Hallowe'en Dance Planned by Elks Saturday Evening

One of the larger affairs of the week-end is the Hallowe'en dance to be given by members of the Elks lodge Saturday evening at the Elks temple. Stanley G. Sherwood is chairman for the event which will start at 9:30 o'clock. Special decorations in keeping with the Hallowe'en season have been arranged for and Dickey's orchestra will furnish the music.

The dance is for members and invited guests only and the committee wishes to stress the fact that guests must have invitation cards for admittance. These are to be secured from the secretary in advance of the dance.

Assisting Mr. Sherwood on the committee are Ray E. Knips, Earl York, Murray Bell and E. P. Coleman.

Former Residents Travel in East

Their many friends will be interested to know that Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Perreault and daughter Jacquelyn Lee, formerly of Medford and now of San Francisco, are traveling in the east having left California via The Challenger on October 12, traveling through Chicago and Buffalo to Gardner, Massachusetts where they are visiting Mr. Perreault's parents and family.

They will return to San Francisco through Boston, New York, Dallas and Kansas City where they will stop with relatives of Mrs. Perreault, and then continue to Los Angeles where Mrs. Perreault's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nelson, formerly of Posen, Oregon, now reside.

Mrs. Perreault was Miss Opal Dunham before her marriage.

Carnival, Program Planned by School

A carnival and program will be given at the Oak Grove school Friday evening at 8 o'clock and parents and teachers are participating in plans for the evening. The event has been arranged to celebrate the grand opening of the new gymnasium.

Proceeds from the evening will go toward equipment for the gymnasium and other projects of the Parent-Teacher association.

Roxy Anne Unit Meets Friday

The Roxy Anne Home Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Helvey on Spring street Friday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock for the first meeting of the fall. The subject is "Clothing and Accessories" and all members and friends are invited.

Formal Dinner and Pledging Planned by Beta Sigma Phi

A formal dinner will be given Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Medford by Beta Sigma Phi sorority to honor the five pledges of the group. Formal pledging exercises will be held after the dinner.

The new members of the sorority are the Misses Everetta Gillespie, Justine Miller, Patsy Thompson, Betty Flynn and Barbara Schmidt.

Miss Mildred Drury is president of the sorority.

Methodist Jubilee Is Well Attended

The 80th year jubilee of the Newman Methodist Episcopal church was celebrated Wednesday in Grants Pass with many Medford folk in attendance. Representatives from Ashland, Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Eugene, Marshfield, Salem, Portland, were also present for the interesting and inspiring event. The Rev. John H. Coon is pastor of the Newman church.

The morning program opened with devotionals by Rev. Charles R. Brown, pastor of the Methodist church of Lakeview, followed by a talk by the Rev. M. T. Wire of Ashland. The Rev. O. J. Gill of Marshfield led a discussion and a round table discussion of the early history of establishing the church in Grants Pass was held.

Lunch was served at noon and afternoon speakers included: S. Raynor Smith, pastor at Roseburg; Dr. M. L. Simpson, pastor of Centenary-Wilbur church of Portland; Dr. H. Earl Parker of Eugene, and a most interesting address by Mr. E. W. Petersen of Portland, who spoke on missionary work in foreign fields.

Dinner was held in the community hall of the church attended by approximately 250 persons. At the same time in the evening, ministers and old timers of the church were introduced with Rev. Coon, pastor host, as chairman. Dr. Bruce Baxter of Willamette University gave the address of the evening and Mr. Petersen also spoke.

Sidney Hall, district superintendent, was in charge of the jubilee.
