English, Scottish Music Presented for Club Program

The Medford Music club held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting early in the week at Mrs. Effie Kurts' studio with Mrs. Katherine Wendt in charge of the program, the subject being "Music of Scotland and England."

Mrs. Esther Palmer Day played three harp solos, "Annie Laurie," "Flow Gently Sweet Afton" and "Autumn."

Mrs. Margaret Fabrick read a paper on Scottish music, the data being compiled from an old manuscript which has been in her family for many years. Her group is giving a party this evening at the home of Miss Laura Gentner, 44 Orange street.

The affair starts at 7 o'clock and all members are invited to attend.

The next meeting of the group will be held November 22 at the Baldwin Piano shoppe with "Music of China and Japan" the theme for the evening. Mrs. Lois Young will be in charge of the program.

Auto Union Heads Sue Ford Company

DETROIT, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Nine officers and members of the United Automobile Workers of America filed suits in Wayne county circuit court today asking $1,000,000 damages from the Ford Motor company and Harry H. Bennett, Ford personnel director, for injuries allegedly resulting from fighting near the Ford Rouge plant May 26.

The fighting accompanied an U.A.W. attempt to distribute union literature at the plant gates. The suits name the Ford company, Bennett and other persons designated as agents or employees of the company.

1286 Veterans Seek Lands In Tule Lake

KLAMATH FALLS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—A total of 1286 ex-service men and more than 100 non-veterans entered applications for the 69 homestead units on Tule Lake, Cal. to be distributed in January, the bureau of reclamation announced today after a final count.

Applications are still straggling in, but none received after the deadline last Monday night will be considered. Veterans are given preference in allotting the homesteads, and non-veterans will qualify for the tracts only in the unlikely event any are left over after the veterans' qualifications have been examined, bureau officials said.

Turkey Association Sets Selling Date

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Following completion of plans for opening killing plants at Canby, Albany, Eugene and Roseburg, the Oregon Turkey Growers, through McKinley Huntington, president, announced today that marketing will start November 4.

Supplementing the usual pools of the fall and winter season, the association this year will maintain four plants where growers may deliver live turkeys to be killed and dressed, and those will be shipped out in carload lots at frequent intervals, Huntington reports.
