-H club fairs have just been made available.

In the girls' division these clubs are: The Table Rock Canning and Cooking club led by Mary Esther Davis, the Lake Creek Sewing club led by Mrs. Myrtle Charley, and the Table Rock Clothing club led by Mrs. Brennesholts.

In the boys' division the clubs are: The Lake Creek Beef club led by Floyd Charley, the Bellview Dairy and Pig club led by Dick Joy, and the Table Rock Livestock club led by Mrs. Frank Myers.

Going to Conference.
The leaders of these six clubs will be sent to the coming State Local Leaders association conference at Oregon State college in January, with all expenses paid.

Reserve ratings were given to Mrs. Reich, leader of the Oak Grove Cookery club, and G. E. Ousterhout, leader of the Little Butte Dairy club. In case some of the other leaders are unable to go, these leaders are first in line.

Great interest was shown in this contest, which was held for the first time this year and the boys and girls throughout the county are to be complimented on the showing they made at both the Home Economics fair and the Livestock fair, according to C. D. Conrad, county club agent.

Something for Leaders.
The contest as sponsored has furnished something for the local leaders, rather than having every thing go to the boys and girls. The club members will be benefitted a great deal, however, because the local leaders who attend these annual conferences are given an opportunity of discussing all the 4-H club problems which they are confronted with throughout the year.

FILM GLAMOR GIRLS PLUNGE HEAVILY ON SHEER SILK HOSIERY

HOLLYWOOD — Glamor on the hoof runs into money in Hollywood. The sheer silk stocking that sheathes a shapely calf is the most expensive single item in a screen star's wardrobe.

The girls figure they spend from $80 to $65 on silk draperies for each pair of shoes . . . and shoes don't last long either.

A glamor girl of the film world as soon do a lady Godiva on the Boulevard as appear in public with a run in her stocking.

The sandals season brings greatest hosiery worries, Bette Davis, during this time, never wears a pair of sheers more than twice because she's afraid of runs. When she steps out formally in lace-toed chiffon hose, she carries a set of spares in her evening bag—and she's not the only one.

Ray Francis, a particular about hosiery color, selecting stockings for harmony as carefully as she does a hat. Our wardrobe spies report the Francis stocking supply unusually large because she insists they match the color scheme of both shoes and dress.

Rough-on-hose Joan Blondell, a lively tomboy as a kid, snags, pulls or tears an average of three pairs a week.
