Miss Doris Patton Weds at Beautiful Candlelight Service

The marriage of Miss Doris Patton, daughter of Mrs. Warner Patton, to Mr. Wayne Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Harris, was solemnized at a beautiful candlelight ceremony Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother on Valley View Drive.

The Rev. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read the service at five o'clock before an improvised altar banked with green huckleberry and large white chrysanthemums with smaller white pompons. The chrysanthemums hung from the top of the altar and white ribbon streamers ran from them and the huge baskets of the same flowers to the tall gold candelabra which were lighted with white tapers, giving a lovely chapel effect.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Gain Robinson and wore an old fashioned gown of white taffeta and short veil with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley. The maid of honor, Miss Helen Patton, sister of the bride, was dressed in blue taffeta with narrow bands of velvet around the skirt and waist. She wore a pink bouvardia garland in her hair and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Mr. Maurice Harris attended his brother as best man and usher was Kenneth Patton, brother of the bride and Jack Barr.

Mrs. C. Norman Gail sang "Through the Years" preceding the ceremony and Mrs. Charles Laird of Martins, California and a class mate of the bride at Mills college, played incidental music and the wedding march. Chester Wood played a violin solo.

A reception followed the ceremony with more than one hundred guests present. The bride's table was decorated with white snapdragons with silver candelabra and white tapers. Mrs. Patton wore a gown of apricot lace.

Mrs. Harris is a graduate of Mills college and Mr. Harris is a former student of the Southern Oregon Normal. They will live in Medford following their return from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Harris was guest of honor at a party arranged by a group of friends Thursday while a stag party was given for Mr. Harris the same evening.

Taylor-Arnspiger Nuptials Are Held Sunday Afternoon

Miss Mary Arnspiger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Arnspiger, was married to Charles Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor of Central Point, at an attractive service last Sunday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. O. Thayer, Dr. T. H. Temple, of the Talent Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon, before an improvised altar banked with ivy and large baskets of pink gladioli and blue delphinium.

The bride wore a gown of white net over white satin with a white band of flowers in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of Tallman roses.

The Misses Bertha and Frances Arnspiger, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids and Miss Bertha Arnspiger wore a blue lace gown and Miss Frances Arnspiger's gown was of pink chiffon. Each carried a nosegay bouquet of roses.

Mr. Alfred Taylor attended his brother as best man. Mrs. Rawley Moore played "Lohengrin's Wedding March" by Wagner and "In an Old Garden" and "Sweet Lavender" by McDowell.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal school and also attended the University of Oregon and Oregon State college. Mr. Taylor attended the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon Normal. The couple will make their home on Beall Lane.

The Garden Club

The fall exhibit of flowers sponsored by the Medford Garden club at the Hotel Medford Saturday afternoon and evening proved to be so successful the show will be held over all day today.

Roses, marigolds, zinnias, anemones and dahlias are among the flowers on display. An especially interesting and magnificent bloom is the fall blooming iris from the A. W. Walker home. It is known as the Eleanor Roosevelt and is a deep purple.

The beautiful roses exhibited by Mrs. H. D. McCaskey and those of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walker have attracted much attention, as have the dahlias in mixed colors shown by Col. W. H. Paine. The dahlias from the Elliot gardens and the Lester rose gardens are also attractive features of the show.

Miss Fox Marries Mr. Overmyer at Vancouver, Wash.
