The Garden Club

The fall plant sale of the Medford Garden club will be held Saturday, Oct. 30 in the store building, 211 East Main street next to Brophy's. Everyone is asked to contribute extra shrubs, bulbs and perennials. If unable to deliver them early Saturday morning at the above address, please call Mrs. A. Orin Schenck, 326-J-2 and they will be called for.

When possible, plants should be packed in berry boxes, cake boxes, or tin cans and all shrubs should be baled to some extent and the roots wrapped in paper and tied. If this is done when plants are taken up it will help the committee a great deal and insure more successful planting. In the past the entire community has responded generously for these sales and it is hoped all will keep this sale in mind and help.

SEARCH IS CONTINUED FOR GEORGE TIMOTHY

Residents of Gold Hill continued to watch Rogue river today, the twelfth day since the disappearance of George O. Timothy, 87-year-old former Medford police chief. Authorities believe Timothy took his own life by drowning in the 6-foot deep channel under the Gold Hill bridge. He was last seen disembarking from a stage in Gold Hill Oct. 16. Since then, authorities and Gold Hill residents have searched in vain for the aged man.

DUST BOWL REFUGEES ADD TO NECESSITY OF INCREASING NYA PLAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Midwestern droughts, national youth state administrators said today, have made an expanded program essential to the Pacific northwest.

Thousands of families, they explained, have migrated to Idaho, Oregon and Washington from dust bowl areas. Among them are many needy children who cannot be cared for at present by the NYA although they are deserving.

The officials, Ivan Munroe of Oregon, John Binns of Washington and William Gartin of Idaho, are here for a national conference of youth administrators.

Munroe said at least 3,000 families have come to Oregon the past two years. They have flocked to Washington and Idaho in similar numbers. "I hope to have an opportunity to propose," he said after today's session "a program which will make a place for these dust bowl youths. Binns said the youth problem has 'hardly been touched' and termed it a 'great work.' Munroe said Oregon has 800 on 'out-of-school' projects and 2,400 on college and high schools jobs.

4-H CLUB LEADERS MEET TOMORROW

Jackson county's local 4-H club leaders will hold their first 1937-38 meeting in the court house auditorium here at 8 tomorrow night. H. C. Seymour, state 4-H leader, will be present at the meeting to help answer questions brought out in the discussion period. Many new clubs are being organized this year, and this will give the new leaders, as well as the old-ones, an opportunity of clearing up numerous questions concerning the year's work, executives said. Anyone interested in 4-H club work, whether a leader or not, is welcome to come to the monthly meetings and will find them interesting and educational, it was emphasized.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(P)—A last minute flurry of short covering lifted the stock market into an irregular finish today. Steels, rails, motors and a few utilities moved up briskly from their afternoon lows. In other sections of the list issues of fractions to about 2 points ruled.

Steel and Chrysler were outstanding leaders on the late upswing each turning in fractional gains, although under morning highs. U. S. Steel was the pivotal performer. While it gained early in the session in response to the first dividend on the common in five years, it slipped when Wall street took second thought.

Transactions approximated 1,100,000 shares. Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:
