

Gray Leads OSC to Final Quarter 14 to 0 Victory Over Oregon

TOUCHDOWNS ARE IN LAST MINUTES OF HECTIC GAME

Callison Squad Holds For Three Quarters—Penalty Nullifies Graybeal's Run.

By Paul W. Harvey, Jr.
MAYFIELD FIELD, EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Joe Gray, Oregon State college's star fullback, threw a wet blanket on Oregon's homecoming celebration here today by passing and running his way to a 14 to 0 victory over an outclassed University of Oregon team.

Both touchdowns came within two minutes of each other in the last six minutes of the game, after the stubborn Oregon eleven buried back three Oregon State challenges. Oregon never threatened to score except in the final minute when Little Jay Graybeal's 61-yard touchdown pass was nullified by a clipping penalty against one of his mates.

With only six minutes to play, the Staters had the ball on the Oregon 17. Gray passed to Hill Duncan for seven yards, and heaved another to Duncan, who stepped 10 yards for the touchdown without a Duck player laying his hands on him. Hutchins converted from placement.

Two minutes later, with Oregon tooting caution to the winds, the Staters recovered Reginas' fumble after he completed a pass, giving the Staters the ball on the Oregon 23. On the next play Gray dashed wide around left end to the goal, where two Oregon players were waiting. But Gray's impetus bowled both his opponents over and carried the "Gray Ghost" into pay dirt. Hutchins again kicked the extra point.

A capacity crowd of 18,000 turned out for the gay occasion on a perfect Indian summer day, but a hard rain began to fall only five minutes after the final gun.

The Oregon State rooters took the goal posts home with them tonight despite efforts of the Oregon students to stop them.

Oregon passed the middle stripe only twice, going to the Oregon State 40 early in the game and to the 34 late in the final quarter.

It looked like a scoreless tie after Oregon repeatedly hurled back each challenge of the Beavers. Early in the second half Oregon State marched from its own 40 to the one-yard line, with Gray passing his way down the field. With first down and four yards to a touchdown, the Oregon line buckled down to business and held solid.

In another five minutes, Gray had passed his way again to the 16, but Ted Gebhardt ended the threat by intercepting Gray's attempted touchdown toss. The "Gray Ghost" started his mates on their way again early in the fourth period by passing and running his way from the Oregon 40 to the three-yard line, where Oregon again held the powerful Staters offense on downs.

At the close of the first half, Oregon State threatened by blocking Arleigh Bentley's punt, the Staters getting the ball on the Oregon 24. But Nilsen of Oregon intercepted Alexander's pass, Nilsen tumbling and giving the Staters the ball on the 18-yard line. Alexander attempted to toss a touchdown pass to beat the gun at the half, but Gebhardt intercepted it.

The touchdown run by Jay Graybeal, Oregon's 185-pound left half, was the prettiest play of the game, even though a penalty crossed it off the record books.

Graybeal ran through the entire Oregon State team without an opponent coming close to tackling him.

This Oregon State repeated its victory of last year, which ended Oregon's string of four victories.

Gray, virtually the Staters' one-man team, gained 138 yards from scrimmage, averaging four yards per play. Oregon State made 14 first downs to five for Oregon, gaining 193 yards from scrimmage to 78 for Oregon. The Beavers gained 88 yards by completing eight of 19 passes, while Oregon completed two of nine passes for 42 yards.

Penalties cost Oregon 30 yards and

Football Scores

Football Finals
Stanford, 13; Washington, 7.
Brigham Young, 10; Portland U., 13.

Oregon State, 14; Oregon, 0.
Washington State, 3; U. C. L. A., 0.
Southern California, 6; California, 20.

East
Army, 47; Washington U. (St. Louis), 7.

Bates, 7; Maine, 0.
Detroit, 14; Boston College, 0.
New Hampshire, 34; Vermont, 0.
Bowdoin, 30; Colby, 0.
Duke, 13; Colgate, 0.
Brown, 7; Columbia, 6.
Fordham, 7; Texas Christian, 6.
Franklin and Marshall, 12; Penn Military, 0.

Alabama, 19; George Washington, 0.
Dartmouth, 20; Harvard, 2.
Holy Cross, 6; Western Maryland, 0.
Western Reserve, 7; Boston U., 0.
Lafayette, 15; New York U., 0.
Georgetown U., 0; Pennsylvania, 0 (tie).

Pittsburgh, 21; Wisconsin, 0.
Princeton, 8; Rutgers, 0.
Washington College, 27; Susquehanna, 0.

Williams, 13; Tufts, 0.
Yale, 0; Cornell, 0.

Villanova, 21; Bucknell, 0.
Clarkson, 13; Illinois College, 7.
Vanderbilt, 7; Louisiana State, 6.
Kentucky, 13; Manhattan, 0.
Auburn, 21; Georgia Tech., 0.
Mississippi State, 14; Florida, 13.
Tennessee, 32; Sewanee, 0.
North Carolina, 13; Tulane, 0.
Georgia, 19; Mercer, 0.
Virginia Military, 26; Virginia, 7.
Maryland, 13; Syracuse, 0.
Centre, 8; Davidson, 0.
William and Mary, 36; American U., 0.

Mississippi, 46; Ouchita, 0.
Virginia Poly, 19; Washington and Lee, 7.

Midwest
Notre Dame, 9; Navy, 7.
Ohio State, 7; Northwestern, 0.
Michigan, 7; Iowa, 6.
Indiana, 27; Cincinnati, 0.
Kansas State, 15; Creighton, 7.
DePaul, 18; Evansville, 0.
Earlham, 13; Franklin, 13.
Carroll, 27; Lawrence, 7.
Nebraska, 7; Missouri, 0.
Kansas, 6; Oklahoma, 3.

Michigan State, 21; Marquette, 7.
St. Louis U., 7; Catholic U., 2.
Notre Dame, 12; Washington and Jefferson, 0.

Drake, 30; Iowa State, 0.
Swarthmore, 13; Oberlin 13 (tie).
Case, 19; John Carroll, 0.
Valparaiso, 13; Indiana State, 0.

Southwest
Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

PELICANS UNABLE TO BATTER DOWN MEDFORD DEFENSE

5000 See Scoreless Battle At Klamath Falls—Grow And Ettinger Sparkle.

Medford and Klamath Falls high schools, staging their annual Southern Oregon conference football battle in the Pelican City Friday night before over 5000 spectators, fought each other to a scoreless deadlock with a savage display of defensive power.

Four times Coach Bill Bowman's Black Tornado, sparked by Fullback Eldon Grow and Left Halfback Bobby Ettinger, moved to within scoring distance, but each time they were set back on their heels by a rock-like Klamath defense, or penalties at crucial moments.

Hucky Dominic Giovannini twice battered the Pelicans to within sight of the Medford goal line, but both times a Medford line, considered not so good, rose up to withstand the assault and keep its final marker inviolate.

It was a battle of lines, with any edge going to the surprising forward wall of Medford. The Tigers reached great heights shortly before the end of the first half when they held four times on their own seven-yard line as Giovannini tried in vain to reach pay dirt.

The Tigers held a decided advantage in the first half, twice penetrating deep in Klamath territory. Grow, who tossed successful passes all evening, shot one down the middle to Don Monteith for a first down on the Klamath 20. However, the Tigers were penalized 15 yards for holding on the next play, and the Pelicans took the ball on downs a few moments later. That was in the first period.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tornado again moved to within striking distance. After Grow and Bowman had taken the locals to the Klamath 23 on shots off the tackles, Grow lined an aerial to Ettinger, who was downed on the 18. Case, 19; John Carroll, 0.

Valparaiso, 13; Indiana State, 0. Southwest
Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

Rocky Mountain
Utah State, 34; Wyoming, 7.
Colorado College, 13; Colorado Mines, 6.

Western State, 7; Greeley State, 0.

Arkansas, 13; Southern Methodist, 0.

Baylor, 13; Texas A. and M., 0.
Rice, 13; Texas, 7.
Texas, 27; Oklahoma A. and M., 0.

STANFORD TRIMS WASHINGTON 13-7 IN SURPRISE WIN

SEATTLE, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Washington made the first downs and Stanford the touchdowns and the red-shirted Indians from the south marched away with a 13 to 7 triumph after a dizzy Pacific coast conference gridiron battle in the Washington stadium here today.

Some 22,000 spectators saw Washington, the "wonder mid-field team" of the year, drop all hope of successfully defending its conference championship, when it fumbled two end zone punts that eventually led to Stanford touchdowns.

Stanford's unexpected victory—unexpected in Seattle at least—kept the Indians within striking distance of the 1937 title and a chance to move into the Rose Bowl. All they have to do is beat California.

Despite the fact they were unable to garner a first down and had a minus-10 yardage total after the first two periods of play, the Indians nevertheless had a touchdown.

Late in the second period Stanford gained entrance to Washington territory for the first time when Jimmy Johnston, playing with an injured and bandaged hand, fumbled Pete Fay's punt and Grant Stone recovered for the Indians on the Washington 44-yard line. This was the play that led to the Huskies' downfall. A following Stanford punt rolled to the 33-yard line, and when Johnston attempted to kick from his end zone, Bill Willard crashed in and blocked the ball.

The pigskin went a mile high in the air, and while the rest of the players, Stanford and Washington gridlers alike, stood around wondering what to do, Stone dashed in like Joe DiMaggio and hauled it down for a touchdown. Bill Paulman booted the extra point from placement.

At this point Washington had rolled up nine first downs and 133 yards. Altogether the Huskies counted 15 first downs to three for Stanford and a net 224 yards compared with eight for the Indians on scrimmage plays. Even on passes, Washington was able to proudly point with pride—39 yards to 24—but the scoreboard read Stanford 13, Washington 7, just the same.

Stanford's winning touchdown came in the third period after a faulty punt by Bud Wise from the Washington goal line, but the score was made much more legitimately than the first.

Consolation Winners
DUBLIN, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The heavy American participation in the Irish hospital sweepstakes was demonstrated again today when United States ticket holders won 426 out of 800 consolation awards drawn from the drums of chance. Each is worth $500.

was a power-house fullback at Lute. However, the entire Tiger team played magnificent ball.

Medford gathered 13 first downs to 10 for Klamath Falls, most of the Tigers' coming from shots through the line by Ettinger, Hill and Grow. The Pelicans were powered almost exclusively by Giovannini, but when the pressure was on the Tornado line was equal to the task of stopping him cold.

Lineups:
Medford: Klamath
Monteith E Crapo
Wilson (c) E Hough
Erhart T Ewing
Santo T Biber
Eri G Sample
Richardson G Wilson
Prentice G Harding
Root G Angus
Ettinger HB Owen
Bowman HB Yancy
Grow FB Giovannini

Substitutes: Medford, Stevens, Hill, Bayliss, Campbell; Klamath, Young, Hill, Weber.

Officials: Referee, Joe Peak; umpire, Cecil Chase; head linesman, Harold Hendrickson.

Use Mail Tribune want ads

FIELD GOAL NETS COUGARS VICTORY OVER UCLANS, 3-0

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Washington State Cougars upset the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles today, scoring a field goal in the final quarter to win 3 to 0.

Backers of the Bruin Blues, numbered among the scant 20,000 witnessing the game, waited four quarters for the Uclans to break out in a scoring fever. They are still waiting.

Late in the third period, Coach Babe Hollingberry's redshirts from the northwest got the ball on the Bruin's 36 when fullback Joe Seinka recovered a fumble by Buster Sutherland, Bruin substitute full.

Led by line-smashing Carl Littlefield and Little Paul Carroll, Washington State marched to the two. Then in the fourth the Bruin line showed signs of holding—something it hadn't done very well before—and Senko stepped back and booted a placement for the only three points of the game.

Nine minutes after the opening kickoff, Bottari crashed left tackle for three yards. The touchdown came on the tail end of a 57-yard march.

Five minutes later, Bottari spun around left end for four yards to climax a drive of exactly 70 yards.

The third touchdown, nine and one-half minutes after they changed sides, saw Anderson crack through left guard for six yards after a California march starting 67 yards from goal. The Bears also had to make up for a 15-yard penalty during this thrust.

Chapman placekicked two of the extra points.

Ambrose Schindler, Southern California's starting quarterback and sparkplug of earlier victories, was effectively bottled up by the charging Bears during the first half.

California chalked up 20 first downs against eight for U. S. C. and banged out 304 yards from scrimmage compared to 64 for the Trojans.

With less than three minutes to go, the game was decided by a safety.

Chuck Sweeney, Notre Dame right end, dove into Alan MacFarland with a crashing tackle to score a safety, and the previous two points that meant victory for Notre Dame.

Notre Dame opened the final period with a furious attack. Jack McCarthy, Notre Dame fullback, scored a touchdown on the second play. Pupils kicked the point that tied the score.

Navy scored early, with Dick O'Dunderdon, Middle guard, recovering a fumble on Notre Dame's nine Emmet Wood, in the Navy backfield, bored through the middle of the line for a touchdown and later placekicked the point.

Notre Dame outgained the Middle, 201 yards to 113 and nine first downs to six.

Yale Downs Cornell 9 to 0 in Mud, Rain

YALE BOWL, NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Captain Clint Frank, Yale's all-American, dashed 67 yards for a last-period touchdown that topped off a decisive victory for the Elis over Cornell today 9 to 0.

Yale's 29-yard placement field goal, in the first quarter, accounted for the remaining points as the Blue kept its slate clean in a hard-fought game, played in the mud and rain before 40,000 spectators.

Princeton Downs Rutgers.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Scoring only in the first period, Princeton defeated Rutgers, 6-0, for its 34th successive victory over its oldest gridiron rival before a crowd of about 35,000 in Palmer stadium today.

BEARS TROUNCE TROJANS 20 TO 6, CHECK SCHINDLER

It's Pete Belcastro versus Bob Kenaston and Bobby Chick tangling with Glen Stone tomorrow night at the Medford armory in a double main event, figured by fans to provide enough fireworks for a dozen of Promoter Mack Lillard's grappling cards.

Immediately following the opening squabble, pitting Frankie Clemens against Frankie Murdock, a coin will be tossed to determine which of the main event pairs will wind up the program. The losers in the coin-flipping business will meet in the middle event, both the top two tangles being for one hour or the best two out of three falls. The opener will be under the Australian system of six 10-minute rounds.

Promoter Lillard, after hectic negotiations, finally signed Belcastro and Kenaston for a top spot, and the consensus of fan opinion is that the match will be one of the most sensational in years.

Behind brilliant line play, featured by the work of two sturdy guards, Stockton and Evans, Vic Bottari, left halfback, scored two touchdowns in the opening quarter while Fullback Dave Anderson followed with another in the second period.

Southern California saved itself from the humiliation of being blanketed by pushing over a touchdown in the last period, finishing a march which started in the preceding quarter.

The Trojans score, however, was made against a complete team of California substitutes. It saw Landsdell, reserve quarterback, go over from the one-yard line to end up a 77-yard advance which started when Right Halfback Morgan intercepted a pass in the third quarter.

Nine minutes after the opening kickoff, Bottari crashed left tackle for three yards. The touchdown came on the tail end of a 57-yard march.

Five minutes later, Bottari spun around left end for four yards to climax a drive of exactly 70 yards.

The third touchdown, nine and one-half minutes after they changed sides, saw Anderson crack through left guard for six yards after a California march starting 67 yards from goal. The Bears also had to make up for a 15-yard penalty during this thrust.

Chapman placekicked two of the extra points.

Ambrose Schindler, Southern California's starting quarterback and sparkplug of earlier victories, was effectively bottled up by the charging Bears during the first half.

California chalked up 20 first downs against eight for U. S. C. and banged out 304 yards from scrimmage compared to 64 for the Trojans.

With less than three minutes to go, the game was decided by a safety.

Chuck Sweeney, Notre Dame right end, dove into Alan MacFarland with a crashing tackle to score a safety, and the previous two points that meant victory for Notre Dame.

Notre Dame opened the final period with a furious attack. Jack McCarthy, Notre Dame fullback, scored a touchdown on the second play. Pupils kicked the point that tied the score.

Navy scored early, with Dick O'Dunderdon, Middle guard, recovering a fumble on Notre Dame's nine Emmet Wood, in the Navy backfield, bored through the middle of the line for a touchdown and later placekicked the point.

Notre Dame outgained the Middle, 201 yards to 113 and nine first downs to six.

Yale Downs Cornell 9 to 0 in Mud, Rain

YALE BOWL, NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Captain Clint Frank, Yale's all-American, dashed 67 yards for a last-period touchdown that topped off a decisive victory for the Elis over Cornell today 9 to 0.

Yale's 29-yard placement field goal, in the first quarter, accounted for the remaining points as the Blue kept its slate clean in a hard-fought game, played in the mud and rain before 40,000 spectators.

Princeton Downs Rutgers.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Scoring only in the first period, Princeton defeated Rutgers, 6-0, for its 34th successive victory over its oldest gridiron rival before a crowd of about 35,000 in Palmer stadium today.

FLIP OF COIN TO PICK MAIN EVENT ON ARMORY CARD

It's Pete Belcastro versus Bob Kenaston and Bobby Chick tangling with Glen Stone tomorrow night at the Medford armory in a double main event, figured by fans to provide enough fireworks for a dozen of Promoter Mack Lillard's grappling cards.

Immediately following the opening squabble, pitting Frankie Clemens against Frankie Murdock, a coin will be tossed to determine which of the main event pairs will wind up the program. The losers in the coin-flipping business will meet in the middle event, both the top two tangles being for one hour or the best two out of three falls. The opener will be under the Australian system of six 10-minute rounds.

Promoter Lillard, after hectic negotiations, finally signed Belcastro and Kenaston for a top spot, and the consensus of fan opinion is that the match will be one of the most sensational in years.

Behind brilliant line play, featured by the work of two sturdy guards, Stockton and Evans, Vic Bottari, left halfback, scored two touchdowns in the opening quarter while Fullback Dave Anderson followed with another in the second period.

Southern California saved itself from the humiliation of being blanketed by pushing over a touchdown in the last period, finishing a march which started in the preceding quarter.

The Trojans score, however, was made against a complete team of California substitutes. It saw Landsdell, reserve quarterback, go over from the one-yard line to end up a 77-yard advance which started when Right Halfback Morgan intercepted a pass in the third quarter.

Nine minutes after the opening kickoff, Bottari crashed left tackle for three yards. The touchdown came on the tail end of a 57-yard march.

Five minutes later, Bottari spun around left end for four yards to climax a drive of exactly 70 yards.

The third touchdown, nine and one-half minutes after they changed sides, saw Anderson crack through left guard for six yards after a California march starting 67 yards from goal. The Bears also had to make up for a 15-yard penalty during this thrust.

Chapman placekicked two of the extra points.

Ambrose Schindler, Southern California's starting quarterback and sparkplug of earlier victories, was effectively bottled up by the charging Bears during the first half.

California chalked up 20 first downs against eight for U. S. C. and banged out 304 yards from scrimmage compared to 64 for the Trojans.

With less than three minutes to go, the game was decided by a safety.