COUNTY BRIEFS

Beagle

BEAGLE, Oct. 28.—(Sp.)—The social given at the school house October 21 by Antioch community Sunday school was well attended. A fine program was rendered as follows: songs; by men's chorus; reading; Robert Bischoff; song Claudine Stallings; recitations, Mr. Lucas; song Betty Lou and Marjorie Ann Brownwood; recitation, Cleo Bischoff; song Betty Walters; song, Ina Pearl Lucas; song by the young people; song by men's chorus. The men's chorus master-acted as ladies and dressed in the latest, from the street suit to the full formal, which was the source of a lot of laughs from the audience. Games supervised by Mr. Grant were enjoyed after the program and lunch of pumpkin pie and coffee was served. The proceeds will be used at Christmas time. We want to thank those from neighboring districts who attended.

Talent

TALENT, Oct. 28.—(Sp.)—Crater Lake Campfire Girls met at the home of Miss Clair Withroe Thursday evening. Plans were made for their Halloween dance to be given Saturday night. New officers elected for the year were: Lavelle Mason, president; Juanita Boardman, vice-president; Earlene Withroe, secretary-treasurer; Clair Withroe, sergeant-at-arms. Committees will be appointed later. Harland Lowe, Vernon Wattenberger and Clarence Mathis visited the Medford airport Sunday. Hulda Estes and Cornelia Hickey shopped in Medford Saturday. Mrs. Clarence Mathis, local president of the P-T-A, attended P-T-A school of instruction at Medford Friday.

Central Point

CENTRAL POINT, Oct. 28.—(Sp.)—The Civic club served dinner in the grange hall Wednesday noon to 141 diners. Proceeds will go toward reducing the indebtedness on the library roof repair. The citizens appreciate the work of this courageous club which accomplished so much to retain the library. Mrs. D. V. Vany of Kansas City, Mo., who spent the summer here with her sister, Mrs. Viola Lappman, left Thursday for her home. Mrs. Jack Brenner of Portland arrived by train Thursday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Smith and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Marine and daughter, Wendolite, motored to San Francisco Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Smalser, Milan Seiler and daughter, Mrs. Davis, all of whom are from Pennsylvania, and are guests of relatives in Central Point. Chief reason for the trip was to give the visitors a leisurely view of the new San Francisco bridge, of which the entire coast is justly proud.

The Grange

Roxy Ann Grange. Roxy Ann Grange will give a Halloween dance Saturday evening, October 30, at their hall on Spring street. There will be a prize waltz. Music by Silva's orchestra. Dancing from 9 to 12:30. Harry Lowe, principal of the new Elk Rogue school, and his family spent the week-end in Talent. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tryon attended the opening of the new Siskiyou highway Wednesday.

Big Applegate

BIG APPLEGATE, Oct. 28.—(Sp.)—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Medford are the parents of a nine-pound son born Friday, October 23. The new arrival is a grandson of Mrs. Ayr Smith of Ruth. G. O. Henderson, employed in the Klamath county potato harvest, spent the week-end at his home on Little Applegate. The Henderson family came here from California, a short time ago, and reside at the Fred West home. Mrs. Albert Young entered the Community hospital at Medford Tuesday, expecting to undergo a major operation the following morning. Horace Turpin, injured in a truck accident in northern California early in September, went to Yreka Sunday to have a cast removed from his arm. He is employed by the Pierce Auto Freight company.

Butte Falls

BUTTE FALLS, Oct. 28.—(Sp.)—Lee Edmondson's funeral on October 17 was attended by a large host of friends and relatives. The floral tributes were beautiful and abundant. There were so many flowers that all could not be placed on his grave, but other graves were decorated. All liked Lee Edmondson and were saddened by his departure. Services were held at the church in Butte Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon of Fort Klamath, Lee Edmondson's brother-in-law and sister, came in time to see Lee. They attended the funeral and returned home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Higenbotham of Malin spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week here. They attended Lee Edmondson's funeral. Mrs. Ben Edmondson was called back to Seneca by the illness of her daughter. Francis Chapin is back at school after a sabbatical of tonalitis. Mrs. Oliver Hickey had tonalitis, but is better. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edmondson have moved into Miss Taylor's house. May Geppert, who is recovering from pneumonia, is still under a doctor's care. Her fever has left her and she is relieved of the anxiety and fear which goes with illness. Mrs. J. A. Hickey has been ill but is better. The high school had a pie social, entertainment and ball game last Thursday evening. The boys won, 14 to 10, over the girls. Mrs. Obra Abbott was unable to have the Hustlers club last Thursday, so she met with Mrs. Hilbert Abbott. About sixteen were present. Two new members were voted into the club, Mrs. Lohr and Mrs. Lester Smith. The club worked on Mrs. Geppert's quilt. The hostess served ice cream, fruit cake, cookies, coffee and tea. All had a good time besides accomplishing quite a little work. Next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Hereford, Thursday afternoon, November 4.
