Neivita Chapter of O.E.S. Observes 29th Anniversary

Neivita chapter, number 93, Order of Eastern Star of Central Point, celebrated the 29th anniversary of its founding Tuesday evening, last, with past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons as honor guests. Mrs. Minnie Clark, worthy matron, was chairman for the delightful evening.

Edward Vincent, worthy patron, likened the growth of the chapter to a tree and called attention to the many things made from trees. At the conclusion of his remarks, Mrs. Marjorie Pena sang "Trees," accompanied by Mrs. Sadie Konler.

Harold Head, associate patron, spoke of the mythical tree and Mrs. Clara Vincent, associate matron, compared the trunk of the tree to the charter members. The secretary then read the names of the 16 charter members, and Mrs. Beulah Faber, associate conductress, likened the branches to the past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons. After these names were read, the conductress, Mrs. Evelyn Skyman, added the names representing the individual members. The worthy matron then paid a tribute to the fallen leaves, the deceased members, and the representation was concluded by Mrs. Gladys Jewett placing a wreath of autumn leaves on the altar and giving the prayer.

Mrs. Nellie McGowan of Medford, and past worthy matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, extended greetings to Neivita chapter and told of her and Mr. McGowan's part in the institution of Neivita chapter October 27, 1908. Mrs. Blanche Taylor, worthy matron of Adair chapter number 3 of Jacksonville was a welcome guest and expressed appreciation of the meeting.

The honor guests and members then adjourned to the dining room where the conductress was waiting to introduce the five points of the star. Mrs. Margaret Swing, carrying a triangle of blue cake lighted with matching candles, spoke briefly and then placed this blue cake at the side of a white cake with 5 sides. The other star points Mrs. Marjorie Pena, representing the yellow ray; Mrs. Della Tex, the green ray; Mrs. Bertha Bonney, the white ray, and Mrs. Gladys Jewett, the red ray, followed in order, saying a pleasing bit of verse appropriate to the occasion and placing their lighted cakes to complete the star.

The response was made by Mrs. Lola Norcross, second worthy matron of the chapter and Mr. Norcross, the first worthy patron.

Placecards of autumn leaves and miniature gavels of highly polished wood marked the places of the honor guests. The chapter room and dining room were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves with every detail carried out in the wood motif. Cansie holders and the bowls containing the leaves on the serving tables were all of wood. All arrangements were made by Mrs. Clark, assisted by Clara Vincent and the other officers.

Members of the association are exhibiting pictures and in addition there will be shown a very fine collection of etchings by noted artists.

The 1936 total for the same period was $16,375. Value of permits also showed a sharp decline under September of this year when permits totaling $34,680 were issued. No special significance was attached to the extremely low figures by the inspector's office, however. It was stated that October was always the poorest building month.

MRS. SWEET WILL REVEAL WONDERS OF SUBCONSCIOUS

Wonders of the subconscious mind will be revealed tonight by Viola Sweet in resuming her series of lectures under auspices of the Mail Tribune, at St. Mark's Guild hall on North Oakdale. She will illustrate her discussion with a memory training demonstration tending to prove that it is possible to memorize instantly anything desired.

"Memory is the basis of education," she explains in demonstrating the importance of the subconscious mind, "and efficiency can be greatly increased by developing this faculty."

"Things well done are easily done," Mrs. Sweet, "and anything becomes easy when we know how. But we limit ourselves by thinking things are impossible. Ultimately, nothing is impossible if we learn to use the subconscious mind, which can be easily trained, resulting in increased efficiency, mental power and personal charm."

Mrs. Sweet will open her discussion by reading a story written by her daughter when she was only 10 years of age, in which the child analyzed and explained the subconscious mind clearly. The subconscious mind stores a house of memory and seat of all subconscious activities is not so profound that it is understandable only to those who have developed into the new psychology. On the other hand, it may be explained so clearly that even a small child may understand and make use of it.

Mrs. Sweet is a woman of remarkable personality and ability, and has the happy faculty of making even an abstract subject understandable and practical. Her lectures have met with most favorable comment by all who have heard her. She has a message of interest to every thinking person. Even when she hits one squarely between the eyes, she does it in such a charming, pleasing way that he not only takes it but comes back for more, because he realizes that she is explaining the things that everyone should know.

Tuesday morning at 10 the subject will be "Making Dreams Come True."

The last free lecture of the series will be given Tuesday night at 8 on "The Shortest Road to Success."

There will be a paid lecture for women only Wednesday morning at 10 on the subject of "Sex, the Part It Plays in Life."

DO AMERICA'S FLIERS APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS?

Y Camel bet they do! In aviation is one of the most loyal groups of Camel smokers in the country. For example, the famous transcontinental record holder, Col. Roscoe Turner, smokes Camels. So do test-pilot Lee Gehlbach, Capt. Frank Hawks, and TWA's chief pilot, Hal Sneed—to mention only a few. As Col. Turner puts it: "I guess you've noticed that men in aviation are great smokers. And, from what I see, most fliers share my regard for Camels. They need healthy nerves. That's one big reason why so many of us stick to Camels."

And many millions of Americans—more people than smoke any other cigarette in the world—give a hearty o-kay to Camels!

WINIFRED CASTLE works long hours at her editorial desk—smokes a lot. She says: "I can smoke as many Camels as I please and they never get on my nerves."

PETER KILLIAN is a news photographer. His slant: "Camels are always with me—especially at the table. Camels help my digestion to keep clicking."

WARREN PIAGET, crack salesman, drives 50,000 miles—and more—a year. "I get tired," he says. "And I think it's swell the way Camels give me a 'lift'."

EDWARD HURLEY, busy architect, says: "To my way of thinking, a man doesn't really know what honest-to-goodness natural flavor means until he smokes Camels."

ED GRAFFE, gym instructor, says: "Camels set me right—and that takes in a lot of angles. I can smoke all I please without getting jangled nerves."

MARIE DRISCOLL, business girl, speaks for a good many stenographers when she says: "Camels have everything I like a cigarette to have."

GENE ENGLISH, radio engineer, notices what cigarette the stars like: "Camels seem the favorite. I smoke Camels. They don't make my throat feel scratchy."

Camel spends MILLIONS MORE FOR COSTLIER TOBACCOS! Camels are a matchless blend of finer—MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic.

NEW DOUBLE-FEATURE CAMEL CARAVAN Two great shows—"Jack Oakie College" and Benny Goodman's "Swing School"—in one fast, fun-filled hour. On the air every Tuesday night at 9:30 pm E.S.T., 8:30 pm C.S.T., 7:30 pm M.S.T., 6:30 pm P.S.T., over WABC-Columbia Network.
